

1

What is the eighth aim of human life in the target passage?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 1

It is to grasp the messages that created things express about Allah's oneness and His lordship, each in its own way.

2

What does the passage mean by each being speaking in its own tongue?

Cevap 2

It means every creature points to truth through its own condition, order, and existence, even without human speech.

3

What is the ninth aim of life?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 3

It is to recognize the levels of divine power and divine richness by reflecting on one's own weakness, need, and poverty.

4

How does the passage use hunger to explain this ninth aim?

Cevap 4

It shows that just as different levels of hunger help a person notice different kinds of food and pleasure, human need helps a person understand divine generosity more deeply.

5

According to the passage, what human qualities help a person understand Allah's power and riches?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 5

Human helplessness, weakness, need, and poverty do.

6

How are the eighth and ninth aims connected?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 6

Both call a person to read signs that lead to knowledge of Allah—one through the outer world and the other through one's inner condition.

How does the passage balance reflection on the outer world and the inner self?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 7

It teaches that both creation outside us and weakness within us can lead us to know Allah.

8

In the target passage, what are the final two aims in the list about the purpose of life?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 8

One is understanding creation's witness to Allah's unity and lordship, and the other is understanding divine power and wealth through human weakness and need.

9

What does the passage teach about the world around us?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 9

It teaches that the beings in the world are not silent or meaningless; they communicate truths about their Creator.

10

Does the passage present all creatures as giving exactly the same kind of testimony? Explain.

Cevap 10

No. It says each one expresses truth in its own distinct way.

11

What inner human experiences are used as tools for understanding Allah in the ninth aim?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 11

Impotence, weakness, poverty, and need.

12

What comparison is used to make that point clearer?

Cevap 12

The passage compares spiritual understanding to how hunger helps someone appreciate food.

13

What is the main lesson behind linking human poverty with divine riches?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 13

Human lack points to Allah as the One who possesses complete abundance.

14

How do the two aims together shape a believer's worldview?

Cevap 14

They train the believer to see both the universe and the self as signs that lead back to Allah.

15

What does the passage say a person should understand from the beings in the world?

Cevap 15

A person should understand their testimony to the Creator's oneness and His sustaining rule over creation.

16

Why does the passage mention a particular tongue for each being?

Cevap 16

To show that every creature reveals truth in a fitting and unique manner.

17

Through what human conditions should the ninth aim be pursued?

Cevap 17

Through one's weakness, helplessness, poverty, and need.

18

What is learned through those conditions?

lisans 11-soz-eng-with-arabic-p14-hayatin-gayeleri-dokuz-emir-
8-9-emirler-ve-ozet

Cevap 18

The levels and vastness of divine power and divine wealth.

19

How does the food example support the argument?

Cevap 19

It shows that desire and need make a person more aware of value, so human need can awaken awareness of Allah's gifts and strength.

20

Why is the phrase “the aims of your life, then” important in the structure of the passage?

Cevap 20

It signals that the list is being wrapped up before the discussion moves to a new topic.

21

What contrast is central to the ninth aim?

Cevap 21

The contrast between limited human dependence and Allah's unlimited sufficiency.

22

Summarize the eighth aim in one clear sentence.

Cevap 22

Human life should include understanding how all creation points to Allah's unity and His care over all things.

23

Why is it important that beings speak in their own particular ways?

Cevap 23

Because the diversity of creation gives many different signs, all leading to the same truth about Allah.

24

Summarize the ninth aim in one clear sentence.

Cevap 24

Human life should include learning about Allah's unlimited power and wealth through awareness of personal weakness and need.
