

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 1

1-) What is the big idea of this part? (12 kelime)

Things that may

2-) What is essential beauty? (7 kelime)

Beauty

3-) What rough coverings of spring are mentioned? (5 kelime)

Heavy

4-) What does the passage say is made ready under that hard seasonal change? (6 kelime)

The

5-) Why does a person often think only the outside matters? (4 kelime)

Because

6-) What else grows through those hard events? (4 kelime)

Seeds

7-) What bird chasing another bird is given as an example? (3 kelime)

8-) Why can a topic seem embarrassing from one side but proper from another side? (15 kelime)

Because one side

9-) What is hidden under snow's cold outside? (5 kelime)

Good

10-) How does the passage describe apparent disorder in the end? (9 kelime)

As something

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 2

1-) What does this passage explain about everything Allah created? (9 kelime)

Everything has

2-) What can be under an outside appearance that seems confused? (4 kelime)

Bright

3-) What does the passage say is hidden behind autumn's hard changes? (8 kelime)

Mercy for

4-) What hard events are named to show that trouble can carry hidden good? (4 kelime)

Storms,

5-) What new season is made ready after this? (1 kelime)

6-) What kind of plants do people sometimes think are useless and harmful? (4 kelime)

Thorny

7-) What lesson comes from the example of hawks and sparrows? (9 kelime)

Something that

8-) What benefit comes to the sparrow in that example? (5 kelime)

Its

9-) What problem comes from judging everything only by how it seems to us? (10 kelime)

We may

10-) What does the last sentence say some messy-looking things really are? (4 kelime)

Ordered

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 3

1-) What does the passage say can be found in every created thing? (5 kelime)

Some

2-) Which kind of beauty is about what comes later from a thing? (2 kelime)

3-) In the autumn example, what is one good result of loss and separation? (8 kelime)

Small animals

4-) Who is protected through that hidden kindness? (6 kelime)

Small

5-) Why do people often call such events ugly? (11 kelime)

They look

6-) How do people often judge thorny plants? (7 kelime)

They

7-) What does the passage say about the side of events that goes beyond people? (8 kelime)

It points

8-) What does that chase help the sparrow do? (6 kelime)

It

9-) What book is described as the source of good manners in this part? (2 kelime)

10-) How should we look at creatures and events that seem ugly? (13 kelime)

With wisdom, so

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 4

1-) According to this passage, what should we remember when something looks ugly? (7 kelime)

It

2-) What does the passage say is hidden under some ugly-looking events? (3 kelime)

3-) What grows under those coverings? (5 kelime)

Many

4-) Which hard events are named as examples that can hide good things? (4 kelime)

Storms,

5-) Why is that way of judging too small? (9 kelime)

Because an

6-) What other problem makes people judge badly? (6 kelime)

They

7-) What is wrong with calling those plants meaningless? (8 kelime)

They actually

8-) Why does the passage talk about shame and proper speech? (11 kelime)

To teach

9-) What does the example of snow show about unpleasant things? (8 kelime)

They can

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 5

1-) What truth about creation is taught in this section? (7 kelime)

All

2-) What can be found under a covering that looks ugly or mixed up? (5 kelime)

Real

3-) Why are those small animals taken away before winter? (7 kelime)

So

4-) What hidden things can come out during disasters and troubles? (6 kelime)

Unseen

5-) What do storms, earthquakes, and plague help bring out? (6 kelime)

Hidden

6-) If an event does not seem good for a person, does that mean it has no good purpose? (7 kelime)

No.

7-) What does the bird example teach us? (9 kelime)

A hard-looking

8-) What noble role is given to those plants? (7 kelime)

They

9-) What should be used to understand these matters rightly? (1 kelime)

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 6

1-) What does this passage want us to learn about things we dislike seeing? (7 kelime)

They

2-) In spring, what beautiful things are hidden under rain and muddy ground? (5 kelime)

Many

3-) Why is autumn's ending of many living things not only sad in this passage? (10 kelime)

Because it

4-) How does the passage describe the small animals among flowers? (4 kelime)

As

5-) What does the passage compare widespread change to? (5 kelime)

Rain

6-) What kind of plants are used to show that people may judge wrongly? (4 kelime)

Thorny

7-) Does the passage say human benefit is the only purpose of events? (8 kelime)

No. There

8-) What is really hidden under snow, according to the passage? (5 kelime)

Warm

9-) What may be hidden under things and events that look ugly to us?
(5 kelime)
Fine

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 1 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the big idea of this part?

Things that may look ugly can still have real beauty and wisdom.

2-) What is essential beauty?

Beauty that belongs to a thing itself.

3-) What rough coverings of spring are mentioned?

Heavy rain and muddy earth.

4-) What does the passage say is made ready under that hard seasonal change?

