

1

In the comparison, who does the ruler stand for?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 1

The ruler stands for Allah, the Sustainer and Creator.

2

How is the ruler described in terms of belief?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 2

He represents the Lord who created and sustains all people.

3

In the passage, what does the royal estate represent?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 3

It represents Paradise.

4

What destination is placed before the reader as the true homeland?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 4

The true homeland is Paradise.

5

According to the passage, why do people move through that journey at different levels?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 5

Their progress differs based on what they do and how strong their taqwa is.

6

Why is the prayer compared to something that allows travel?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 6

Because it helps carry a person toward eternal success, like travel access helps someone reach a destination.

7

Why is it described as a serious loss to spend almost the whole day on worldly life and not give one hour to prayer?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 7

Because worldly life is short, but the hereafter is lasting, so neglecting prayer means wasting what helps a person prepare for what matters most.

8

What does the example of unequal chances of gain teach?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-
comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 8

It teaches that refusing a highly beneficial and reliable investment is foolish.

9

How does the passage describe prayer in relation to the body?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 9

It says prayer is not a heavy burden for the body.

10

What is the broader life lesson at the end of the passage?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 10

A believer can use daily life in a way that gives it enduring value instead of letting it pass away empty.

11

What is the main religious practice being urged in this passage?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 11

The passage urges people to perform the five daily prayers.

12

Who is represented by the servant who neglects his duty?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-
comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 12

He represents those who are careless about prayer.

13

What does the neglectful servant show?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 13

He shows heedlessness and failure to give prayer its proper place.

14

According to the passage, what lies between worldly life and the hereafter?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 14

The grave lies between them as a stage on the way.

15

What does the mention of the grave remind the reader of?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 15

It reminds the reader that death is certain and that every person is moving toward meeting what comes after this life.

16

How much time does the passage say this “ticket” requires each day?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-
comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 16

It requires about one hour for prayer and ablution.

17

What does the passage suggest about the amount of effort needed for prayer compared with its reward?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 17

It suggests the effort is small, but the reward is enormous.

18

What three parts of a person are said to gain comfort from prayer?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 18

The spirit, the heart, and the mind.

19

Which human faculties are said to find relief in prayer?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 19

The soul, heart, and mind.

20

How does this passage connect intention with ordinary life?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-
comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 20

It teaches that intention can lift normal daily actions into spiritually meaningful deeds.

21

In that same symbolism, what does the grave correspond to?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 21

It corresponds to the stopping place on the journey.

22

In the explained comparison, whom does the ruler point to?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-
comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 22

He points to Allah, the Lord of all.

23

Why is the grave described as a station rather than the final destination?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 23

Because the passage teaches that life continues beyond death into resurrection and the hereafter.

24

What does the royal property represent in spiritual terms?

11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-
comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 24

It represents the eternal reward of Paradise.