this passage?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 1

It is to understand the messages that creation gives about Allah's oneness and His lordship, with each being expressing that in its own way.

2

What is the ninth aim of life?

Cevap 2

It is to recognize the levels of Allah's power and richness by reflecting on one's own weakness, helplessness, poverty, and need.

3

How does the example of hunger help explain the ninth aim?

Cevap 3

Just as hunger helps a person appreciate food and its different kinds, human need and weakness help a person grasp, in some measure, Allah's unlimited power and

4

What transition happens at the end of the passage?

Cevap 4

After listing the aims of life, the passage turns to a new topic, which is the nature of life.

5

What does this comparison teach about the relationship between human need and divine richness?

Cevap 5

It teaches that human need makes Allah's unlimited richness and generosity more noticeable.

6

Why is hunger a fitting example in this passage?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 6

Because it is an everyday experience that clearly shows how need helps a person recognize the value of what satisfies that need.

7

What new subject is introduced at the very end?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 7

The passage begins to introduce the nature of life.

8

In this passage, what are people supposed to understand from the beings in the world?

Cevap 8

They are supposed to understand what those beings indicate about Allah's unity and His care, rule, and authority over creation.

9

Does the passage present the world as silent or meaningful?
Explain.

Cevap 9

It presents the world as meaningful, because all beings are shown as giving signs that can be understood.

10

What human qualities are named as tools for recognizing divine power and wealth?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 10

Human helplessness, weakness, poverty, and need.

11

What comparison is used to explain this idea?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 11

The passage compares it to how the enjoyment and kinds of food are better understood through hunger and different needs.

12

What do both points have in common?

Cevap 12

Both are ways of coming to know
Allah more deeply.

13

What is meant by saying these are the aims of life in brief?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 13

It means these points summarize life's main purposes in a concise way.

14

What is the function of the final sentence of the target passage?

Cevap 14

It closes the summary of life's aims and introduces the next discussion about what life is in its nature.

15

What is one duty of human life toward the created world according to the eighth point?

Cevap 15

One duty is to pay attention to creation and understand how it points to Allah's oneness and His rule.

16

How is the world described indirectly through the eighth point?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 16

It is described as full of signs that communicate truth about the Creator.

17

What inward experience does the ninth point focus on?

11sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 17

It focuses on a person's awareness of their own weakness, need, and poverty.

18

How do the eighth and ninth points differ in where they direct attention?

Cevap 18

The eighth directs attention outward to the world, while the ninth directs attention inward to the human condition.

19

What view of human beings comes out of this passage: self-sufficient or dependent?

Cevap 19

Dependent, because people are described as weak and needy before Allah.

20

Why does the passage end by saying to consider the nature of life next?

Cevap 20

Because it finishes one section about life's aims and prepares the reader for the next section.

21

According to the passage, what should a person understand from the different beings in the world?

Cevap 21

A person should understand that they each point to Allah's unity and His lordship in their own distinct way.

22

What does the passage suggest about the variety of creation?

Cevap 22

It suggests that the variety of creation reflects many different signs leading to the same truth about Allah.

23

What personal realities should a person reflect on in the ninth point?

Cevap 23

A person should reflect on their inability, frailty, lack, and constant need.

24

How does the food example make the ninth point easier to understand?

Cevap 24

It shows that appreciation grows when need is felt, so human need helps reveal the greatness of Allah's gifts and power.
