

1

What main idea is introduced at the beginning of this passage about religion and human life?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 1

True religion helps a person understand the world and the human soul, while living without it leads to deep misery and spiritual darkness.

2

Which religion is identified as the true religion in the passage?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 2
Islam.

3

What spiritual solution is offered at the beginning of the passage?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 3

Turning to Allah and affirming His oneness.

4

How is the road on the left described?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 4

It offers fewer limits, but it leads to danger and misery.

5

What does the right road require from the traveler?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 5

It requires respect for law, discipline, and proper conduct.

6

What false attraction belongs to the other road?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 6

It seems appealing because it offers unrestricted freedom.

7

What contrast between freedom and order is being taught through the two roads?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 7

The passage teaches that freedom without guidance can destroy a person, while discipline under rightful guidance brings peace and protection.

8

Which brother is described in a negative way, and what does that suggest about his priorities?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 8

The other brother is described as immoral and lazy, suggesting that he values ease and lack of limits more than what is right.

9

What does the phrase about following the second brother with imagination prepare the reader for?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 9

It prepares the reader to picture his experience closely and learn from what happens to him.

10

What question is this passage trying to answer through the example of the two brothers?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 10

It is explaining the value of true religion, the condition of the human spirit, and why life becomes dark and painful without faith.

11

What does the passage say happens to a human being without religion?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 11

Such a person becomes deeply unhappy and spiritually lost.

12

What does the passage say religion does for the human spirit?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 12

It saves the spirit from darkness and gives meaning and direction to life.

13

What does the fork in the road symbolize?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 13

It symbolizes a human being's choice between a guided life and an unguided one.

14

How does the man describe the relationship between hardship and benefit on the right side?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 14

He explains that the right side includes difficulty because of rules, but those rules lead to safety and joy.

15

What combination is found on the left-hand road?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 15

Freedom from restraint together with danger and misery.

16

What can we infer about the relationship between moral character and wise decision-making from this passage?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 16

Good character supports wise choices, while bad character pushes a person toward harmful decisions.

17

What does this suggest about choosing only what feels comfortable?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 17

It suggests that chasing comfort alone can lead a person away from what is truly good.

18

What does the opening suggest about a life built only on personal desire?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 18

It may look appealing at first, but it carries hidden harm and unhappiness.

19

What is the passage inviting the reader to understand before the story begins?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 19

It invites the reader to understand the world, the human soul, the importance of religion, and the misery that comes from being without it.

20

What is the spiritual problem of a world without true religion, according to the passage?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 20

It traps the human being in confusion, darkness, and misery.

21

How is the road on the right
described?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 21

It requires discipline and obedience, but it leads to safety and well-being.

22

What choice does that man leave to the brothers after describing both roads?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 22

He leaves the decision fully up to them.

23

What good result comes from accepting that discipline?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 23

It brings safety and happiness.

24

Why does the passage say the left road only seems easy?

11sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 24

It looks comfortable at first because it has no clear limits, but in reality it brings hardship and trouble.