

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 1

1-) What is the main idea of the fifth matter about a person's life? (24 kelime)

A person should recognize the inner

2-) In the comparison with a soldier, what do the decorations stand for? (16 kelime)

They stand for the

3-) Who is the one before whom a person is described as appearing in the fifth matter? (12 kelime)

The person appears

4-) What does the sixth matter tell a person to observe in living beings? (18 kelime)

It tells a person

5-) After observing the worship of living beings, what should a person do with that understanding? (14 kelime)

The person should

6-) According to the seventh matter, why were small amounts of knowledge, power, and will given to human beings? (17 kelime)

They were given so

7-) What example is given to explain how human abilities can lead to knowing the Creator better? (30 kelime)

The example is that if a person

8-) What belief about the Creator is strengthened by the seventh matter? (14 kelime)

It strengthens belief

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 2

1-) What picture is used to explain the fifth matter? (14 kelime)

The passage uses

2-) In that picture, what is a person supposed to do with the special qualities given to him? (17 kelime)

He is supposed to

3-) Are the qualities mentioned in the fifth matter mainly physical jewelry or inward gifts? (10 kelime)

They are

4-) What three actions of living beings are mentioned in the sixth matter? (14 kelime)

Their greeting of

5-) What does the sixth matter expect from a thoughtful human being when seeing other creatures? (18 kelime)

A thoughtful person should

6-) In the seventh matter, what human traits are named as examples of limited qualities? (9 kelime)

Limited knowledge,

7-) How does the example of building a house help explain the seventh matter? (28 kelime)

It shows that if a person can

8-) What conclusion should a person reach after comparing a house with the world? (17 kelime)

The person should conclude

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 3

1-) What duty is described in the fifth matter using the example of royal honors? (21 kelime)

The duty is to value

2-) Why does the passage compare human abilities to ornaments or honors? (16 kelime)

Because they are gifts

3-) What does the title "Pre-Eternal Witness" suggest in the fifth matter? (10 kelime)

It suggests

4-) According to the sixth matter, what should a person notice about the life of other creatures? (16 kelime)

A person should notice

5-) What is the role of reflection in the sixth matter? (13 kelime)

Reflection helps a

6-) Besides seeing these signs, what else should a person do according to the sixth matter? (12 kelime)

The person should

7-) What is meant by using human qualities as "units of measurement" in the seventh matter? (19 kelime)

It means using our

8-) What does the order found in the world show about its Maker? (13 kelime)

It shows that

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 4

1-) In the fifth matter, what does it mean to adorn yourself with the gifts connected to the divine names? (18 kelime)

It means to develop

2-) Why is the soldier example helpful for understanding the fifth matter? (19 kelime)

It shows that gifts

3-) What kind of view is mentioned at the end of the fifth matter? (14 kelime)

It speaks of

4-) What does the sixth matter teach about the behavior of living beings? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

5-) How should a human being respond after noticing those signs in living creatures? (13 kelime)

A human being

6-) What comparison is made between a person's house and the world? (23 kelime)

A person can put one

7-) What attributes of the Creator are especially highlighted in the seventh matter? (10 kelime)

His power,

8-) Which qualities of Allah are named in the final part of the target passage? (7 kelime)

His

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 5

1-) What is a person encouraged to do in the fifth matter with the special abilities given to him? (17 kelime)

He is encouraged to

2-) In the fifth matter, what does the example of a king and a soldier help explain? (20 kelime)

It helps explain that the

3-) What are the gifts in the fifth matter connected to? (10 kelime)

They are

4-) According to the sixth matter, what can be learned by watching living beings carefully? (16 kelime)

A person can learn

5-) What two mental actions are directly called for in the sixth matter? (9 kelime)

A person

6-) In the seventh matter, what is the purpose of having limited personal qualities? (15 kelime)

Their purpose is

7-) Which human activities are used as an example in the seventh matter? (17 kelime)

The example is a

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 6

1-) What is the fifth matter mainly asking a person to remember about his abilities and senses? (18 kelime)

It asks him to

2-) What comparison is used in the fifth matter to show honor and favor? (13 kelime)

It compares a

3-) What does appearing before the all-seeing Witness suggest about human responsibility? (18 kelime)

It suggests that a

4-) In the sixth matter, what do the lives of creatures point toward? (11 kelime)

They point

5-) What should come after observing those signs in creation? (15 kelime)

A person should

6-) In the seventh matter, why are small human qualities useful? (17 kelime)

They are useful because

7-) What lesson is taught by the example of someone arranging a house? (28 kelime)

The lesson is that if a human

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler -

Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main idea of the fifth matter about a person's life?

A person should recognize the inner gifts given by Allah, wear them in a spiritual way like honors, and present them knowingly before Him.

2-) In the comparison with a soldier, what do the decorations stand for?

They stand for the fine abilities and spiritual senses granted through the signs of Allah's names.

3-) Who is the one before whom a person is described as appearing in the fifth matter?

The person appears before the One who sees all things from pre-eternity.

4-) What does the sixth matter tell a person to observe in living beings?

It tells a person to notice how living things praise, glorify, and worship their Creator through their life.

5-) After observing the worship of living beings, what should a person do with that understanding?

The person should reflect on it, recognize it, and bear witness to it openly.

6-) According to the seventh matter, why were small amounts of knowledge, power, and will given to human beings?

They were given so people could use them as measures to understand Allah's perfect and unlimited attributes.

7-) What example is given to explain how human abilities can lead to knowing the Creator better?

