lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 1

1-) At the start of the passage, what do the mountains and plains invite the traveller to do? (14 kelime)
They call him

2-) What does the traveller discover about the duty of mountains? (11 kelime)
He discovers

3-) What happens to the earth when the mountains rise up by their Lord's command? (13 kelime)
The earth is

4-) How does the ship comparison deepen the reader's understanding of the earth? (14 kelime)
It presents the

5-) Besides stabilizing the earth, what resources are said to be stored in mountains? (13 kelime)
They hold springs,

6-) Why does the passage treat this preservation as proof rather than as a mere natural fact? (14 kelime)
Because the arrangement

7-) What do the mountains and plains together testify to? (8 kelime)
They testify

8-) What do mountains and plains proclaim through their state and function? (4 kelime)
They

9-) According to the concluding statement, what kinds of observable realities in the mountains and plains point to Allah? (13 kelime)
Their storing, managing,

10-) What is one key comprehension takeaway for a student from this passage? (22 kelime)
The passage argues that the

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 2

1-) Who speaks to the traveller in this passage, and what do they ask from him? (12 kelime)
The mountains and

2-) What reaction does the passage say a person may have when considering the role of mountains? (13 kelime)
A person may

3-) What is one direct benefit of mountains mentioned in relation to the earth's condition? (9 kelime)
They calm

4-) Why does the passage compare mountains to structures placed on a ship? (10 kelime)
To show

5-) What does the passage imply about the placement of mountains? (8 kelime)
Their placement

6-) How are these provisions described in terms of planning and care? (12 kelime)
They are described

7-) What does he notice especially about the way things are kept within mountains and plains? (11 kelime)
He notices

8-) What broad truth does he see through the general wisdom found in them? (9 kelime)
He sees

9-) In the formal statement after the narrative, what is included along with mountains and plains in giving testimony? (11 kelime)
Everything in

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 3

1-) What are the traveller's first new subjects of reflection in this passage? (5 kelime)
The

2-) What does the passage say about the scale of the mountains' duty? (10 kelime)
It says

3-) What result follows for the earth after that calming effect? (10 kelime)
It becomes

4-) How is the earth's movement mentioned in connection with mountains? (12 kelime)
Mountains help the

5-) What do the Qur'anic references reinforce in the discussion? (14 kelime)
They reinforce the

6-) Why is their presence in mountains seen as evidence of more than physical processes? (9 kelime)
Because their

7-) What conclusion does the traveller draw from these arrangements? (15 kelime)
He concludes that

8-) What do mountains and plains say, in meaning, through that broad pattern? (9 kelime)
They declare

9-) According to the final doctrinal sentence, what five processes give evidence of Allah's existence? (8 kelime)
Storing, administration,

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 4

1-) In this passage, how are mountains and plains presented to the traveller? (9 kelime)
They are

2-) What problem inside the earth do the mountains help reduce? (13 kelime)
They lessen the

3-) What phrase in the passage suggests that mountains help the earth function normally? (16 kelime)
The passage says the

4-) In that comparison, how is the earth pictured? (11 kelime)
It is

5-) What is preserved in mountains for the benefit of living beings? (7 kelime)
Springs,

6-) Why does the traveller move from a few examples to a broader conclusion about mountains and plains? (20 kelime)
Because those examples lead him

7-) What does he especially notice about what is stored in them? (14 kelime)
He notices that

8-) What personal response does the traveller give after reflecting on this testimony? (6 kelime)
He

9-) What response shows that the traveller is not only observing but also spiritually affected? (7 kelime)
He

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 5

1-) What invitation begins this section of the traveller's journey? (12 kelime)
He is invited

2-) What effect does the described function of mountains have on human understanding? (11 kelime)
It leaves

3-) After this calming, what condition does the earth enjoy? (10 kelime)
It gains

4-) Why is the ship image useful for understanding the role of mountains? (13 kelime)
It helps explain

5-) What useful things are kept in mountains according to the passage? (11 kelime)
They contain

6-) How does the traveller treat the two examples he observes? (16 kelime)
He uses them as

7-) How does the traveller go beyond the two examples named in the passage? (14 kelime)
He understands them

8-) How does the traveller's own statement at the end show the effect of reflection? (13 kelime)
It shows that

9-) What words summarize the traveller's final response? (7 kelime)
He

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 6

1-) What are the traveller's next "pages" to read in his meditative journey? (7 kelime)
They

2-) Which inner condition of the earth is softened by mountains? (9 kelime)
Its internal

3-) What benefit do mountains bring to the earth's physical condition? (9 kelime)
They help

4-) What everyday object is used as an analogy for mountains, and why? (16 kelime)
Parts of a ship

5-) What sources of benefit for living things are kept in mountains? (11 kelime)
Natural water

6-) How are these resources arranged according to the passage? (11 kelime)
They are

7-) How does the traveller reason from particular examples to a wider conclusion? (17 kelime)
He takes the examples

8-) What faith statement does the traveller personally make? (7 kelime)
He

9-) What does the traveller himself conclude after seeing this testimony? (6 kelime)
He

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the start of the passage, what do the mountains and plains invite the traveller to do?
They call him to examine them carefully and understand the meanings shown in them.
2-) What does the traveller discover about the duty of mountains?
He discovers that their role is majestic and full of wisdom.
3-) What happens to the earth when the mountains rise up by their Lord's command?
The earth is relieved, becomes steadier, and continues its movement in greater calm.
4-) How does the ship comparison deepen the reader's understanding of the earth?
It presents the earth as something guided and supported, not left unstable or unmanaged.
5-) Besides stabilizing the earth, what resources are said to be stored in mountains?
They hold springs, water, minerals, and other useful materials needed by living beings.
6-) Why does the passage treat this preservation as proof rather than as a mere natural fact?
Because the arrangement is too wise, beneficial, and purposeful to be seen as random.
7-) What do the mountains and plains together testify to?
They testify to Allah's oneness and necessary existence.
8-) What do mountains and plains proclaim through their state and function?
They proclaim Divine unity.
9-) According to the concluding statement, what kinds of observable realities in the mountains and plains point to Allah?
Their storing, managing, spreading of seeds, preserving, and careful regulation point to Him.
10-) What is one key comprehension takeaway for a student from this passage?
The passage argues that the order and benefits found in the natural world are signs pointing to Allah's oneness and necessary existence.

