Cevap 4 Because a much smaller amount had already been enough to buy excellent clothes, so the much larger amount clearly pointed to another purpose.	Cevap 3 He received far more money and also carried written instructions.	Cevap 2 An employer and two servants.	Cevap 1 They were not given mainly for chasing worldly comfort like animals, but for higher purposes.
Cevap 8 Because it reduces a human being to serving appetite alone, despite having been given much higher capacities.	Cevap 7 Because he wasted a large trust, ignored guidance, acted foolishly, and misused what had been given for a different purpose.	Cevap 6 It responds to stupidity, waste, and betrayal of a trust.	Cevap 5 It represents guidance that should direct a person's use of what has been entrusted to him.
Cevap 12 The large sum of money and the written paper placed in his pocket.	Cevap 11 It uses different sums of money to show different levels of duty and purpose.	Cevap 10 Their purpose is not merely to secure a worldly life like that of an animal.	Cevap 9 It is a moral and spiritual decline to a level beneath animals.

13 What does the second servant's failure to read the paper reveal about him?	14 Why is the second servant's purchase described as even worse than the first servant's outcome?	15 Why is the employer's severe reaction understandable within the story?	16 In the direct advice after the story, who is being addressed?

Cevap 16 The speaker addresses the self and a close companion, urging them to wake up and think clearly.	Cevap 15 Because the servant misused a major trust and acted against clear signs of a greater assignment.	Cevap 14 Because despite having much more to work with, he ended up with something far inferior.	Cevap 13 It reveals carelessness, poor judgment, and lack of responsibility.
Cevap 20 He was to obtain clothing.	Cevap 19 It asks the reader to think deeply about its meaning rather than just its surface story.	Cevap 18 Human beings are seen as entrusted with far more than animals and therefore responsible for higher living.	Cevap 17 It suggests that true human excellence comes from using one's greater gifts for higher ends.
Cevap 24 He ended up with very poor clothing, much worse than the other servant's.	Cevap 23 It shows that misuse of greater resources can produce a more shameful result.	Cevap 22 He assumed his task was the same as the first servant's.	Cevap 21 He had a written note with instructions, which mattered because it showed he had a bigger task than simply buying clothes.
