

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, what choice did the two soldiers have to make at the place where the road split? (19 kelime)

They had to choose

2-) Who were the main characters in the story? (7 kelime)

They

3-) Why is the right road not described as effortless? (8 kelime)

Because it

4-) Why did the second soldier reject the right path? (16 kelime)

He did not want

5-) How is the word “fortunate” important in describing the soldier on the right? (10 kelime)

It shows

6-) In what way was the soldier on the left dependent on others? (12 kelime)

He had to

7-) How did the unlucky soldier travel on the left road? (13 kelime)

He moved forward

8-) What social result came from his weakness on the road? (11 kelime)

He had

9-) What false belief about comfort is exposed in this story? (12 kelime)
The story exposes

10-) What kind of happiness is praised in the story: shallow pleasure or meaningful peace? (4 kelime)
Meaningful

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 2

1-) What is the main purpose of the story about the two soldiers? (17 kelime)

It is meant to

2-) What did he say about the road on the left? (15 kelime)

He said it

3-) What benefit was connected to the road on the right? (9 kelime)

It was

4-) What happened to the fortunate soldier's body compared with his inner life? (15 kelime)

His body carried

5-) What does begging from everyone show about his condition? (8 kelime)

It shows

6-) What does the story suggest about freedom without guidance? (11 kelime)

It can

7-) What does the punishment of the second soldier suggest about his choice? (15 kelime)

It shows that

8-) What qualities did the soldier on the right show? (9 kelime)

He showed

9-) What final honor did the obedient soldier receive? (12 kelime)

He was rewarded

10-) If a student applies this lesson to daily life, what should he or she understand? (12 kelime)

Real growth often

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 3

1-) What does the passage say worship brings to a person? (6 kelime)
It

2-) What information did the man at the fork give them before they chose? (16 kelime)
He explained the outcomes

3-) What was the main practical difference between the two roads? (26 kelime)
The left road had no discipline

4-) How did authority differ between the two roads? (12 kelime)
The right road

5-) How does the passage use the idea of weight in two different ways? (14 kelime)
It contrasts a

6-) Why is the first soldier described as loving military order? (9 kelime)
Because he

7-) What was the final condition of the soldier who stayed faithful? (10 kelime)
He arrived

8-) Why is the ease of the left road called deceptive? (15 kelime)
Because it only

9-) What happened to the obedient soldier at the end? (9 kelime)
He reached

10-) How does the story define true success? (11 kelime)
True success

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 4

1-) In the story, what was the soldiers' shared starting point? (10 kelime)

Both received

2-) Why are the soldiers a fitting example for this lesson? (13 kelime)
Their journey shows

3-) According to the same man, what usually happened to people who took the left-hand road? (10 kelime)
Most of

4-) What did the soldier who chose the right road have to carry? (12 kelime)
He had to

5-) Which soldier is presented as making the wiser choice? (7 kelime)
The

6-) What does the right-road soldier's reward reveal about the value of perseverance? (13 kelime)
It shows that

7-) What does the phrase about not being indebted to anyone add to the message? (10 kelime)
It emphasizes

8-) What is one reason the food bag matters in the story? (9 kelime)

It represents

9-) How does it connect outward lightness with inward pressure? (10 kelime)

Refusing the

10-) What main lesson about worship and sinful living is taught through this comparison? (28 kelime)

Worship may seem demanding at first, but

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 5

1-) What two opposite ways of living are being compared through the image of the two roads? (17 kelime)

A life of worship

2-) What warning did the man at the fork give about the left path? (12 kelime)

He warned that

3-) What makes the right road a path of wisdom? (10 kelime)

It combines

4-) What does the fortunate soldier's action show about his character? (13 kelime)

It shows wisdom,

5-) What decision did the unlucky soldier make after hearing the man's advice? (10 kelime)

He left

6-) What larger suffering did that save him from? (9 kelime)

It saved

7-) How does peace shape the journey of the first soldier? (10 kelime)

Peace allows

8-) What is the relationship between obedience and honor in the story? (9 kelime)

Obedience leads

9-) What kind of person is most likely being warned by this passage?
(12 kelime)

A person tempted

10-) What does the passage teach about discipline? (17 kelime)

Discipline may feel heavy

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 6

1-) What opening statement explains why the comparison is being told? (19 kelime)

It is told to

2-) What does the phrase about nine out of ten travelers suggest? (14 kelime)

It suggests that

3-) What might carrying supplies and a weapon symbolize within the story itself? (10 kelime)

It symbolizes

4-) Why is the right road connected with peace of mind? (16 kelime)

Because the traveler is

5-) How does the passage describe the emotional cost of the left-hand road? (12 kelime)

It portrays the

6-) What heavier burdens replaced that small load? (10 kelime)

He became

7-) What was the emotional result of his choice? (7 kelime)

He

8-) Which soldier reached the city in disgrace, and why? (15 kelime)

The soldier on

9-) How does the passage speak to someone who thinks religious duty is only a burden? (17 kelime)

It teaches that a

10-) What feeling marks the left path from beginning to end? (8 kelime)

False ease

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what choice did the two soldiers have to make at the place where the road split?

They had to choose between two roads, one promising safety and benefit and the other bringing loss and trouble.

2-) Who were the main characters in the story?

They were two soldiers traveling under orders.

3-) Why is the right road not described as effortless?

Because it requires carrying responsibility and accepting authority.

4-) Why did the second soldier reject the right path?

He did not want to submit to discipline and preferred a path that looked less demanding.

5-) How is the word "fortunate" important in describing the soldier on the right?

It shows that choosing rightly leads to a blessed outcome.

6-) In what way was the soldier on the left dependent on others?

He had to ask people for help and support along the way.

7-) How did the unlucky soldier travel on the left road?