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who speaks to the traveller in this passage, and what do they ask from him?
The mountains and plains speak figuratively, asking him to read their signs.
2-) What reaction does the passage say a person may have when considering the role of mountains?
A person may be overwhelmed by how great and wise that role is.
3-) What is one direct benefit of mountains mentioned in relation to the earth's condition?
They calm disturbances that come from within the earth.
4-) Why does the passage compare mountains to structures placed on a ship?
To show that they help maintain balance and reduce turbulence.
5-) What does the passage imply about the placement of mountains?
Their placement is deliberate and controlled, not accidental.
6-) How are these provisions described in terms of planning and care?
They are described as being stored with skill, generosity, wisdom, and foresight.
7-) What does he notice especially about the way things are kept within mountains and plains?
He notices that they are preserved and stored with providential care.
8-) What broad truth does he see through the general wisdom found in them?
He sees that they bear witness to Allah's unity.
9-) In the formal statement after the narrative, what is included along with mountains and plains in giving testimony?
Everything in them and on them is included in that testimony.

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the traveller's first new subjects of reflection in this passage?
The mountains and the plains.
2-) What does the passage say about the scale of the mountains' duty?
It says their duty is immense and full of wisdom.
3-) What result follows for the earth after that calming effect?
It becomes more stable and is protected from damaging shocks.
4-) How is the earth's movement mentioned in connection with mountains?
Mountains help the earth continue its turning without its calm being disrupted.
5-) What do the Qur'anic references reinforce in the discussion?
They reinforce the idea that mountains are firmly set in place by Divine wisdom.
6-) Why is their presence in mountains seen as evidence of more than physical processes?
Because their arrangement appears intentional, beneficial, and wisely managed.
7-) What conclusion does the traveller draw from these arrangements?
He concludes that they are under the care of One with infinite power and wisdom.
8-) What do mountains and plains say, in meaning, through that broad pattern?
They declare that there is no deity except Allah.
9-) According to the final doctrinal sentence, what five processes give evidence of Allah's existence?
Storing, administration, spreading seeds, preservation, and careful regulation.

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, how are mountains and plains presented to the traveller?
They are presented as meaningful signs that invite reflection.
2-) What problem inside the earth do the mountains help reduce?
They lessen the inner unrest and pressure that would otherwise disturb the earth.
3-) What phrase in the passage suggests that mountains help the earth function normally?
The passage says the earth can continue its turning in calm once those disturbances are checked.
4-) In that comparison, how is the earth pictured?
It is pictured as a ship traveling in an ordered way.
5-) What is preserved in mountains for the benefit of living beings?
Springs, waters, minerals, and other needed materials.
6-) Why does the traveller move from a few examples to a broader conclusion about mountains and plains?
Because those examples lead him to see a wider pattern of wise care and purposeful arrangement in all of them.
7-) What does he especially notice about what is stored in them?
He notices that it is placed and kept there with protective and providential care.
8-) What personal response does the traveller give after reflecting on this testimony?
He declares his belief in Allah.
9-) What response shows that the traveller is not only observing but also spiritually affected?
He openly affirms his belief in Allah.

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What invitation begins this section of the traveller's journey?
He is invited by the mountains and plains to study their signs.
2-) What effect does the described function of mountains have on human understanding?
It leaves the mind astonished because of its greatness and wisdom.
3-) After this calming, what condition does the earth enjoy?
It gains steadiness and is less troubled by destructive movement.
4-) Why is the ship image useful for understanding the role of mountains?
It helps explain that mountains serve as stabilizers and supports for the earth.
5-) What useful things are kept in mountains according to the passage?
They contain waters, springs, minerals, and other necessities for living creatures.
6-) How does the traveller treat the two examples he observes?
He uses them as starting points for understanding many more wise purposes in mountains and plains.
7-) How does the traveller go beyond the two examples named in the passage?
He understands them as signs of many additional wise purposes in mountains and plains.
8-) How does the traveller's own statement at the end show the effect of reflection?
It shows that reflection strengthens faith and leads him to affirm belief clearly.
9-) What words summarize the traveller's final response?
He says that he believes in Allah.

lisans supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasuries - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the traveller's next "pages" to read in his meditative journey?
They are the mountains and the plains.
2-) Which inner condition of the earth is softened by mountains?
Its internal agitation and unrest are softened by them.
3-) What benefit do mountains bring to the earth's physical condition?
They help it avoid damaging instability and remain calm.
4-) What everyday object is used as an analogy for mountains, and why?
Parts of a ship are used, because they help show how mountains support balance and stability.
5-) What sources of benefit for living things are kept in mountains?
Natural water supplies, minerals, and other needed materials are kept there.
6-) How are these resources arranged according to the passage?
They are arranged in a wise, skillful, generous, and far-seeing manner.
7-) How does the traveller reason from particular examples to a wider conclusion?
He takes the examples as signs of a broad pattern of providential care across mountains and plains.
8-) What faith statement does the traveller personally make?
He says that he believes in Allah.
9-) What does the traveller himself conclude after seeing this testimony?
He confirms his faith in Allah.