

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1

1-) What is the first gain described in the passage? (17 kelime)

A temporary life and

2-) How does the passage describe the outward appearance of life's passing moments? (6 kelime)

They

3-) What is received in the second profit? (4 kelime)

The

4-) According to the passage, why may a sinful person run toward intoxicants or empty entertainment? (12 kelime)

To escape the

5-) What is the best use of the intellect according to the passage? (22 kelime)

To use it for Allah

6-) What is wrong with using the tongue only for food and appetite? (12 kelime)

It reduces a

7-) What contrast does the passage draw between two ways of using human abilities? (18 kelime)

One way ruins them

8-) What causes the unbeliever to lose true worth? (9 kelime)

Betraying that

9-) What happens if a person carries life's burden without trust in Allah? (13 kelime)

The person becomes

10-) When will the reward of worship be especially valuable, according to the passage? (15 kelime)

It will be

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2

1-) How many benefits are explained in this passage? (2 kelime)

2-) How does the passage challenge the idea that death makes all effort useless? (11 kelime)

It teaches

3-) What is the third profit mainly about? (12 kelime)

Human faculties greatly

4-) What does the intellect become when used for Allah's sake? (13 kelime)

It becomes a

5-) How is the eye degraded when it is used for the lower self? (10 kelime)

It becomes

6-) What low use of the tongue is criticized in the passage? (7 kelime)

Using

7-) What difference between a believer and an unbeliever is drawn from these examples? (15 kelime)

The believer uses

8-) What does the fourth profit say about the human condition? (11 kelime)

Human beings

9-) What is the fifth profit connected to? (11 kelime)

The reward

10-) Who confirms this truth according to the passage? (8 kelime)

Spiritually enlightened

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3

1-) What is the central theme of the section about the five profits? (11 kelime)

Using one's

2-) Besides the eternal world, where else do the deeds of this life show a good result according to the passage? (14 kelime)

They also show

3-) What is the second profit mentioned? (5 kelime)

Receiving

4-) What does this harmful use of intellect do to a person's well-being? (12 kelime)

It weakens the

5-) What happens to the eye when it is used only to chase passing beauty and desire? (9 kelime)

It falls

6-) How is the tongue misused when it serves only the stomach? (11 kelime)

It is

7-) What determines whether a person develops a Paradise-worthy nature or a Hell-worthy nature? (14 kelime)

Whether that person

8-) What is the fourth gain described in the passage? (17 kelime)

Trusting in Allah frees

9-) What happens if a person tries to carry life alone without that trust? (11 kelime)

The person

10-) Why is the phrase “time of greatest need” important in the fifth profit? (16 kelime)

It shows that the

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say happens to worldly things when they are used for Allah? (10 kelime)

They gain

2-) What natural example helps explain how temporary actions can lead to lasting outcomes? (15 kelime)

The example of

3-) What is being increased in value in the third profit? (6 kelime)

Each

4-) What kind of tool does the intellect become when used rightly? (13 kelime)

It becomes a

5-) What is the role of the eye when it is used properly? (13 kelime)

It becomes a

6-) What honorable role does the tongue have when used for Allah? (11 kelime)

It becomes

7-) What gives the believer a nature suited for Paradise? (9 kelime)

Faithful use

8-) What human realities are highlighted in the fourth benefit? (7 kelime)

Human

9-) What kind of spiritual decline can follow from lacking trust in Allah?
(10 kelime)

A person

10-) Why does the passage emphasize “greatest need” when speaking of reward? (17 kelime)

To show that the

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5

1-) What does the first profit teach about things that do not last in this world? (14 kelime)

They can become

2-) What does the passage suggest about actions that seem to vanish? (15 kelime)

They may appear

3-) What example is given first to explain the third gain? (7 kelime)

The

4-) What two time directions especially trouble the misused intellect? (5 kelime)

The

5-) What does the eye become if used only for passing worldly attractions? (9 kelime)

