

1

What scene are readers told to imagine at the beginning of the passage?

Cevap 1

They are told to picture a time of deep ignorance and harsh living, when people saw the world as lifeless and covered by heedlessness.

2

What are the Qur'an's verses compared to in the passage?

Cevap 2

They are compared to bright stars.

3

What happens in the minds of listeners when they hear that everything in the heavens and earth praises Allah?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p03-cahiliyet-icinde-ayetlerin-ihya-
edici-tesiri

Cevap 3

They begin to see creatures as alive, awake, and engaged in remembering Allah.

4

What does hearing that all things glorify Allah cause people to notice?

Cevap 4

It causes them to notice that all creatures carry meaning and worship their Lord.

5

In the image given, what do the stars become for the listener?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p03-cahiliyet-icinde-ayetlerin-ihya-
edici-tesiri

Cevap 5

They become shining signs that speak wisdom and truth.

6

How is the earth presented in
that same scene?

Cevap 6

It is presented like a head, with its parts acting like tongues of praise.

7

What is one major lesson of the star comparison for the verses?

Cevap 7

Each verse spreads light into darkness, like stars shining in the night.

8

What is the problem with looking through a “veil of familiarity”?

Cevap 8

It makes a person careless and keeps them from noticing the freshness and power of the message.

9

What is the main purpose of the examples of sky, stars, earth, animals, and plants?

Cevap 9

They show how the Qur'an teaches people to see all creation as pointing to Allah.

10

What does the passage say comes next for someone who wants deeper understanding?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p03-cahiliyet-icinde-ayetlerin-ihya-
edici-tesiri

Cevap 10

A comparison that explains one of the loftiest levels of the Qur'an's miraculousness.

11

What kind of darkness is mentioned in the opening of the passage?

Cevap 11

It speaks of the darkness of unbelief, ignorance, and heedlessness.

12

How are the Qur'an's verses described in relation to disbelief?

Cevap 12

They are described as lights that break apart its darkness.

13

What effect do the Qur'an's verses have on that mistaken worldview?

Cevap 13

They tear it apart and replace it with a vision of a living creation connected to Allah.

14

After the verse about glorification is heard, what happens to the way creatures are understood?

Cevap 14

They are understood as living signs that remember and praise Allah.

15

How is the sky presented to the listener after hearing the verse about glorification?

Cevap 15

It is presented like a speaking mouth filled with meaningful, shining signs.

16

What does the passage say happens when people only see these verses as already well-known religious truths?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p03-cahiliyet-icinde-ayetlerin-ihya-
edici-tesiri

Cevap 16

They miss how powerfully each
verse first broke through darkness
and may not taste its miraculous
sweetness.

17

Why does the passage tell readers to imagine an earlier age instead of just thinking from their own time?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p03-cahiliyet-icinde-ayetlerin-ihya-
edici-tesiri

Cevap 17

Because seeing the first setting helps them notice the powerful change the Qur'an brought.

18

What overall transformation does the passage show from before the Qur'an to after it?

8sinif 13-soz-eng-with-arabic-p03-cahiliyet-icinde-ayetlerin-ihya-
edici-tesiri

Cevap 18

It shows a change from a dead and dark view of the world to a living and faith-filled view.

19

What kind of appreciation does the passage want from the reader?

Cevap 19

It wants thoughtful, heartfelt appreciation of the Qur'an's guidance and miraculous power.

20

Why does the passage end by mentioning a coming comparison?

Cevap 20

To lead the reader into a fuller explanation of a very high form of the Qur'an's miraculousness.

21

What kind of world are readers asked to picture before the Qur'an's light appears?

Cevap 21

A world filled with ignorance, roughness, and a belief that things are lifeless and without meaning.

22

What was the mistaken way of seeing the world in that imagined
age?

Cevap 22

People saw things as dead, ruled only by nature, and covered by ignorance.

23

What mental picture are readers invited to enter before hearing the example verses?

Cevap 23

They are invited to imagine a society buried in ignorance, heedlessness, and a lifeless view of creation.

24

How are the verses of the Qur'an
pictured in the first sentence of the passage?

Cevap 24

They are pictured like brilliant stars spreading light.