5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 1

1-) In the fifth sacred truth, what kinds of weakness and need are people said to have? (17 kelime)
People are described as

2-) How do these conditions shape a person's heart? (12 kelime)
They make a

3-) How are the people who receive this described? (10 kelime)
They are

4-) How is this proof compared with sunlight? (14 kelime)
It is said

5-) What did the traveler notice about inspiration after this? (17 kelime)
He saw that it

6-) Why does the passage use the story of a king? (11 kelime)
To help

7-) In the comparison, what does inspiration match from the king example? (12 kelime)
It matches the

8-) What does the second style teach us about inspiration? (15 kelime)
It teaches that

9-) How does this comparison help explain inspiration? (11 kelime)
It shows

10-) What examples show this broad reach? (6 kelime)
Inspiration

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 2

1-) What human feelings and conditions are listed in the fifth sacred truth? (13 kelime)
It mentions weakness,

2-) Which people are especially mentioned as receiving this communication? (16 kelime)
The people most loved

3-) Which servants are highlighted most in this teaching? (14 kelime)
Those most beloved

4-) Name one part of what those revelations contain. (10 kelime)
One part

5-) In what way is inspiration like revelation? (13 kelime)
It shares some

6-) What is the usual difference in how each one arrives? (10 kelime)
Revelation usually

7-) In the king example, what shows a private and personal message? (13 kelime)
Speaking directly about

8-) What does the passage say about inspiration compared to revelation? (13 kelime)
It says inspiration

9-) What three words best describe inspiration in the second difference? (6 kelime)
General,

10-) Why can inspiration be found in many different forms? (10 kelime)
Because it

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 3

1-) What does the fifth sacred truth say about Allah giving people both weakness and desire? (17 kelime)
It shows that people

2-) According to the passage, what is fitting for Allah to do for such people? (14 kelime)
It is fitting

3-) What five ideas are included in those heavenly messages? (25 kelime)
They include Allah's lowering the message

4-) What comparison shows the strength of that proof? (14 kelime)
It is said

5-) What does the traveler understand before looking at inspiration? (14 kelime)
He understands that

6-) Why does the passage mention a king sending a representative? (8 kelime)
To picture

7-) In the king example, what does the private conversation stand for? (12 kelime)
It stands for

8-) How does Allah speak in the more private way described in the comparison? (16 kelime)
He speaks from behind

9-) What does the passage teach about the number of Allah's words through inspiration? (10 kelime)
It teaches

10-) Why does the passage mention countless drops of the sea? (13 kelime)
To show how

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 4

1-) In this passage, what needs of human beings are pointed out first? (12 kelime)
Human beings are

2-) Why are these struggles important in the argument of the passage? (14 kelime)
They help explain

3-) How strong is the proof given by revelation for Allah's existence and unity? (15 kelime)
It is described

4-) How is inspiration related to revelation? (16 kelime)
It is like revelation

5-) How does the passage describe true inspiration at the start? (19 kelime)
It says it is

6-) What usually stands between Allah's revelation and the prophet who receives it? (6 kelime)
Angels

7-) What title is connected with the grander form of Divine speech? (16 kelime)
It is connected with

8-) How does the passage describe inspiration in relation to variety? (12 kelime)
It says inspiration

9-) Why is inspiration called more general? (10 kelime)
Because many

10-) What lesson comes from the Qur'anic image of the sea as ink? (18 kelime)
Allah's words are so

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 5

1-) What four inner or outward needs in people are named in the fifth sacred truth? (15 kelime)
It names weakness,

2-) What action from Allah fits this human need, according to the passage? (10 kelime)
That He

3-) Which people are described as especially beloved and needy? (11 kelime)
Those who

4-) What basic statement does the passage make about inspiration? (17 kelime)
It says true inspiration

5-) What example from a king is used to explain the higher type of message? (15 kelime)
A king sends

6-) Which one usually comes straight to the receiver? (1 kelime)