It becomes

6-) What happens to the tongue and taste when they are used only for appetite? (10 kelime)

They drop

7-) What should the reader do with the examples given? (14 kelime)

The reader should

8-) What truth about human beings introduces the fourth profit? (10 kelime)

Human beings

9-) What is the fifth gain described in the passage? (21 kelime)

The worship done through one's

10-) Why is this reward especially encouraging? (12 kelime)

Because it will

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6

1-) What is the first of the five profits? (17 kelime)

A temporary life becomes

2-) What comparison from plant life is used to explain this? (13 kelime)

The comparison of

3-) What happens to the intellect if it serves only the lower self? (17 kelime)

It becomes a source

4-) What does the intellect become when returned to its true purpose? (14 kelime)

It becomes a

5-) What honorable function does the eye have when directed toward Allah's purposes? (16 kelime)

It serves as a

6-) What raises the rank of the tongue and taste? (9 kelime)

Using them

7-) What kind of nature does an unbeliever gain from misuse of them? (5 kelime)

A

8-) What is the proper response to that condition according to the passage? (11 kelime)

To rely

9-) What kind of emotional suffering is described for a person who lacks trust in Allah? (11 kelime)

The person

10-) When will this promised reward be given? (12 kelime)

At the time

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first gain described in the passage?

A temporary life and temporary possessions become lasting in their results when they are devoted to Allah.

2-) How does the passage describe the outward appearance of life's passing moments?

They seem to disappear and decay.

3-) What is received in the second profit?

The reward of Paradise.

4-) According to the passage, why may a sinful person run toward intoxicants or empty entertainment?

To escape the distress and inner hurt caused by a misused intellect.

5-) What is the best use of the intellect according to the passage?

To use it for Allah so that it uncovers the mercy and wisdom in creation and guides a person to eternal happiness.

6-) What is wrong with using the tongue only for food and appetite?

It reduces a noble gift to a low service of bodily craving.

7-) What contrast does the passage draw between two ways of using human abilities?

One way ruins them and lowers them, while the other way elevates them and gives them noble purpose.

8-) What causes the unbeliever to lose true worth?

Betraying that trust by using it for selfish desire.

9-) What happens if a person carries life's burden without trust in Allah?

The person becomes troubled inside and is overwhelmed by useless suffering and regret.

10-) When will the reward of worship be especially valuable, according to the passage?

It will be especially valuable when a person is in the greatest need of it.

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How many benefits are explained in this passage?

Five benefits.

2-) How does the passage challenge the idea that death makes all effort useless?

It teaches that deeds done for Allah continue into everlasting reward.

3-) What is the third profit mainly about?

Human faculties greatly increase in worth when they are used for Allah.

4-) What does the intellect become when used for Allah's sake?

It becomes a means of understanding the mercy and wisdom placed in creation.

5-) How is the eye degraded when it is used for the lower self?

It becomes a tool for lust by following passing beauty.

6-) What low use of the tongue is criticized in the passage?

Using it only to satisfy bodily appetite.

7-) What difference between a believer and an unbeliever is drawn from these examples?

The believer uses Allah's trust faithfully, while the unbeliever misuses it for the lower self.

8-) What does the fourth profit say about the human condition?

Human beings are helpless, poor in resources, weak, and heavily burdened.

9-) What is the fifth profit connected to?

The reward of worship done through one's body parts and faculties.

10-) Who confirms this truth according to the passage?

Spiritually enlightened people and truthful witnesses of reality.

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the central theme of the section about the five profits?

Using one's life and abilities for Allah brings major spiritual benefits.

2-) Besides the eternal world, where else do the deeds of this life show a good result according to the passage?

They also show a bright and comforting result in the intermediate state after death.

3-) What is the second profit mentioned?

Receiving Paradise as the price.

4-) What does this harmful use of intellect do to a person's well-being?

It weakens the person and drives him or her toward unhealthy escape.

5-) What happens to the eye when it is used only to chase passing beauty and desire?

