

1

What is the eighth aim of life in this passage?

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 1

It is to understand the messages creation gives about Allah's oneness and His lordship, each in its own way.

2

What does “each in its particular tongue” mean here?

Cevap 2

It means every created thing points to truth in its own special manner, even without human speech.

3

What is the ninth aim of life?

Cevap 3

It is to recognize Allah's power and richness by noticing our own weakness, need, and poverty.

4

How does the passage use hunger to explain this idea?

Cevap 4

Just as different levels of hunger help a person understand the value and kinds of food, our needs help us understand Allah's endless power and provision.

5

According to the passage, are human weakness and need meaningless or useful? Explain.

Cevap 5

They are useful because they help a person realize how dependent he is on Allah.

6

What does the passage say about Allah's power and riches compared with human weakness and poverty?

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-

8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 6

Allah's power and riches are unlimited, while human weakness and poverty are very great and constant.

7

Why does the passage say, “Now consider the nature of your life”?

Cevap 7

Because it first lists the aims of life and then moves to explaining what life itself is like.

8

What is one main lesson from the eighth and ninth aims together?

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 8

A person should read the signs in creation and also learn from his own neediness so he can know Allah better.

9

In this passage, what are the last two aims in the summary of life's purposes?

Cevap 9

They are understanding creation's witness to Allah's unity and learning about Allah's power and wealth through human weakness and need.

10

What does the passage teach about the world around us?

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 10

It teaches that created things are not silent; they point to their Creator in meaningful ways.

11

Why would a person look at his own weakness to understand
Allah better?

Cevap 11

Because seeing how limited he is helps him realize how unlimited Allah is.

12

What comparison is made between food and divine power?

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 12

The passage says that just as hunger helps a person understand enjoyment of food, need helps a person understand Allah's power and riches.

13

What human qualities are mentioned as ways to learn this lesson?

Cevap 13

Weakness, helplessness, poverty, and need.

14

Does the passage encourage self-sufficiency or dependence on Allah? How do you know?

Cevap 14

It encourages dependence on Allah because it says our need and weakness should lead us to recognize His greatness.

15

How do the eighth and ninth aims connect with each other?

Cevap 15

One teaches a person to read signs outside himself in creation, and the other teaches him to read signs inside himself through his own need.

16

What is the transition at the end of the passage preparing the reader for?

Cevap 16

It prepares the reader for a new section explaining the nature of life.

17

What should a person understand from the beings in the world, according to the eighth aim?

Cevap 17

He should understand that they point to Allah's oneness and His lordship.

18

When the passage says beings speak in their own way, does it mean they use human language?

Cevap 18

No, it means their existence, order, and condition point to truth without spoken words.

19

What personal conditions help a person understand Allah's power in the ninth aim?

Cevap 19

His helplessness, weakness, poverty, and need.

20

Why is poverty mentioned as something that can teach a person?

Cevap 20

Because it shows that a human being does not possess enough on his own and must rely on Allah.

21

What does the example of hunger show about understanding?

Cevap 21

It shows that a person understands blessings more deeply when he feels need for them.

22

According to the passage, are Allah's power and riches limited or unlimited?

Cevap 22

They are unlimited.

23

What kind of thinking is the reader being taught in this passage?

Cevap 23

Reflective thinking that looks for signs of Allah in both the world and oneself.

24

What short summary does the passage give for the aims of life?

Cevap 24

It says they are things like these, meaning the aims listed are a brief overview of life's purpose.