7-) In the king example, what is the purpose of the formal messenger? (10 kelime)
To deliver

8-) What special quality of revelation is named in the second difference? (4 kelime)
Its

9-) What idea do the many kinds of inspiration help us understand? (10 kelime)
They help

10-) If the sea became ink, what would happen first according to the verse mentioned? (12 kelime)
The sea would

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 6

1-) What human conditions are mentioned to show why people need guidance from Allah? (15 kelime)
The passage mentions

2-) According to this truth, how does Allah answer that deep need? (10 kelime)
He lets

3-) What does the passage say about the combined witness of heavenly messages? (15 kelime)
It says their

4-) What comparison is used to show how powerful this proof is? (22 kelime)
It is compared to the

5-) How does inspiration usually come? (4 kelime)
It

6-) In the comparison, what does revelation match from the king example? (10 kelime)
It matches

7-) What does the first style teach us about revelation? (12 kelime)
It teaches that

8-) How does this comparison help explain revelation? (11 kelime)
It shows

9-) Why is inspiration called general? (12 kelime)
Because it reaches

10-) What does the final Qur'anic example teach about Allah's words? (13 kelime)
They are so

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the fifth sacred truth, what kinds of weakness and need are people said to have?
People are described as weak, needy, worried about what is ahead, and full of longing and worship.
2-) How do these conditions shape a person's heart?
They make a person search for the Lord with need and longing.
3-) How are the people who receive this described?
They are described as especially beloved, lovable, anxious, and needy.
4-) How is this proof compared with sunlight?
It is said to be stronger than the sun being known by its rays.
5-) What did the traveler notice about inspiration after this?
He saw that it is truthful, similar in some ways to revelation, and part of Divine speech.
6-) Why does the passage use the story of a king?
To help explain the difference between formal revelation and private inspiration.
7-) In the comparison, what does inspiration match from the king example?
It matches the king's personal and private communication suited to one listener.
8-) What does the second style teach us about inspiration?
It teaches that inspiration can come personally and in a way fitted to the receiver.
9-) How does this comparison help explain inspiration?
It shows inspiration as personal, hidden, and suited to one receiver.
10-) What examples show this broad reach?
Inspiration of angels, people, and animals.

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What human feelings and conditions are listed in the fifth sacred truth?
It mentions weakness, wanting, poverty, need, worry about the future, love, and worship.
2-) Which people are especially mentioned as receiving this communication?
The people most loved by Allah and the ones most needy and eager to find Him.
3-) Which servants are highlighted most in this teaching?
Those most beloved to Him and those most needy and eager to find Him.
4-) Name one part of what those revelations contain.
One part is Allah making Himself known to His servants.
5-) In what way is inspiration like revelation?
It shares some features with revelation and is a form of Lordly speech.
6-) What is the usual difference in how each one arrives?
Revelation usually comes through angels, while inspiration usually comes directly.
7-) In the king example, what shows a private and personal message?
Speaking directly about a smaller matter through a trusted servant or private contact.
8-) What does the passage say about inspiration compared to revelation?
It says inspiration is more mixed and varied, and it is more general.
9-) What three words best describe inspiration in the second difference?
General, varied, and mixed in kinds.
10-) Why can inspiration be found in many different forms?
Because it reaches different kinds of creatures in different ways.

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the fifth sacred truth say about Allah giving people both weakness and desire?
It shows that people are made with needs and longings that lead them to seek their Lord.
2-) According to the passage, what is fitting for Allah to do for such people?
It is fitting for Him to tell them of His existence through His speech.
3-) What five ideas are included in those heavenly messages?
They include Allah's lowering the message to human understanding, making Himself known, answering with mercy, speaking to creation, and making His own existence known forever.
4-) What comparison shows the strength of that proof?
It is said to be stronger than using sunbeams to prove the sun exists.
5-) What does the traveler understand before looking at inspiration?
He understands that revelation gives a very powerful proof of Allah's existence and unity.
6-) Why does the passage mention a king sending a representative?
To picture an official, weighty message like revelation.
7-) In the king example, what does the private conversation stand for?
It stands for inspiration given in a personal and less formal way.
8-) How does Allah speak in the more private way described in the comparison?
He speaks from behind a veil in a personal way suited to the one receiving it.
9-) What does the passage teach about the number of Allah's words through inspiration?
It teaches that they are extremely many, beyond easy counting.
10-) Why does the passage mention countless drops of the sea?
To show how many Allah's words are through the many forms of inspiration.

