11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 1

1-) Who is being addressed by the atmosphere in this passage? (11 kelime)
A traveler

2-) Why might the atmosphere be described as both rough and gentle? (13 kelime)
Because it can

3-) How does the traveler respond to the atmosphere's call? (12 kelime)
He looks at

4-) How does the passage show that clouds act in an organized way? (16 kelime)
They appear and disappear

5-) What lesson comes from the comparison between clouds and an obedient army? (9 kelime)
Their movement

6-) Why is the military comparison effective in describing the clouds? (6 kelime)
It

7-) What role of the air shows its importance for plant life? (4 kelime)
It

8-) What does the image of rain coming from a hidden treasury suggest? (13 kelime)
It suggests that

9-) What does the phrase "hidden treasury of mercy" teach about rain? (11 kelime)
It teaches

10-) What broader conclusion can be drawn from the cloud, wind, rain, and lightning together? (15 kelime)
They all work

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 2

1-) In this passage, what part of creation begins to speak to the traveler in a symbolic way? (8 kelime)
The atmosphere,

2-) What makes the clouds an example of wisdom and mercy? (12 kelime)
They provide life-giving

3-) How are the atmosphere's outward features presented in a balanced way? (12 kelime)
They are shown

4-) How quickly do the clouds gather when it is time for rain? (10 kelime)
They gather

5-) How does the passage emphasize the wide range of the air's service? (10 kelime)
It mentions

6-) Why does the traveler focus on the many tasks of the wind? (11 kelime)
To understand

7-) Besides helping creatures breathe, what else does the air carry to living things? (6 kelime)
It

8-) What does the description of raindrops suggest about the care behind their creation? (6 kelime)
It

9-) Why is calling rain "mercy" an important interpretation in the passage? (12 kelime)
Because it presents

10-) What can be inferred from the short statement about lightning and thunder? (14 kelime)
They also serve

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 3

1-) What message does the atmosphere give the traveler at the beginning of the passage? (16 kelime)
It tells him that

2-) What is the atmosphere said to declare to the traveler? (13 kelime)
It declares that

3-) What are two important services the clouds provide for the earth? (10 kelime)
They bring

4-) What detail shows that the clouds are not acting randomly? (11 kelime)
They withdraw

5-) What does the passage suggest by saying the clouds can fill the sky and then vanish? (10 kelime)
It suggests

6-) Name three tasks the air performs according to the passage. (12 kelime)
It helps living

7-) Why is pollination mentioned in the passage? (15 kelime)
To show that

8-) What service of the air is related to communication? (3 kelime)

9-) What does the traveler notice about lightning and thunder? (13 kelime)
He sees that

10-) What overall conclusion about the atmosphere does this passage lead the reader toward? (14 kelime)
Its events are

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say the traveler can discover through the atmosphere? (14 kelime)
He can discover

2-) What claim does the atmosphere make about itself to the traveler? (14 kelime)
It claims that

3-) What does the passage teach about how clouds serve living things? (12 kelime)
They deliver needed

4-) What impression does the traveler get from observing the wind? (14 kelime)
He sees it

5-) What does the passage imply by saying the clouds wait for further orders? (11 kelime)
It implies

6-) What does this description of the particles help the traveler understand? (15 kelime)
It helps him

7-) What view of rain is encouraged by calling it a form of mercy? (16 kelime)
It encourages people to

8-) How is rain portrayed emotionally as well as physically? (11 kelime)
It is

9-) What does the traveler understand about rain from these qualities? (10 kelime)
He understands

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 5

1-) From what perspective does the passage examine the atmosphere? (11 kelime)
It examines

2-) How is the atmosphere's appearance and sound described? (14 kelime)
Its appearance seems

3-) How do the clouds help make the earth suitable for life besides sending rain? (4 kelime)
They

4-) How do the clouds show mercy toward the earth's inhabitants? (13 kelime)
They provide water,

5-) What does the traveler notice about the work of the wind? (15 kelime)
He notices that

6-) Which function of the air connects different creatures or places to one another? (6 kelime)
Its

7-) How does the air benefit both humans and other creatures? (13 kelime)
It helps all

8-) Why is rain given the name "mercy" in the passage? (10 kelime)
Because it

9-) How does the final mention of lightning and thunder support the passage's message? (10 kelime)
It shows

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 6

1-) What role does the traveler play in the passage? (14 kelime)
He acts as

2-) What feeling does the description of thunder give along with fear? (7 kelime)
It

3-) What does the phrase about the clouds waiting for more orders suggest? (12 kelime)
It suggests that

4-) What scene shows the clouds' readiness to obey? (13 kelime)
They quickly gather

5-) How does the passage describe the air at the level of its tiny particles? (13 kelime)
It describes them

6-) What does the air do that supports life indirectly through plants? (4 kelime)
It

7-) Which detail shows that the atmosphere serves plant life as well as animal life? (4 kelime)
It

8-) How are the raindrops described physically? (8 kelime)
They are

9-) What central truth ties together clouds, wind, rain, and lightning in this passage? (14 kelime)
All of them

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is being addressed by the atmosphere in this passage?
A traveler who has come to the world as a guest.
2-) Why might the atmosphere be described as both rough and gentle?
Because it can seem severe in power but still serves creation with kindness.
3-) How does the traveler respond to the atmosphere's call?
He looks at it and listens carefully to what its signs reveal.
4-) How does the passage show that clouds act in an organized way?
They appear and disappear in a disciplined manner and gather quickly when commanded to release rain.
5-) What lesson comes from the comparison between clouds and an obedient army?
Their movement follows order and command rather than chance.
6-) Why is the military comparison effective in describing the clouds?
It highlights obedience, coordination, and readiness.
7-) What role of the air shows its importance for plant life?
It helps with pollination.
8-) What does the image of rain coming from a hidden treasury suggest?
It suggests that its source is beyond human control and full of mercy.
9-) What does the phrase "hidden treasury of mercy" teach about rain?
It teaches that rain is a precious gift sent with compassion.
10-) What broader conclusion can be drawn from the cloud, wind, rain, and lightning together?
They all work with wisdom and purpose, showing the order and care of the Creator.

