Cevap 4 It tells a person to notice how living things praise, glorify, and worship their Creator through their life.	Cevap 3 The person appears before the One who sees all things from pre-eternity.	Cevap 2 They stand for the fine abilities and spiritual senses granted through the signs of Allah's names.	Cevap 1 A person should recognize the inner gifts given by Allah, wear them in a spiritual way like honors, and present them knowingly before Him.
Cevap 8 It strengthens belief that the Creator manages everything with perfect power, knowledge, and wisdom.	Cevap 7 The example is that if a person can arrange a house with limited ability and knowledge, then the Maker of the world must have far greater power, knowledge, and wisdom.	Cevap 6 They were given so people could use them as measures to understand Allah's perfect and unlimited attributes.	Cevap 5 The person should reflect on it, recognize it, and bear witness to it openly.
Cevap 12 Their greeting of the Creator, their praise of Him, and their worship of Him.	Cevap 11 They are inward gifts and refined abilities, not ordinary jewelry.	Cevap 10 He is supposed to beautify himself with them in a conscious way and show gratitude through them.	Cevap 9 The passage uses the image of a soldier wearing medals received from his ruler.

13 What does the sixth matter expect from a thoughtful human being when seeing other creatures?	14 In the seventh matter, what human traits are named as examples of limited qualities?	15 How does the example of building a house help explain the seventh matter?	16 What conclusion should a person reach after comparing a house with the world?

Cevap 16 The person should conclude that the One who arranged the world has unmatched power, knowledge, and wisdom.	Cevap 15 It shows that if a person can make one small place orderly, then the One who arranged the whole world must be vastly greater in ability and wisdom.	Cevap 14 Limited knowledge, limited power, and limited will are named.	Cevap 13 A thoughtful person should pay attention, think deeply, and testify to what those creatures show about their Creator.
Cevap 20 A person should notice that their very life shows praise, devotion, and purpose toward their Creator.	Cevap 19 It suggests that Allah sees fully, perfectly, and beyond time.	Cevap 18 Because they are gifts of honor that should be recognized and carried with awareness, not ignored.	Cevap 17 The duty is to value the spiritual gifts given to a person and present them knowingly as signs of divine favor.
Cevap 24 It shows that its Maker directs everything with complete power, knowledge, and wisdom.	Cevap 23 It means using our small experiences of ability and knowledge to form a basic understanding of Allah's perfect attributes.	Cevap 22 The person should confirm them by personal witness and make them known.	Cevap 21 Reflection helps a person understand the meaning behind what living beings are showing.