The example is that if a person can arrange a house with limited ability and knowledge, then the Maker of the world must have far greater power, knowledge, and wisdom.

8-) What belief about the Creator is strengthened by the seventh matter?

It strengthens belief that the Creator manages everything with perfect power, knowledge, and wisdom.

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler -

Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What picture is used to explain the fifth matter?

The passage uses the image of a soldier wearing medals received from his ruler.

2-) In that picture, what is a person supposed to do with the special qualities given to him?

He is supposed to beautify himself with them in a conscious way and show gratitude through them.

3-) Are the qualities mentioned in the fifth matter mainly physical jewelry or inward gifts?

They are inward gifts and refined abilities, not ordinary jewelry.

4-) What three actions of living beings are mentioned in the sixth matter?

Their greeting of the Creator, their praise of Him, and their worship of Him.

5-) What does the sixth matter expect from a thoughtful human being when seeing other creatures?

A thoughtful person should pay attention, think deeply, and testify to what those creatures show about their Creator.

6-) In the seventh matter, what human traits are named as examples of limited qualities?

Limited knowledge, limited power, and limited will are named.

7-) How does the example of building a house help explain the seventh matter?

It shows that if a person can make one small place orderly, then the One who arranged the whole world must be vastly greater in ability and wisdom.

8-) What conclusion should a person reach after comparing a house with the world?

The person should conclude that the One who arranged the world has unmatched power, knowledge, and wisdom.

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler -

Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What duty is described in the fifth matter using the example of royal honors?

The duty is to value the spiritual gifts given to a person and present them knowingly as signs of divine favor.

2-) Why does the passage compare human abilities to ornaments or honors?

Because they are gifts of honor that should be recognized and carried with awareness, not ignored.

3-) What does the title "Pre-Eternal Witness" suggest in the fifth matter?

It suggests that Allah sees fully, perfectly, and beyond time.

4-) According to the sixth matter, what should a person notice about the life of other creatures?

A person should notice that their very life shows praise, devotion, and purpose toward their Creator.

5-) What is the role of reflection in the sixth matter?

Reflection helps a person understand the meaning behind what living beings are showing.

6-) Besides seeing these signs, what else should a person do according to the sixth matter?

The person should confirm them by personal witness and make them known.

7-) What is meant by using human qualities as "units of measurement" in the seventh matter?

It means using our small experiences of ability and knowledge to form a basic understanding of Allah's perfect attributes.

8-) What does the order found in the world show about its Maker?

It shows that its Maker directs everything with complete power, knowledge, and wisdom.

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler -

Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the fifth matter, what does it mean to adorn yourself with the gifts connected to the divine names?

It means to develop and show the noble inner abilities Allah has given you with awareness and thankfulness.

2-) Why is the soldier example helpful for understanding the fifth matter?

It shows that gifts from a ruler are meant to be worn with honor and shown respectfully, not forgotten.

3-) What kind of view is mentioned at the end of the fifth matter?

It speaks of being in the sight of the One who watches all things.

4-) What does the sixth matter teach about the behavior of living beings?

It teaches that living beings, through their life, point to praising and worshipping their Creator.

5-) How should a human being respond after noticing those signs in living creatures?

A human being should think about them carefully, understand them, and affirm them.

6-) What comparison is made between a person's house and the world?

A person can put one house in order in a limited way, but the world's Maker orders everything on a far greater level.

7-) What attributes of the Creator are especially highlighted in the seventh matter?

His power, His knowledge, and His wisdom are especially highlighted.

8-) Which qualities of Allah are named in the final part of the target passage?

His power, knowledge, and wisdom are named.

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is a person encouraged to do in the fifth matter with the special abilities given to him?
He is encouraged to carry them consciously as honored gifts and present himself with them before Allah.

2-) In the fifth matter, what does the example of a king and a soldier help explain?
It helps explain that the gifts given by Allah are marks of favor that should be recognized and displayed respectfully.

3-) What are the gifts in the fifth matter connected to?
They are connected to the manifestations of the divine names.

4-) According to the sixth matter, what can be learned by watching living beings carefully?
A person can learn that their life points to praise, glorification, and worship of the Creator.

5-) What two mental actions are directly called for in the sixth matter?
A person is called to reflect and to testify.

6-) In the seventh matter, what is the purpose of having limited personal qualities?
Their purpose is to help a person understand, by comparison, the perfection of Allah's attributes.

7-) Which human activities are used as an example in the seventh matter?
The example is a person using his own knowledge, will, and ability to arrange his house properly.

8sinif 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p13-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-5-7-emirler -

Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the fifth matter mainly asking a person to remember about his abilities and senses?

It asks him to remember that they are honored gifts from Allah and should be used with awareness.

2-) What comparison is used in the fifth matter to show honor and favor?

It compares a person to a soldier wearing badges given by his ruler.

3-) What does appearing before the all-seeing Witness suggest about human responsibility?

It suggests that a person should live carefully and knowingly because Allah sees how His gifts are used.

4-) In the sixth matter, what do the lives of creatures point toward?

They point toward devotion, praise, and worship directed to their Creator.

5-) What should come after observing those signs in creation?

A person should think about them deeply, recognize their meaning, and bear witness to them.

6-) In the seventh matter, why are small human qualities useful?

They are useful because they give us a limited example that helps us understand greater divine qualities.

7-) What lesson is taught by the example of someone arranging a house?

The lesson is that if a human can bring order to a small place, then the Creator of the world must be infinitely greater in ability and wisdom.