

1

In the parable's explanation, who does the king stand for?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 1

He stands for Allah, the Lord and Creator who existed before everything and remains after everything.

2

What does the passage include under a person's "property"?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 2

It includes not just wealth, but also the self, inner life, and all human faculties.

3

Who is represented by the noble lieutenant?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 3

He represents the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.

4

Why is the world described as stormy and always shifting?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 4

To show that earthly life is unstable and cannot be held onto forever.

5

What question does the changing world push a person to ask?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 5

It makes a person wonder whether what slips away can be turned into something lasting.

6

How does this answer change the meaning of loss?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 6

What seems like giving up something becomes a way of keeping it in a better and lasting form.

7

If someone refuses this trade, what general result follows
besides missing its benefits?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 7

That person also suffers five different losses.

8

What is the first gain listed?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 8

A fading life becomes everlasting in outcome.

9

What does the eye become if it follows selfish desire?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 9

It becomes a low servant of lust and attachment to temporary things.

10

What is the fourth profit for a person living with many needs and weaknesses?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 10

Trust in Allah brings peace and keeps a person from being overwhelmed by distress.

11

What is the main message of the passage about a person's life and abilities?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 11

A person should dedicate his life and faculties to Allah, because they are a trust and doing so brings lasting gain.

12

Why does the passage use a parable before explaining the truth directly?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 12

It uses the story to make a deep spiritual lesson easier to understand.

13

Why is the world compared to a battlefield?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 13

Because it is unstable, full of change, and nothing in it remains in a fixed state.

14

Which guide in the parable points people toward the right choice?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 14

The noble lieutenant, representing the Messenger of Allah, guides them.

15

What is the first of the five gains in simple terms?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 15

A short earthly life is turned into a source of eternal benefit.

16

What natural human concern comes from seeing this instability?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 16

People fear losing what they have and want to know if it can be preserved.

17

How can the tongue rise in value?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 17

By being used with gratitude and awareness of Allah's provision rather than mere appetite.

18

What is the second benefit?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 18

The believer receives Paradise.

19

What transition does the passage make after listing the five profits?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 19

It warns that turning away from this exchange leads to five losses.

20

What warning is given at the end of the target passage?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 20

Refusing this exchange means not only missing the profits but also facing five losses.

21

What three figures in the parable are directly explained at the start of the passage?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 21

The king, the lieutenant, and the decree are explained.

22

In the passage, how is Allah described through the symbol of the king?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 22

He is described as the eternal ruler, the Lord, and the Creator.

23

Which parts of the person are included in this trust according to the passage?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust

Cevap 23

The body, spirit, heart, senses, intellect, and imagination are all included.

24

Why is the Qur'an central to the explanation?

11sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-
selling-the-trust

Cevap 24

Because it clearly teaches the spiritual exchange being discussed.