

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 1

1-) What dangerous place does the man enter after running from the beast? (7 kelime)

He

2-) What stops his fall in the middle of the well? (10 kelime)

He catches

3-) What does the man see at the top of the well? (5 kelime)

A

4-) What kind of creatures are around the walls of the well? (4 kelime)

Poisonous

5-) Why is the tree unusual? (13 kelime)

It carries many

6-) What keeps him from reaching that understanding? (4 kelime)

His

7-) How does his lower self respond instead? (12 kelime)

It acts like

8-) Why is eating the fruit a bad response in this moment? (15 kelime)

Because he chases

9-) What lesson is connected to the sacred hadith mentioned in the passage? (12 kelime)

A person is

10-) What mistaken conclusion does the man reach about what he sees? (9 kelime)

He thinks

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 2

1-) In what kind of landscape does the man find himself before the attack? (8 kelime)

He is

2-) What position is he left in after falling? (9 kelime)

He is

3-) What detail about the well shows how serious his danger is? (12 kelime)

It is very

4-) Why would the fruit tree make a thoughtful person stop and reflect? (10 kelime)

Because one

5-) What spiritual mistake does his lower self make? (11 kelime)

It ignores

6-) What signs within the man show that he knows, deep down, that his state is terrible? (11 kelime)

His heart,

7-) What does the hadith add to the meaning of the story at this point? (13 kelime)

It shows that

8-) Why is the fruit not a true solution to his problem? (16 kelime)

It gives brief distraction

9-) Why is foolishness emphasized so strongly in this passage? (13 kelime)

Because his suffering

10-) What result does this misunderstanding bring him? (9 kelime)

He remains

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 3

1-) List the main threats surrounding the man in the well. (17 kelime)

A lion above, a

2-) Why does the man jump into the well? (7 kelime)

He

3-) What shows that the scene is not being presented as random? (13 kelime)

The passage says

4-) What makes the dragon especially terrifying? (13 kelime)

It rises from

5-) What does his lower self choose to do instead of reflecting? (13 kelime)

It shuts out

6-) What truth about the situation does the man fail to recognize? (15 kelime)

He fails to

7-) According to the passage, what connection exists between a servant's view of Allah and his experience? (11 kelime)

His experience

8-) How is the man's foolishness shown in a practical way? (9 kelime)

He starts

9-) How does the man misread reality at the end of the passage? (9 kelime)

He accepts

10-) What final condition does this lead to? (11 kelime)

He remains

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 4

1-) How does the man try to escape the lion? (11 kelime)

He runs

2-) What are the two animals doing to the tree? (7 kelime)

They

3-) How close does the dragon come to him? (7 kelime)

It

4-) What else on the sides of the well makes his situation worse? (7 kelime)

Harmful

5-) What should the man have understood about this strange scene? (13 kelime)

He should have

6-) How do his heart, spirit, and mind react inwardly to his condition? (7 kelime)

They

7-) In what way does the lower self silence the truth about his condition? (9 kelime)

It ignores

8-) What is important about some of the fruit he eats? (7 kelime)

Some

9-) What is meant by saying he is treated in line with his understanding? (17 kelime)

Since he insists on

10-) Why does the narrator leave this man at the end of the passage? (11 kelime)

To return

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 5

1-) What sequence of events leads the man into the well? (15 kelime)

A lion appears,

2-) About how far down does he fall before stopping? (7 kelime)

He

3-) What danger affects the very thing he is depending on for support?
(10 kelime)

Two rats

4-) What is the man's main intellectual mistake? (12 kelime)

He treats an

5-) Who is implied to be behind the strange events? (5 kelime)

A

6-) Why is his eating of the fruit more than just a physical action? (10
kelime)

It shows

7-) What does his behavior teach about the danger of heedlessness?
(11 kelime)

A heedless

8-) What mood does the passage create by the end of this scene? (8
kelime)

A mood

9-) What main idea does the hadith communicate here? (10 kelime)
A servant's

10-) What is the passage preparing the reader to do next by ending this way? (13 kelime)
It is preparing

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 6

1-) What image begins the main crisis of the passage? (9 kelime)

A lion

2-) How does the passage contrast the man's inner reality with his outward behavior? (15 kelime)

Inside he is

3-) What is happening to the tree's roots? (11 kelime)

A white

4-) Why is the fig tree especially striking in this scene? (14 kelime)

It bears many

5-) What makes the tree different from a normal fig tree? (10 kelime)

It bears

6-) What warning can a student take from the poisonous fruit? (9 kelime)

Something attractive

7-) What does his lower self do with those inner warnings? (7 kelime)

It

8-) What does the statement that he neither dies nor lives suggest? (10 kelime)

It suggests

9-) How does the man view what is happening to him? (13 kelime)
He thinks it

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What dangerous place does the man enter after running from the beast?

He jumps into a deep dry well.

2-) What stops his fall in the middle of the well?

He catches hold of a tree growing from the wall.

3-) What does the man see at the top of the well?

A lion waiting above him.

4-) What kind of creatures are around the walls of the well?

Poisonous and stinging vermin.

5-) Why is the tree unusual?

It carries many different kinds of fruit even though it is one tree.

6-) What keeps him from reaching that understanding?

His thoughtlessness and foolishness.

7-) How does his lower self respond instead?

It acts like everything is fine and distracts him with the fruit.