The way for a fresh spring.

5-) Why does a person often think only the outside matters?

Because he loves appearances.

6-) What else grows through those hard events?

Seeds of hidden potential.

7-) What bird chasing another bird is given as an example?

Hawks chasing sparrows.

8-) Why can a topic seem embarrassing from one side but proper from another side?

Because one side is about people's feelings, but another side is about creation and purpose.

9-) What is hidden under snow's cold outside?

Good purposes and sweet results.

10-) How does the passage describe apparent disorder in the end?

As something that may truly be orderly and meaningful.

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 2 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What does this passage explain about everything Allah created?

Everything has been made in a very good way.

2-) What can be under an outside appearance that seems confused?

Bright beauty and order.

3-) What does the passage say is hidden behind autumn's hard changes?

Mercy for little creatures and preparation for spring.

4-) What hard events are named to show that trouble can carry hidden good?

Storms, earthquakes, and plague.

5-) What new season is made ready after this?

Spring.

6-) What kind of plants do people sometimes think are useless and harmful?

Thorny plants and trees.

7-) What lesson comes from the example of hawks and sparrows?

Something that looks harsh may help another creature improve.

8-) What benefit comes to the sparrow in that example?

Its skills and powers grow.

9-) What problem comes from judging everything only by how it seems to us?

We may call good and proper things ugly or rude.

10-) What does the last sentence say some messy-looking things really are?

Ordered and sacred writing.

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 3 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say can be found in every created thing?

Some kind of true beauty.

2-) Which kind of beauty is about what comes later from a thing?

Relative beauty.

3-) In the autumn example, what is one good result of loss and separation?

Small animals are kept safe from winter hardship.

4-) Who is protected through that hidden kindness?

Small animals connected with the flowers.

5-) Why do people often call such events ugly?

They look only at the outside and think mostly about themselves.

6-) How do people often judge thorny plants?

They think they are bad and pointless.

7-) What does the passage say about the side of events that goes beyond people?

It points in many ways to Allah's names.

8-) What does that chase help the sparrow do?

It helps it develop its abilities.

9-) What book is described as the source of good manners in this part?

The Qur'an.

10-) How should we look at creatures and events that seem ugly?

With wisdom, so we can see the beauty, art, and order in them.

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to this passage, what should we remember when something looks ugly?

It may still contain beauty and wisdom.

2-) What does the passage say is hidden under some ugly-looking events?

Beauty and order.

3-) What grows under those coverings?

Many flowers and orderly plants.

4-) Which hard events are named as examples that can hide good things?

Storms, earthquakes, and plague.

5-) Why is that way of judging too small?

Because an event may have many other wise purposes.

6-) What other problem makes people judge badly?

They think too much about themselves.

7-) What is wrong with calling those plants meaningless?

They actually have strength and an important job.

8-) Why does the passage talk about shame and proper speech?

To teach that not every topic is wrong in every way.

9-) What does the example of snow show about unpleasant things?

They can hide warm good and sweet results.

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What truth about creation is taught in this section?

All creation has beauty in some way.

2-) What can be found under a covering that looks ugly or mixed up?

Real beauty and careful order.

3-) Why are those small animals taken away before winter?

So they are protected from winter's hardships.

4-) What hidden things can come out during disasters and troubles?

Unseen good qualities and growing abilities.

5-) What do storms, earthquakes, and plague help bring out?

Hidden spiritual beauties and growing abilities.

6-) If an event does not seem good for a person, does that mean it has no good purpose?

No. It can have many other purposes.

7-) What does the bird example teach us?

A hard-looking event may help another creature become stronger.

8-) What noble role is given to those plants?

They are like strong defenders among plants.

9-) What should be used to understand these matters rightly?

Wisdom.

2sinif 18-soz-eng-with-arabic-p02-ikinci-nokta-her-seyde-hakiki-husun-ve-perde-arkasindaki-hikmet - Set 6 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What does this passage want us to learn about things we dislike seeing?

They may have hidden beauty and wisdom.

2-) In spring, what beautiful things are hidden under rain and muddy ground?

Many flowers and neat-growing plants.

3-) Why is autumn's ending of many living things not only sad in this passage?

Because it also protects some creatures and prepares for spring.

4-) How does the passage describe the small animals among flowers?
As friendly little creatures.

5-) What does the passage compare widespread change to?

Rain that helps unseen growth.

6-) What kind of plants are used to show that people may judge wrongly?

Thorny plants and trees.

7-) Does the passage say human benefit is the only purpose of events?

No. There are many more purposes beyond that.

8-) What is really hidden under snow, according to the passage?

Warm aims and sweet results.

9-) What may be hidden under things and events that look ugly to us?

Fine art, beauty, and wisdom.