2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 1

1-) Why did the traveler begin a new journey? (10 kelime)
He wanted

2-) What did the traveler want to find with great certainty? (11 kelime)
He wanted

3-) Who did the traveler speak to before starting the new journey? (5 kelime)
He

4-) Where had the traveler traveled in his mind before this new journey? (7 kelime)
He

5-) What was the traveler asking all things about? (6 kelime)
He

6-) At the first stopping-place, how many holy truths did they see? (3 kelime)

7-) Where were those four truths seen to be working? (7 kelime)
They

8-) What did those four truths clearly require? (6 kelime)
They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 2

1-) Who was sent to the world to gain faith? (4 kelime)
A

2-) Why did the traveler look in every place? (9 kelime)
He wanted

3-) Did the traveler only look at one small part of creation or all of it in his mind? (9 kelime)
He looked

4-) After reaching certainty about necessary existence, what did he want to learn next? (9 kelime)
He wanted

5-) Who went together on this new journey? (7 kelime)
The

6-) What happened at the first stopping-place? (5 kelime)
They

7-) What big belief do those truths support? (7 kelime)
They

8-) What did they notice there? (5 kelime)
They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 3

1-) What was the traveler’s purpose in being sent to the world? (6 kelime)
His

2-) How did the traveler make his search through the cosmos? (7 kelime)
He

3-) What was he trying to learn from everything around him? (8 kelime)
He was

4-) What name is used for Allah in this passage when speaking about existence? (8 kelime)
Allah is

5-) What did the traveler say to begin the next part of the journey? (7 kelime)
He

6-) What was special about the new journey compared with the earlier search? (8 kelime)
This journey

7-) When they started together, where did they first stop? (6 kelime)
They

8-) How are those truths described in the passage? (6 kelime)
They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 4

1-) What kind of person is the main person in the passage? (9 kelime)
He is

2-) What did he use along with his journey to search for answers? (6 kelime)
He

3-) What was he hoping to find in every place? (6 kelime)
He

4-) How sure did he want to be about what he found? (5 kelime)
He

5-) After one part of his search was complete, what did he decide to do? (6 kelime)
He

6-) What was the new journey about? (10 kelime)
It was

7-) At the first stop, what number of truths appeared before them? (3 kelime)

8-) What belief do these truths make clear? (7 kelime)
They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 5

1-) What did he ask all things about? (9 kelime)
He asked

2-) What does it mean that he sought his Sustainer everywhere? (10 kelime)
It means

3-) What had he already reached before starting the new journey? (9 kelime)
He had

4-) What did he invite his intellect to do? (11 kelime)
He invited

5-) What was the aim of this new journey? (10 kelime)
The aim

6-) What did they find at the first stopping-place? (5 kelime)
They

7-) Did the truths belong only to one part of creation or to all of it? (6 kelime)
They

8-) What conclusion came from those truths? (10 kelime)
The conclusion

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 6

1-) What was the traveler trying to gain in the world? (7 kelime)
He

2-) How far did his search reach in his mind? (6 kelime)
It

3-) What did the traveler want to behold on the new journey? (9 kelime)
He wanted

4-) What does this show about his search: was it ending or continuing? (3 kelime)

5-) Who traveled together at this stage? (7 kelime)
The

6-) What did they see first on this stage of the journey? (9 kelime)
They saw

7-) How strong were those truths in the cosmos? (9 kelime)
They were

8-) What was the result of seeing those truths? (7 kelime)
They

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why did the traveler begin a new journey?
He wanted to see the proofs that Allah is One.
2-) What did the traveler want to find with great certainty?
He wanted to find his Creator and know Allah for sure.
3-) Who did the traveler speak to before starting the new journey?
He spoke to his intellect.
4-) Where had the traveler traveled in his mind before this new journey?
He had traveled through the whole universe.
5-) What was the traveler asking all things about?
He was asking about his Creator.
6-) At the first stopping-place, how many holy truths did they see?
They saw four.
7-) Where were those four truths seen to be working?
They were seen over all the universe.
8-) What did those four truths clearly require?
They required the oneness of Allah.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who was sent to the world to gain faith?
A traveler was sent.
2-) Why did the traveler look in every place?
He wanted to seek his Lord and find Allah.
3-) Did the traveler only look at one small part of creation or all of it in his mind?
He looked at all of it in his mind.
4-) After reaching certainty about necessary existence, what did he want to learn next?
He wanted to learn the proofs of Allah's unity.
5-) Who went together on this new journey?
The traveler and his intellect went together.
6-) What happened at the first stopping-place?
They saw four sacred truths.
7-) What big belief do those truths support?
They support believing that Allah is One.
8-) What did they notice there?
They noticed four sacred truths.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What was the traveler’s purpose in being sent to the world?
His purpose was to reach faith.
2-) How did the traveler make his search through the cosmos?
He made the journey in his mind.
3-) What was he trying to learn from everything around him?
He was trying to learn about his Creator.
4-) What name is used for Allah in this passage when speaking about existence?
Allah is described as the Necessarily Existent Creator.
5-) What did the traveler say to begin the next part of the journey?
He called his intellect to come along.
6-) What was special about the new journey compared with the earlier search?
This journey focused on proofs of Allah’s unity.
7-) When they started together, where did they first stop?
They stopped at the first stopping-place.
8-) How are those truths described in the passage?
They are described as sacred truths.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is the main person in the passage?
He is a traveler looking for faith and truth.
2-) What did he use along with his journey to search for answers?
He used his mind and intellect.
3-) What was he hoping to find in every place?
He was hoping to find Allah.
4-) How sure did he want to be about what he found?
He wanted the highest certainty.
5-) After one part of his search was complete, what did he decide to do?
He decided to begin another journey.
6-) What was the new journey about?
It was about seeing the proofs that Allah is One.
7-) At the first stop, what number of truths appeared before them?
Four truths appeared.
8-) What belief do these truths make clear?
They make clear that Allah is One.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did he ask all things about?
He asked them about the One who created him.
2-) What does it mean that he sought his Sustainer everywhere?
It means he looked for Allah's signs in all places.
3-) What had he already reached before starting the new journey?
He had reached certainty about the Creator's necessary existence.
4-) What did he invite his intellect to do?
He invited it to go on a new journey with him.
5-) What was the aim of this new journey?
The aim was to see the proofs of divine unity.
6-) What did they find at the first stopping-place?
They found four sacred truths.
7-) Did the truths belong only to one part of creation or to all of it?
They belonged to all of creation.
8-) What conclusion came from those truths?
The conclusion was that Allah's oneness is certain and necessary.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What was the traveler trying to gain in the world?
He was trying to gain true faith.
2-) How far did his search reach in his mind?
It reached through the whole cosmos.
3-) What did the traveler want to behold on the new journey?
He wanted to behold the proofs of Allah's unity.
4-) What does this show about his search: was it ending or continuing?
It was continuing.
5-) Who traveled together at this stage?
The traveler and his intellect traveled together.
6-) What did they see first on this stage of the journey?
They saw four sacred truths at the first stop.
7-) How strong were those truths in the cosmos?
They were ruling or prevailing over the whole cosmos.
8-) What was the result of seeing those truths?
They showed that Allah's unity is necessary.