8-) Why is eating the fruit a bad response in this moment?

Because he chases pleasure while surrounded by danger and ignores the reality of his state.

9-) What lesson is connected to the sacred hadith mentioned in the passage?

A person is dealt with according to how he thinks of Allah.

10-) What mistaken conclusion does the man reach about what he sees?

He thinks the outward appearance is the full reality.

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In what kind of landscape does the man find himself before the attack?

He is in a lonely and empty wilderness.

2-) What position is he left in after falling?

He is hanging halfway down, holding onto a tree.

3-) What detail about the well shows how serious his danger is?

It is very deep and has threats above, below, and around him.

4-) Why would the fruit tree make a thoughtful person stop and reflect?

Because one tree producing many kinds of fruit is extraordinary.

5-) What spiritual mistake does his lower self make?

It ignores inner warnings and chooses temporary pleasure instead of understanding.

6-) What signs within the man show that he knows, deep down, that his state is terrible?

His heart, spirit, and mind are inwardly crying out in distress.

7-) What does the hadith add to the meaning of the story at this point?

It shows that a person's attitude toward Allah affects how his condition unfolds.

8-) Why is the fruit not a true solution to his problem?

It gives brief distraction but does nothing to save him, and some of it is harmful.

9-) Why is foolishness emphasized so strongly in this passage?

Because his suffering is increased by his failure to think and understand correctly.

10-) What result does this misunderstanding bring him?

He remains stuck in suffering without rescue or relief.

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) List the main threats surrounding the man in the well.

A lion above, a dragon below, poisonous creatures on the sides, and rats cutting through the roots.

2-) Why does the man jump into the well?

He is trying to escape the lion.

3-) What shows that the scene is not being presented as random?

The passage says there are hidden meanings and a powerful director behind it.

4-) What makes the dragon especially terrifying?

It rises from below with a huge mouth and comes very near him.

5-) What does his lower self choose to do instead of reflecting?

It shuts out the cries of his inner being and goes after pleasure.

6-) What truth about the situation does the man fail to recognize?

He fails to see that the scene holds hidden wisdom and is under deliberate control.

7-) According to the passage, what connection exists between a servant's view of Allah and his experience?

His experience matches the way he approaches and expects from Allah.

8-) How is the man's foolishness shown in a practical way?

He starts eating fruit while trapped in extreme danger.

9-) How does the man misread reality at the end of the passage?

He accepts the surface appearance as the whole truth.

10-) What final condition does this lead to?

He remains in a state of painful misery, unable to escape.

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the man try to escape the lion?

He runs away and throws himself into a deep dry well.

2-) What are the two animals doing to the tree?

They are chewing through its two roots.

3-) How close does the dragon come to him?

It raises its head near his foot.

4-) What else on the sides of the well makes his situation worse?

Harmful stinging creatures are gathered around him.

5-) What should the man have understood about this strange scene?

He should have understood that it points to hidden meanings and wise control.

6-) How do his heart, spirit, and mind react inwardly to his condition?

They are in deep pain and distress.

7-) In what way does the lower self silence the truth about his condition?

It ignores the inner cries and turns to enjoyment.

8-) What is important about some of the fruit he eats?

Some of it is harmful and poisonous.

9-) What is meant by saying he is treated in line with his understanding?

Since he insists on a blind and shallow view, he remains under the consequences of that view.

10-) Why does the narrator leave this man at the end of the passage?

To return and reflect on the condition of the other brother.

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What sequence of events leads the man into the well?

A lion appears, he runs in fear, and then he jumps into the dry well.

2-) About how far down does he fall before stopping?

He stops around halfway down the well.

3-) What danger affects the very thing he is depending on for support?

Two rats are wearing away the roots of the tree.

4-) What is the man's main intellectual mistake?

He treats an extraordinary situation as if it were ordinary and meaningless.

5-) Who is implied to be behind the strange events?

A powerful being directing them.

6-) Why is his eating of the fruit more than just a physical action?

It shows moral carelessness and being deceived by immediate desire.

7-) What does his behavior teach about the danger of heedlessness?

A heedless person may ignore warnings and choose what harms him.

8-) What mood does the passage create by the end of this scene?

A mood of trapped misery, fear, and hopelessness.

9-) What main idea does the hadith communicate here?

A servant's opinion and expectation of Allah are spiritually significant.

10-) What is the passage preparing the reader to do next by ending this way?

It is preparing the reader to compare this man with the other brother.

11sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What image begins the main crisis of the passage?

A lion suddenly comes out and threatens the man.

2-) How does the passage contrast the man's inner reality with his outward behavior?

Inside he is in anguish, but outwardly he acts as if he can enjoy himself.

3-) What is happening to the tree's roots?

A white rat and a black rat are chewing through them.

4-) Why is the fig tree especially striking in this scene?

It bears many kinds of fruit that would not normally come from one tree.

5-) What makes the tree different from a normal fig tree?

It bears many kinds of fruit instead of only one.

6-) What warning can a student take from the poisonous fruit?

Something attractive can still be spiritually or morally harmful.

7-) What does his lower self do with those inner warnings?

It ignores them and turns toward pleasure.

8-) What does the statement that he neither dies nor lives suggest?

It suggests a state of ongoing suffering with no peace.

9-) How does the man view what is happening to him?

He thinks it is all normal and exactly what it seems to be.