6

What does the passage imply about self-control?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 6

Self-control helps a person understand blessings rightly and wait for what is better.

7

In that example, how does the person insult others around him?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 7

He treats his friends as if they were savage threats instead of companions.

8

Why is the unfortunate brother said to be insulting others indirectly?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 8

Because his false view treats what is good and friendly as if it were evil and threatening.

9

According to the passage, what inner qualities lead to abundant blessing?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

He sees himself as an honored guest among servants of a generous master.

14

What is the difference between misuse and proper use of the fruit?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 14

Misuse is to consume for selfish pleasure, while proper use is to taste, learn, and wait for the full gift.

15

What does tasting but waiting represent?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 15

It represents wisdom, restraint, and trust that better gifts are ahead.

16

In the example, what makes the person's complaint invalid?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 16

His pain comes from his own actions and false imagination, not from the people or place around him.

17

How does the fortunate brother's view of truth affect his character?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 17

It makes him respectful, grateful, and worthy of mercy.

18

How does the Qur'anic teaching in this passage connect to personal responsibility?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment

Cevap 18

It teaches that a person must take responsibility for the evil that rises from within himself.

19

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 20

He is welcomed into a beautiful garden instead of remaining trapped in terror.

21

What makes the fortunate traveler's fear healthier than the other traveler's fear?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 21

His fear is balanced by love, understanding, and trust.

How does despair affect the unfortunate traveler?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 22

It leaves him cut off, miserable, and unable to benefit from what is around him.

23

What example is given to explain
his condition?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 23

A person at a joyful gathering ruins his own mind with harmful drink, then imagines a false scene of danger and misery.

24

Why is the comparison to a drunken person at a summer gathering important?

11sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 24

It shows how someone can distort a good situation and then suffer because of his own confusion.
