11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 1

1-) What is the main meaning of the Arabic sentence in this passage? (19 kelime)
It means that the

2-) What act of worship is at the center of this short passage? (2 kelime)

3-) At what stage does this praise come, according to the passage? (5 kelime)
It

4-) What does calling Allah the Lord of all worlds show about His relationship to creation? (12 kelime)
It shows that

5-) Does the passage point to praise for one group only or for all creation? Explain briefly. (15 kelime)
It points to

6-) What belief about Allah is affirmed by the phrase “Lord of all worlds”? (11 kelime)
It affirms

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 2

1-) In simple American English, what does this passage say? (17 kelime)
It says that the

2-) Who is being praised in the passage? (1 kelime)

3-) What title of Allah appears in the passage? (9 kelime)
He is

4-) What does the word “final” add to the meaning of the passage? (13 kelime)
It shows that

5-) If Allah is the Lord of all worlds, what does that imply about His care and authority? (15 kelime)
It implies that

6-) Is the focus of the passage on asking for something or honoring Allah? (5 kelime)
It

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 3

1-) What is the core message of this one-line passage? (17 kelime)
The core message is

2-) What does the passage teach about how speech should end? (8 kelime)
It should

3-) Why is Allah's name followed by a title related to all worlds? (14 kelime)
To show that

4-) What does this statement teach about the scope of Allah's lordship? (10 kelime)
His lordship

5-) What relationship between prayer and praise appears here? (9 kelime)
Praise is

6-) What is emphasized more here: information about creation or devotion to the Creator? (4 kelime)
Devotion

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 4

1-) What is being described as the last part of their call or prayer? (2 kelime)

2-) Which name or attribute of Allah in the passage makes the praise universal? (11 kelime)
The title

3-) What does the passage imply about the right response of believers at the close of worship? (9 kelime)
They should

4-) Why does the passage not limit Allah to one nation or one place? (11 kelime)
Because it

5-) What does this line show about the importance of praise in Islam? (16 kelime)
It shows that praise

6-) How does the passage combine belief and worship in a few words? (11 kelime)
It declares

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 5

1-) What final expression does the passage highlight? (9 kelime)
It highlights

2-) To whom does all praise belong in this passage? (2 kelime)

3-) What does the passage teach about the conclusion of a believer's supplication? (9 kelime)
Its conclusion

4-) What does the phrase about all worlds teach about Allah's greatness? (10 kelime)
It teaches

5-) In this passage, is praise presented as temporary or lasting until the end? (8 kelime)
It is

6-) How does this passage strengthen tawhid in a reader's heart? (14 kelime)
It directs praise

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 6

1-) According to the passage, what stands at the close of their words? (3 kelime)

2-) What is the passage mainly doing: telling a story, giving a law, or expressing worship? (4 kelime)
It

3-) What does the passage suggest about the best ending for a prayerful statement? (7 kelime)
The

4-) How does this short line show both faith and manners of worship? (13 kelime)
It shows faith

5-) Why is the phrase about all worlds important for understanding Allah correctly? (12 kelime)
It prevents a

6-) Give one brief theme word that fits this passage well. (1 kelime)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main meaning of the Arabic sentence in this passage?
It means that the ending of their prayer or call is praise to Allah, the Lord of all worlds.
2-) What act of worship is at the center of this short passage?
Praising Allah.
3-) At what stage does this praise come, according to the passage?
It comes at the end.
4-) What does calling Allah the Lord of all worlds show about His relationship to creation?
It shows that He is the Owner, Sustainer, and Ruler of everything.
5-) Does the passage point to praise for one group only or for all creation? Explain briefly.
It points to all creation, because Allah is described as the Lord of all worlds.
6-) What belief about Allah is affirmed by the phrase “Lord of all worlds”?
It affirms His universal lordship over every world and every creature.

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In simple American English, what does this passage say?
It says that the final thing they say is praise to Allah, the Lord of all worlds.
2-) Who is being praised in the passage?
Allah.
3-) What title of Allah appears in the passage?
He is described as the Lord of all worlds.
4-) What does the word “final” add to the meaning of the passage?
It shows that praise remains at the conclusion and is not something secondary.
5-) If Allah is the Lord of all worlds, what does that imply about His care and authority?
It implies that His care and authority reach everything, not just one place or people.
6-) Is the focus of the passage on asking for something or honoring Allah?
It is on honoring Allah.

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the core message of this one-line passage?
The core message is that the conclusion of one's supplication or call should be praise to Allah.
2-) What does the passage teach about how speech should end?
It should end with glorifying and thanking Allah.
3-) Why is Allah's name followed by a title related to all worlds?
To show that the praise belongs to the One who sustains and governs everything.
4-) What does this statement teach about the scope of Allah's lordship?
His lordship is universal and includes all realms of creation.
5-) What relationship between prayer and praise appears here?
Praise is shown as a fitting conclusion to prayer.
6-) What is emphasized more here: information about creation or devotion to the Creator?
Devotion to the Creator.

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is being described as the last part of their call or prayer?
Praising Allah.
2-) Which name or attribute of Allah in the passage makes the praise universal?
The title that describes Him as the Lord of all worlds.
3-) What does the passage imply about the right response of believers at the close of worship?
They should turn to praise and thankfulness to Allah.
4-) Why does the passage not limit Allah to one nation or one place?
Because it describes Him in a way that includes every world.
5-) What does this line show about the importance of praise in Islam?
It shows that praise is central enough to stand at the end of one's prayerful words.
6-) How does the passage combine belief and worship in a few words?
It declares who Allah is and responds to Him with praise.

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What final expression does the passage highlight?
It highlights giving praise to Allah at the end.
2-) To whom does all praise belong in this passage?
To Allah.
3-) What does the passage teach about the conclusion of a believer's supplication?
Its conclusion should be full of praise to Allah.
4-) What does the phrase about all worlds teach about Allah's greatness?
It teaches that His greatness extends over everything that exists.
5-) In this passage, is praise presented as temporary or lasting until the end?
It is presented as lasting until the end.
6-) How does this passage strengthen tawhid in a reader's heart?
It directs praise to Allah alone and reminds the reader of His complete lordship.

11sinif supreme-sign-p114-conclusion-supplication-and-closing-praise - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what stands at the close of their words?
Praise to Allah.
2-) What is the passage mainly doing: telling a story, giving a law, or expressing worship?
It is expressing worship.
3-) What does the passage suggest about the best ending for a prayerful statement?
The best ending is praise of Allah.
4-) How does this short line show both faith and manners of worship?
It shows faith by recognizing Allah's universal lordship and worship by praising Him.
5-) Why is the phrase about all worlds important for understanding Allah correctly?
It prevents a narrow view and teaches that His lordship includes everything.
6-) Give one brief theme word that fits this passage well.
Gratitude.