

1

What situation did the king create for the two men at the beginning of the passage?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 1

He placed each of them in charge of an estate with equipment, animals, and tools.

2

Why is the king's request reasonable based on the story?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 2

The property belongs to him originally, and he offers to protect and reward the men for giving it back.

3

What was the king trying to prevent by asking for the property back?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 3

He wanted to keep it from being wasted or destroyed without benefit.

4

Besides returning it, what else did the king promise to give for the property?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 4

He promised a very great payment for it.

5

How does the king strengthen his argument by discussing both profit and loss?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 5

He shows that acceptance leads to multiple benefits while refusal leads to multiple harms.

6

Why would refusal lead to both hardship and punishment?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 6

The men would struggle to guard what they could not keep and also be guilty of betraying what was entrusted to them.

7

What new status would a man receive if he accepted the king's offer?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 7

He would serve as the king's soldier in an honorable and free position instead of a low and restricted one.

8

Why is gratitude linked with wisdom in the first man?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 8

His thankfulness shows he recognizes both the king's generosity and his own need.

9

How are the outcomes of the two men opposite to one another?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 9

One gains rank, nearness, and joy,
while the other loses status,
possessions, and peace.

10

Who are the main figures in the comparison found in this passage?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 10

A king, his messenger, and two men entrusted with estates.

11

What larger condition threatened everything in the story?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 11

A violent and unstable age in which possessions could not remain secure.

12

What tone does the king use in his message?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 12

He speaks with mercy, concern, and generosity.

13

How does the king try to persuade the men logically?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 13

He explains both the benefits of accepting and the harms of refusing.

14

How did the king address the men's inability to carry out expensive tasks?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 14

He said he would provide the needed costs and equipment himself.

15

Why would refusing the offer be foolish even from a worldly point of view?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 15

The property was already at risk, and refusal would only add burden without securing it.

16

Why is becoming the king's soldier better than remaining a common captive or irregular fighter?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 16

It brings dignity, freedom, and closeness to royal service.

17

Which of the two men responds with humility?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 17

The one who gladly accepts and gives thanks.

18

What does the story suggest about temporary enjoyment compared with lasting reward?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 18

Chasing short pleasure can make a person miss far greater and longer-lasting good.

19

What was the final social result of each man's decision?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 19

People admired the first man and pitied the second.

20

What did each of the two men receive from the king?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 20

Each one was given charge over an estate filled with what was needed for work and defense.

21

How did the king communicate his offer to the two men?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-
and-outcomes

Cevap 21

He sent a respected representative with a merciful message.

22

What does the king promise to do with the trust while the men wait for the end of the conflict?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 22

He promises to preserve it, improve it, and let them keep its returns.

23

What does the king's offer reveal about the relationship between ownership and trust?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 23

Real ownership remains with the king, while the men only hold the property temporarily.

24

Why did the king say he should take responsibility for expenses and supplies?

11sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes

Cevap 24

The two men were too poor and unable to cover the cost of such major work themselves.