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what part of creation begins to speak to the traveler in a symbolic way?
The atmosphere, or the space around the earth.
2-) What makes the clouds an example of wisdom and mercy?
They provide life-giving water, balance heat, and rush to help where needed.
3-) How are the atmosphere's outward features presented in a balanced way?
They are shown as strong and awe-inspiring, yet also helpful and life-serving.
4-) How quickly do the clouds gather when it is time for rain?
They gather within a very short time, even within minutes.
5-) How does the passage emphasize the wide range of the air's service?
It mentions many different tasks for animals, plants, and communication.
6-) Why does the traveler focus on the many tasks of the wind?
To understand that such wide and careful service cannot be meaningless.
7-) Besides helping creatures breathe, what else does the air carry to living things?
It carries warmth, light, and electricity.
8-) What does the description of raindrops suggest about the care behind their creation?
It suggests beauty, precision, and kindness.
9-) Why is calling rain "mercy" an important interpretation in the passage?
Because it presents rain as a sign of divine kindness toward creation.
10-) What can be inferred from the short statement about lightning and thunder?
They also serve wise purposes, even if those purposes are not fully explained there.

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What message does the atmosphere give the traveler at the beginning of the passage?
It tells him that by looking at it, he can reach the truth he is seeking.
2-) What is the atmosphere said to declare to the traveler?
It declares that it can lead him to the One he is seeking.
3-) What are two important services the clouds provide for the earth?
They bring water to the world and help balance heat.
4-) What detail shows that the clouds are not acting randomly?
They withdraw completely at times and then return quickly when needed.
5-) What does the passage suggest by saying the clouds can fill the sky and then vanish?
It suggests impressive power joined with strict order and discipline.
6-) Name three tasks the air performs according to the passage.
It helps living things breathe, carries heat and light, and transmits sound.
7-) Why is pollination mentioned in the passage?
To show that even plant life depends on the careful work done through the air.
8-) What service of the air is related to communication?
It carries sound.
9-) What does the traveler notice about lightning and thunder?
He sees that they also have amazing duties and are not meaningless events.
10-) What overall conclusion about the atmosphere does this passage lead the reader toward?
Its events are organized, beneficial, and meaningful, showing the wisdom and mercy of Allah.

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say the traveler can discover through the atmosphere?
He can discover the One he is seeking and the One who sent him.
2-) What claim does the atmosphere make about itself to the traveler?
It claims that it can guide him to the truth he is looking for.
3-) What does the passage teach about how clouds serve living things?
They deliver needed water and respond to the needs of the earth.
4-) What impression does the traveler get from observing the wind?
He sees it as a servant carrying out many duties with order and generosity.
5-) What does the passage imply by saying the clouds wait for further orders?
It implies they are under authority and act according to command.
6-) What does this description of the particles help the traveler understand?
It helps him see that the air is working under higher control, not by itself.
7-) What view of rain is encouraged by calling it a form of mercy?
It encourages people to see rain as a compassionate gift rather than just a natural process.
8-) How is rain portrayed emotionally as well as physically?
It is portrayed as beautiful drops that carry compassion and care.
9-) What does the traveler understand about rain from these qualities?
He understands that rain is full of mercy and benefit.

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) From what perspective does the passage examine the atmosphere?
It examines it through the reflections of a traveler observing creation.
2-) How is the atmosphere's appearance and sound described?
Its appearance seems harsh yet caring, and its thunder sounds powerful but also uplifting.
3-) How do the clouds help make the earth suitable for life besides sending rain?
They reduce excessive heat.
4-) How do the clouds show mercy toward the earth's inhabitants?
They provide water, reduce harsh heat, and hurry to where help is needed.
5-) What does the traveler notice about the work of the wind?
He notices that it carries out many useful duties in an orderly and generous way.
6-) Which function of the air connects different creatures or places to one another?
Its carrying of sound connects them.
7-) How does the air benefit both humans and other creatures?
It helps all living things breathe and supplies what they need for life.
8-) Why is rain given the name "mercy" in the passage?
Because it brings many caring gifts and benefits to creation.
9-) How does the final mention of lightning and thunder support the passage's message?
It shows that even dramatic atmospheric events serve meaningful purposes.

11sinif supreme-sign-p12-the-atmosphere-the-wise-services-of-clouds-wind-rain-lightning-and-thunder - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What role does the traveler play in the passage?
He acts as an observer who learns about the Creator by studying the atmosphere.
2-) What feeling does the description of thunder give along with fear?
It also gives a sense of joy.
3-) What does the phrase about the clouds waiting for more orders suggest?
It suggests that they are under control and do not act independently.
4-) What scene shows the clouds' readiness to obey?
They quickly gather and cover the sky when it is time for rain.
5-) How does the passage describe the air at the level of its tiny particles?
It describes them as if they are carrying out commands with perfect order.
6-) What does the air do that supports life indirectly through plants?
It assists in pollination.
7-) Which detail shows that the atmosphere serves plant life as well as animal life?
It helps pollinate plants.
8-) How are the raindrops described physically?
They are described as delicate, shining, and sweet.
9-) What central truth ties together clouds, wind, rain, and lightning in this passage?
All of them show deliberate order and point to a wise and merciful Creator.