

1

What is the eighth aim of human life in this passage?

5sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 1

It is to understand how the creatures in the world point to Allah's oneness and His caring rule, each in its own way.

2

What does “each in its particular tongue” mean here?

Cevap 2

It means each created thing shows this message in its own special manner, not necessarily with spoken words.

3

What is the ninth aim of life?

Cevap 3

It is to learn about Allah's power and richness by noticing our own weakness, poverty, and need.

4

How does the passage use hunger to explain this idea?

Cevap 4

It shows that just as people understand food better when they feel hunger, they can better understand Allah's power and provision by feeling their own need.

5

What should a person understand through his weakness?

Cevap 5

He should understand the greatness of Allah's power.

6

What should a person understand through his poverty and need?

Cevap 6

He should understand the vastness of Allah's riches and generosity.

7

After listing the eighth and ninth aims, what does the passage say about the aims of life as a whole?

5sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 7

It says these are examples that briefly summarize the aims of life.

8

What does the passage tell the reader to consider next?

Cevap 8

It tells the reader to think about the nature of life.

9

What transition happens at the end of the passage?

Cevap 9

It moves from the aims of life to a new part about the nature of life.

10

In the passage, what are people supposed to understand from the beings in the world?

Cevap 10

They are supposed to understand the message those beings give about Allah's unity and lordship.

11

Does the passage present the world as silent or as full of signs?

Cevap 11

It presents the world as full of signs.

12

Why does the passage mention different “tongues” for created things?

Cevap 12

To show that many kinds of creatures teach about Allah in different ways.

13

What human qualities are named as a way to learn about Allah?

5sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 13

Weakness, helplessness, poverty, and need.

14

What can a person learn about Allah by recognizing helplessness?

Cevap 14

He can learn how great Allah's power is.

15

What can a person learn about
Allah by recognizing need?

Cevap 15

He can learn how unlimited
Allah's wealth and care are.

16

What everyday example is used to make this easier to understand?

Cevap 16

The example of hunger and the enjoyment of food.

17

How does hunger help explain the lesson?

Cevap 17

Hunger makes a person notice flavors and levels of satisfaction, just as need helps a person notice Allah's gifts and power.

18

According to the passage, what is one duty of a person when looking at the world?

Cevap 18

It is to understand what creation is showing about Allah.

19

What two truths are creation said to speak about?

Cevap 19

Allah's oneness and His lordship over creation.

20

What does the passage say we should notice about ourselves?

Cevap 20

We should notice our weakness, need, and lack.

21

Why is noticing our limits important?

Cevap 21

Because it helps us understand
Allah's perfect power and endless riches.

22

What comparison is made with food?

Cevap 22

Different levels of hunger help people understand enjoyment of food, just as different needs help people understand Allah's gifts.

23

Does the passage teach self-sufficiency or dependence on Allah?

Cevap 23

It teaches dependence on Allah.

24

How are the aims of life described after the eighth and ninth points?

5sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 24

They are described as a brief summary of important matters.