

1

Why does the passage say the Qur'an is not like poetry?

Cevap 1

Because its truths are too high and powerful to depend on made-up images and fancy wording.

2

What is one reason given for why the Qur'an is not written in poetic meter?

Cevap 2

Poetic meter would limit it, while its present form lets each verse connect widely with many other verses.

3

How does the passage describe the relationship between one verse and other verses?

Cevap 3

It says a verse can act like a center and form links with many other verses around it.

4

What idea is taught by comparing the verses to stars?

Cevap 4

The comparison shows that even if they may seem separate at first, they are actually connected in a wise and ordered way.

5

What does the passage mean by saying there are many “Qur’ans” within the Qur’an?

Cevap 5

It means the Qur'an contains many layers of meaning and guidance for different people and paths.

6

What example is given from Surah al-Ikhlâs?

Cevap 6

It says that within it there is a rich store of teachings about Allah's oneness, with many connected meanings built from its parts.

7

What lesson should the reader take from the verses being compared to stars?

Cevap 7

The reader should notice deep order and harmony even where things may first look unarranged.

8

According to the passage, what does poetry usually do with small or ordinary matters?

Cevap 8

It dresses them up with big images and attractive imagination to make them look important.

9

How are the truths of the Qur'an different from that?

Cevap 9

They are already so great and bright that human imagination looks weak beside them.

10

What do the examples about the sky, night and day, and the final gathering show?

Cevap 10

They show that the Qur'an speaks about huge realities with powerful truth, not empty decoration.

11

What main claim is made about the Qur'an and poetry at the start of the passage?

Cevap 11

The passage says the Qur'an is above poetry and should not be placed in that category.

12

Why would poetic form be less suitable for the Qur'an, according to the passage?

Cevap 12

Because fixed rhythm would restrict the broad links and meanings found among its verses.

13

How does the passage show that one verse can connect to many others?

Cevap 13

It describes each verse as looking toward many others and being tied to them through meaningful relationships.

14

What does the passage teach about the Qur'an's structure when it seems not fully arranged on the surface?

Cevap 14

It teaches that there is deep order inside what may appear loose or open in style.

15

Why is the star image a helpful comparison for the verses?

Cevap 15

Because stars can look scattered, yet they still belong to one sky and can be seen as part of a larger pattern.

16

What does the discussion of Surah al-Ikhlâs suggest about short surahs?

Cevap 16

It suggests that even a short surah can hold many rich and connected teachings.

17

What kind of things does ordinary poetry tend to do, according to the passage?

Cevap 17

It makes plain or lowly matters seem impressive by using fancy imagination.

18

Why does the passage reject that method for the Qur'an?

Cevap 18

Because the Qur'an's realities are already majestic and do not need exaggeration.

19

What do the sample verses about the end of the world and the movement of night and day help
the reader understand?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-kuranin-siirden-mustagni-
olusu

Cevap 19

They help the reader see the Qur'an's power in presenting huge truths clearly and forcefully.

20

Why are verses about cosmic events and resurrection mentioned?

Cevap 20

To give examples of the Qur'an speaking with direct power about vast truths.

21

According to the passage, what makes the Qur'an too exalted to be called poetry?

Cevap 21

Its meanings are so lofty and brilliant that poetry cannot match them.

22

Besides being ordered and beautiful, what special freedom does the Qur'an have because it is not bound by meter?

Cevap 22

Its verses can connect broadly and freely with one another.

23

What does it mean that a verse can be a “brother” to other verses?

Cevap 23

It means verses support, relate to, and strengthen one another in meaning.

24

How does the passage describe the way verses “look” at one another?

Cevap 24

It presents them as if each one is aware of many others and turned toward them.