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what needs of human beings are pointed out first?
Human beings are shown as weak, poor, needy, worried, loving, and worshipping.
2-) Why are these struggles important in the argument of the passage?
They help explain why people need Allah to let them know He is there.
3-) How strong is the proof given by revelation for Allah's existence and unity?
It is described as stronger than the proof of the sun seen through its rays.
4-) How is inspiration related to revelation?
It is like revelation in some ways and is another kind of speech from the Lord.
5-) How does the passage describe true inspiration at the start?
It says it is similar to revelation in some ways and is a form of speech from the Lord.
6-) What usually stands between Allah's revelation and the prophet who receives it?
Angels usually serve as the means.
7-) What title is connected with the grander form of Divine speech?
It is connected with Allah as the Lord of all worlds and Creator of the universe.
8-) How does the passage describe inspiration in relation to variety?
It says inspiration includes different kinds and can come in many forms.
9-) Why is inspiration called more general?
Because many kinds of creatures can receive forms of it.
10-) What lesson comes from the Qur'anic image of the sea as ink?
Allah's words are so many that even a vast sea would not be enough to write them all.

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What four inner or outward needs in people are named in the fifth sacred truth?
It names weakness, need, worry about the future, and longing that includes love and worship.
2-) What action from Allah fits this human need, according to the passage?
That He tells people of His existence through His speech.
3-) Which people are described as especially beloved and needy?
Those who most long for their Lord and need Him most.
4-) What basic statement does the passage make about inspiration?
It says true inspiration resembles revelation in some ways and is a type of speech from Allah.
5-) What example from a king is used to explain the higher type of message?
A king sends an official messenger with full royal importance to deliver a major command.
6-) Which one usually comes straight to the receiver?
Inspiration.
7-) In the king example, what is the purpose of the formal messenger?
To deliver an order that shows royal greatness and importance.
8-) What special quality of revelation is named in the second difference?
Its clearness and purity.
9-) What idea do the many kinds of inspiration help us understand?
They help us understand that Allah's words are extremely many.
10-) If the sea became ink, what would happen first according to the verse mentioned?
The sea would run out before Allah's words came to an end.

5sinif supreme-sign-p37-the-world-of-the-unseen-2-differences-between-inspiration-and-revelation - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What human conditions are mentioned to show why people need guidance from Allah?
The passage mentions weakness, desire, poverty, need, fear of what is coming, love, and worship.
2-) According to this truth, how does Allah answer that deep need?
He lets them know He exists by speaking to them.
3-) What does the passage say about the combined witness of heavenly messages?
It says their agreement gives a very strong proof of Allah's existence and His oneness.
4-) What comparison is used to show how powerful this proof is?
It is compared to the sun being known by its light, and the proof from revelation is said to be even stronger.
5-) How does inspiration usually come?
It usually comes directly.
6-) In the comparison, what does revelation match from the king example?
It matches the king's formal command given with royal authority.
7-) What does the first style teach us about revelation?
It teaches that revelation comes with majesty, public authority, and greater rank.
8-) How does this comparison help explain revelation?
It shows revelation as official, broad, and connected with great authority.
9-) Why is inspiration called general?
Because it reaches many kinds of creatures, not only a select group.
10-) What does the final Qur'anic example teach about Allah's words?
They are so many that no sea of ink could fully write them.