It falls into serving lust and the lower self.

6-) How is the tongue misused when it serves only the stomach?

It is reduced to a low function centered only on appetite.

7-) What determines whether a person develops a Paradise-worthy nature or a Hell-worthy nature?

Whether that person uses Allah's trust faithfully or betrays it for the lower self.

8-) What is the fourth gain described in the passage?

Trusting in Allah frees a person from being crushed by weakness, need, and the hardships of life.

9-) What happens if a person tries to carry life alone without that trust?

The person remains inwardly disturbed and suffers pointless pain and regret.

10-) Why is the phrase "time of greatest need" important in the fifth profit?

It shows that the reward will come when a person most urgently needs help and benefit.

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say happens to worldly things when they are used for Allah?

They gain lasting meaning and become connected to eternal reward.

2-) What natural example helps explain how temporary actions can lead to lasting outcomes?

The example of seeds that seem to decay but later bring forth growth and beauty.

3-) What is being increased in value in the third profit?

Each limb, sense, and human faculty.

4-) What kind of tool does the intellect become when used rightly?

It becomes a means of opening up understanding of creation's mercy and wisdom.

5-) What is the role of the eye when it is used properly?

It becomes a way of reading the signs of Allah in the world.

6-) What honorable role does the tongue have when used for Allah?

It becomes a thankful means of recognizing divine provision and compassion.

7-) What gives the believer a nature suited for Paradise?

Faithful use of Allah's trust according to His commands.

8-) What human realities are highlighted in the fourth benefit?

Human helplessness, poverty, weakness, and heavy responsibilities.

9-) What kind of spiritual decline can follow from lacking trust in Allah?

A person can fall into a low and degraded state.

10-) Why does the passage emphasize "greatest need" when speaking of reward?

To show that the reward will come at the most critical and urgent moment for the person.

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the first profit teach about things that do not last in this world?

They can become a source of everlasting benefit if they are used for Allah.

2-) What does the passage suggest about actions that seem to vanish? They may appear to disappear, but they can become sources of eternal joy and blessing.

3-) What example is given first to explain the third gain?

The example of the mind or intellect.

4-) What two time directions especially trouble the misused intellect?

The past and the future.

5-) What does the eye become if used only for passing worldly attractions?

It becomes a servant of lust and selfish desire.

6-) What happens to the tongue and taste when they are used only for appetite?

They drop to a low function, serving only bodily desire.

7-) What should the reader do with the examples given?

The reader should compare all other faculties to them and draw the same lesson.

8-) What truth about human beings introduces the fourth profit?

Human beings are weak, needy, and vulnerable to many hardships.

9-) What is the fifth gain described in the passage?

The worship done through one's body and abilities will return as the fruits of Paradise at the time of greatest need.

10-) Why is this reward especially encouraging?

Because it will be given exactly when a person needs it most.

11sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first of the five profits?

A temporary life becomes lasting in outcome when it is given to Allah and used for Him.

2-) What comparison from plant life is used to explain this?

The comparison of seeds that disappear into the ground but later produce growth.

3-) What happens to the intellect if it serves only the lower self?

It becomes a source of torment by stirring grief over the past and fear of the future.

4-) What does the intellect become when returned to its true purpose?

It becomes a key for understanding the treasures of mercy and wisdom in creation.

5-) What honorable function does the eye have when directed toward Allah's purposes?

It serves as a way to observe the signs and wonders of Allah in the world.

6-) What raises the rank of the tongue and taste?

Using them with gratitude toward Allah's provision and mercy.

7-) What kind of nature does an unbeliever gain from misuse of them?

A nature suited for Hell.

8-) What is the proper response to that condition according to the passage?

To rely on Allah, trust Him, and submit to Him confidently.

9-) What kind of emotional suffering is described for a person who lacks trust in Allah?

The person feels overwhelmed, inwardly choked by suffering, and spiritually confused.

10-) When will this promised reward be given?

At the time when a person has the greatest need for it.