

1 What is the eighth aim of life in this passage?	2 What does “each in its particular tongue” mean here?	3 What is the ninth aim of life?	4 How does the passage use hunger to explain this idea?
8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet
5 According to the passage, are human weakness and need meaningless or useful? Explain.	6 What does the passage say about Allah’s power and riches compared with human weakness and poverty?	7 Why does the passage say, “Now consider the nature of your life”?	8 What is one main lesson from the eighth and ninth aims together?
8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet
9 In this passage, what are the last two aims in the summary of life’s purposes?	10 What does the passage teach about the world around us?	11 Why would a person look at his own weakness to understand Allah better?	12 What comparison is made between food and divine power?
8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 4 Just as different levels of hunger help a person understand the value and kinds of food, our needs help us understand Allah's endless power and provision.	Cevap 3 It is to recognize Allah's power and richness by noticing our own weakness, need, and poverty.	Cevap 2 It means every created thing points to truth in its own special manner, even without human speech.	Cevap 1 It is to understand the messages creation gives about Allah's oneness and His lordship, each in its own way.
Cevap 8 A person should read the signs in creation and also learn from his own neediness so he can know Allah better.	Cevap 7 Because it first lists the aims of life and then moves to explaining what life itself is like.	Cevap 6 Allah's power and riches are unlimited, while human weakness and poverty are very great and constant.	Cevap 5 They are useful because they help a person realize how dependent he is on Allah.
Cevap 12 The passage says that just as hunger helps a person understand enjoyment of food, need helps a person understand Allah's power and riches.	Cevap 11 Because seeing how limited he is helps him realize how unlimited Allah is.	Cevap 10 It teaches that created things are not silent; they point to their Creator in meaningful ways.	Cevap 9 They are understanding creation's witness to Allah's unity and learning about Allah's power and wealth through human weakness and need.

13 What human qualities are mentioned as ways to learn this lesson?	14 Does the passage encourage self-sufficiency or dependence on Allah? How do you know?	15 How do the eighth and ninth aims connect with each other?	16 What is the transition at the end of the passage preparing the reader for?
8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet
17 What should a person understand from the beings in the world, according to the eighth aim?	18 When the passage says beings speak in their own way, does it mean they use human language?	19 What personal conditions help a person understand Allah's power in the ninth aim?	20 Why is poverty mentioned as something that can teach a person?
8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet
21 What does the example of hunger show about understanding?	22 According to the passage, are Allah's power and riches limited or unlimited?	23 What kind of thinking is the reader being taught in this passage?	24 What short summary does the passage give for the aims of life?
8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet	8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 16 It prepares the reader for a new section explaining the nature of life.	Cevap 15 One teaches a person to read signs outside himself in creation, and the other teaches him to read signs inside himself through his own need.	Cevap 14 It encourages dependence on Allah because it says our need and weakness should lead us to recognize His greatness.	Cevap 13 Weakness, helplessness, poverty, and need.
Cevap 20 Because it shows that a human being does not possess enough on his own and must rely on Allah.	Cevap 19 His helplessness, weakness, poverty, and need.	Cevap 18 No, it means their existence, order, and condition point to truth without spoken words.	Cevap 17 He should understand that they point to Allah's oneness and His lordship.
Cevap 24 It says they are things like these, meaning the aims listed are a brief overview of life's purpose.	Cevap 23 Reflective thinking that looks for signs of Allah in both the world and oneself.	Cevap 22 They are unlimited.	Cevap 21 It shows that a person understands blessings more deeply when he feels need for them.