He moved forward begging from others and feeling afraid of everything around him.

8-) What social result came from his weakness on the road?

He had to rely on others and ask them for help.

9-) What false belief about comfort is exposed in this story?

The story exposes the idea that avoiding responsibility always makes life better.

10-) What kind of happiness is praised in the story: shallow pleasure or meaningful peace?

Meaningful peace is praised.

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main purpose of the story about the two soldiers?

It is meant to show the difference between the path of worship and the path of wrongdoing.

2-) What did he say about the road on the left?

He said it had no real benefit, and most who took it ended up losing.

3-) What benefit was connected to the road on the right?

It was connected to profit and peace of mind.

4-) What happened to the fortunate soldier's body compared with his inner life?

His body carried some weight, but his inner life was protected from much heavier distress.

5-) What does begging from everyone show about his condition?

It shows weakness, dependence, and loss of dignity.

6-) What does the story suggest about freedom without guidance?

It can turn into vulnerability and misery instead of real freedom.

7-) What does the punishment of the second soldier suggest about his choice?

It shows that his choice was not just unwise but also a betrayal of duty.

8-) What qualities did the soldier on the right show?

He showed loyalty, discipline, and faithfulness to his duty.

9-) What final honor did the obedient soldier receive?

He was rewarded like a respectable soldier who had fulfilled his mission.

10-) If a student applies this lesson to daily life, what should he or she understand?

Real growth often comes from accepting duties that seem hard at first.

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say worship brings to a person?

It brings great benefit and happiness.

2-) What information did the man at the fork give them before they chose?

He explained the outcomes of both roads and described the cost and conditions of each one.

3-) What was the main practical difference between the two roads?

The left road had no discipline or authority and required no gear, while the right road was under order and required carrying supplies and a weapon.

4-) How did authority differ between the two roads?

The right road had order and supervision, while the left had neither.

5-) How does the passage use the idea of weight in two different ways?

It contrasts a small physical load with a far greater emotional and moral burden.

6-) Why is the first soldier described as loving military order?

Because he accepted discipline willingly and saw its value.

7-) What was the final condition of the soldier who stayed faithful?

He arrived safely and was honored for doing his duty.

8-) Why is the ease of the left road called deceptive?

Because it only seems easy at the beginning, but later it brings much worse hardship.

9-) What happened to the obedient soldier at the end?

He reached the city and received an honorable reward.

10-) How does the story define true success?

True success is reaching the goal with peace, honor, and reward.

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the story, what was the soldiers' shared starting point?

Both received the same command and began the journey together.

2-) Why are the soldiers a fitting example for this lesson?

Their journey shows how two different choices can lead to very different endings.

3-) According to the same man, what usually happened to people who took the left-hand road?

Most of them suffered loss and gained no real benefit.

4-) What did the soldier who chose the right road have to carry?

He had to carry a bag of food and a strong rifle.

5-) Which soldier is presented as making the wiser choice?

The one who chose the right-hand road.

6-) What does the right-road soldier's reward reveal about the value of perseverance?

It shows that enduring a lawful burden faithfully leads to honor and gain.

7-) What does the phrase about not being indebted to anyone add to the message?

It emphasizes that the right path preserves dignity and self-respect.

8-) What is one reason the food bag matters in the story?

It represents having what is needed for the journey.

9-) How does it connect outward lightness with inward pressure?

Refusing the load leads to emotional strain and constant worry.

10-) What main lesson about worship and sinful living is taught through this comparison?

Worship may seem demanding at first, but it leads to real profit and happiness, while sinful living may seem easy at first but ends in loss and ruin.

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two opposite ways of living are being compared through the image of the two roads?

A life of worship and discipline is being compared with a life of vice and uncontrolled desire.

2-) What warning did the man at the fork give about the left path?

He warned that it offered no real gain and usually ended badly.

3-) What makes the right road a path of wisdom?

It combines order, preparation, and a high chance of success.

4-) What does the fortunate soldier's action show about his character?

It shows wisdom, trust, and willingness to accept discipline for a better outcome.

5-) What decision did the unlucky soldier make after hearing the man's advice?

He left the army order and took the left road.

6-) What larger suffering did that save him from?

It saved him from deep fear, humiliation, and dependence.

7-) How does peace shape the journey of the first soldier?

Peace allows him to move forward without panic or dependence.

8-) What is the relationship between obedience and honor in the story?

Obedience leads to a noble outcome and public reward.

9-) What kind of person is most likely being warned by this passage?

A person tempted to ignore worship because it seems difficult or restrictive.

10-) What does the passage teach about discipline?

Discipline may feel heavy at first, but it protects a person and leads to a better end.

11sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What opening statement explains why the comparison is being told?

It is told to show the great gain in worship and the great harm in vice and reckless living.

2-) What does the phrase about nine out of ten travelers suggest?

It suggests that one path is overwhelmingly more reliable and beneficial than the other.

3-) What might carrying supplies and a weapon symbolize within the story itself?

It symbolizes being prepared, responsible, and ready to face hardship.

4-) Why is the right road connected with peace of mind?

Because the traveler is prepared and protected, so he does not live in panic or dependence.

5-) How does the passage describe the emotional cost of the left-hand road?

It portrays the traveler as inwardly crushed by fear, debt, and humiliation.

6-) What heavier burdens replaced that small load?

He became weighed down by anxiety, neediness, and many fears.

7-) What was the emotional result of his choice?

He became fearful, strained, and burdened inside.

8-) Which soldier reached the city in disgrace, and why?

The soldier on the left did, because he rejected order and acted like a deserter.

9-) How does the passage speak to someone who thinks religious duty is only a burden?

It teaches that a small burden accepted now can save a person from much greater suffering later.

10-) What feeling marks the left path from beginning to end?

False ease at first, then fear and regret.