

1

What question is raised at the start of the passage about all created things?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 1

It asks whether all things truly declare Allah's name through the way they were made and how they function.

2

What everyday-style scenario is used to test whether that statement makes sense?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 2

The passage asks us to imagine one person controlling a whole town and making its people work.

3

After that scenario, what is the same pattern said to appear in nature?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 3

Things in creation do great works that are beyond their own size and ability, showing that Allah empowers them.

4

What do trees provide that points to divine mercy?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 4

They bring out fruits and benefits for people as if receiving them from Allah's store of mercy.

5

How are gardens portrayed as places of provision?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 5

They are shown like productive places where many foods are prepared for living beings.

6

What is special about the roots of plants, trees, and grasses?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 6

Even though they are very soft,
they pass through hard ground and rock.

7

What truth is taught by this surprising ability of roots?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 7

Strength in creation does not belong only to what looks hard or powerful; Allah gives effect to whatever He wills.

8

What comparison is made between rootlets and the staff of Musa, peace be upon him?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 8

The roots are compared to a tool that breaks rock by Allah's command, showing that their effect comes from divine order.

9

How does the reference to fire becoming safe relate to leaves in heat?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 9

It shows that burning heat cannot harm beyond what Allah allows, just as leaves can remain fresh by His command.

10

What claim from earlier is examined again at the beginning of this passage?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 10

The claim that all beings, through their condition and actions, express dependence on Allah.

11

What human example is used before discussing plants and animals?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 11

It uses the case of a single man forcing the people of a town to gather and labor.

12

What principle does this example teach before applying it to nature?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 12

Great effects coming from a weak-looking agent show that the real power is behind that agent, not in it alone.

13

In what way do seeds and grains appear weak but accomplish something great?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 13

They are very small, yet they become the means for huge trees and heavy produce.

14

What does the passage suggest about gardens by comparing them to cooking vessels?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 14

It suggests that many kinds of food are prepared there by Allah's creative power.

15

Why is milk described in such an elevated way?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 15

Because it is pure, nourishing, and mercifully provided through animals for human benefit.

16

What conclusion should a reader draw from that contrast?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 16

The roots are not succeeding through their own natural toughness but through submission of the earth to Allah's command.

17

How are the rootlets like a sign seen in the life of Musa, peace be upon him?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 17

They break through rock by Allah's order just as rock was opened through a divinely commanded sign.

18

How does the mention of Prophet Ibrahim, peace be upon him, support the point about leaves?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 18

It reminds the reader that fire itself can be made harmless by Allah, so heat is not independent.

19

What two Qur'anic prophetic examples are alluded to in the last part of the passage?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 19

One refers to Musa, peace be upon him, and rock; the other refers to Ibrahim, peace be upon him, and fire.

20

What is being confirmed by the short question and answer at the opening of the passage?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 20

It is confirming that the whole world, through its actions, points to Allah and serves by His permission.

21

How does the passage answer that teaching?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 21

It answers by clearly affirming that it is true.

22

According to the passage, do created things act independently?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 22

No, they carry out their tasks through Allah's naming, command, and power.

23

What makes the roots and rootlets especially striking as signs?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 23

They are soft and fragile in appearance, yet they move through solid earth and rock.

24

What contrast is important in the description of roots?

11sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 24

Their softness is contrasted with the hardness of the earth and rock they pass through.
