

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 1

1-) What is the main difference between the second brother and the first one at the beginning of the passage? (26 kelime)

The second brother is wise and

2-) What does he seem to understand about structure and discipline? (12 kelime)

He sees them

3-) How does the second brother pass that same test? (17 kelime)

He pays attention to

4-) Why is he less terrified than his brother even though he faces the same danger? (20 kelime)

He thinks positively and believes

5-) What desperate action does he take next? (6 kelime)

He

6-) What is his first major inference about the strange events? (16 kelime)

He concludes that they

7-) What comes after love in his inner development? (19 kelime)

He wants to understand

8-) What does he infer about the host or ruler from the tree's many fruits? (15 kelime)

He infers that

9-) Once he reaches that understanding, what happens to his emotional state? (11 kelime)

His fear

10-) What lesson is introduced in the closing lines of the passage? (23 kelime)

The reader is invited to

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 2

1-) How is the second traveler described in terms of character and outcome? (16 kelime)

He is presented as

2-) How does he view the world around him as he travels? (9 kelime)

He sees

3-) What wiser choice does the second brother make there? (13 kelime)

He benefits from

4-) What major danger meets him in the desert? (5 kelime)

A

5-) Where does he end up while escaping? (12 kelime)

He ends up

6-) What does he decide about the connection among these strange events? (11 kelime)

He decides

7-) What new desire grows out of his curiosity? (9 kelime)

He wants

8-) What feature of the tree persuades him that there is a hidden design? (16 kelime)

The tree bears many

9-) What attitudes are included in his prayer besides asking for help?
(10 kelime)
He shows

10-) What central moral does the speaker prepare the reader to notice by comparing the brothers? (19 kelime)
A person's moral state

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 3

1-) What qualities make the second brother “fortunate” in this passage? (12 kelime)

His intelligence, good

2-) How did the first brother react to a similar garden? (17 kelime)

He focused on what

3-) What does this difference teach about human choice? (16 kelime)

It teaches that people

4-) What is the difference between fear and hopeless panic in his response to the lion? (25 kelime)

He still feels fear, but he

5-) Is his situation outwardly different from his brother’s at that moment? (14 kelime)

No, outwardly it

6-) What does he conclude from the orderliness of the strange scene? (9 kelime)

He concludes

7-) What does he think is the possible purpose behind his difficult journey? (12 kelime)

He thinks he

8-) How does this realization affect his fear? (16 kelime)

It removes his fear

9-) How does he address the ruler in his supplication? (16 kelime)

He speaks with humility,

10-) How does the lion's transformation deepen the meaning of the story? (16 kelime)

Something once feared becomes

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 4

1-) What inner trait keeps the second brother from suffering like the first one? (15 kelime)

His sound character

2-) Why does he find obedience easier than the other brother did? (15 kelime)

He accepts the

3-) How does this contrast with the first brother's approach? (17 kelime)

The first brother let

4-) What belief helps him interpret the lion differently from his brother? (20 kelime)

He believes there is a

5-) What details in the well make the scene terrifying? (15 kelime)

The roots are

6-) What does he understand about the strange events around him? (10 kelime)

He understands

7-) What emotion grows from his wish to know the hidden ruler? (5 kelime)

Love

8-) What purpose does he see in the unusual tree? (15 kelime)

He sees it

9-) What does he do next to seek fuller understanding? (10 kelime)

He makes

10-) What is the significance of the lion becoming a gentle riding animal? (13 kelime)

What looked like

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 5

1-) In this passage, what makes the second brother “intelligent” rather than merely lucky? (15 kelime)

He uses sound

2-) What does the garden contain that makes it a test of perception? (9 kelime)

It contains

3-) What result comes from this way of looking at things? (10 kelime)

He gains

4-) What thought stops him from sinking into total panic? (13 kelime)

He believes the

5-) Why does the passage emphasize that the scene is as strange for him as it was for his brother? (18 kelime)

It shows that the

6-) What does he think that hidden ruler may be doing with him? (16 kelime)

He thinks he is

7-) What sequence of responses follows his curiosity? (18 kelime)

Curiosity leads to love,

8-) Why does seeing many fruits on one tree become a turning point? (16 kelime)

It convinces him that

9-) What happens immediately after his supplication? (15 kelime)

The well opens,

10-) What does this transformation suggest about appearances? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 6

1-) How is the second brother's journey shaped by his inner life? (14 kelime)

His good inner

2-) What does the garden teach about the world he is moving through? (14 kelime)

It teaches that

3-) Why was his brother unable to rest in a similar place? (16 kelime)

He gave his attention

4-) What belief lets him keep some inner balance even while fleeing? (16 kelime)

He believes the lion

5-) What threatening elements surround him in the well? (19 kelime)

He is hanging by

6-) What four ideas does he form about the hidden ruler's relationship to him? (17 kelime)

He thinks the ruler

7-) What desire rises in him once he starts wondering about the hidden ruler? (6 kelime)

He

8-) How does he interpret the fruits on the tree? (12 kelime)

He sees them

9-) What change happens in the setting after the prayer? (10 kelime)
The threatening

10-) How are the dragon and lion redefined by the end of the scene?
(15 kelime)
They are no

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main difference between the second brother and the first one at the beginning of the passage?

The second brother is wise and fortunate, and he does not suffer inner distress like the first brother because he has good character and good thoughts.

2-) What does he seem to understand about structure and discipline? He sees them as part of a beneficial order, not as oppression.

3-) How does the second brother pass that same test?

He pays attention to what is beneficial and does not let the ugly parts dominate his thinking.

4-) Why is he less terrified than his brother even though he faces the same danger?

He thinks positively and believes the lion may be under the command of a ruler, so he feels some reassurance.

5-) What desperate action does he take next?

He jumps into a deep well.

6-) What is his first major inference about the strange events?

He concludes that they must be tied to a commanding power and are not happening aimlessly.

7-) What comes after love in his inner development?

He wants to understand the mystery and then wants to gain qualities that would please the one behind it.

8-) What does he infer about the host or ruler from the tree's many fruits?

He infers that the ruler has prepared many provisions and is showing samples of them.

9-) Once he reaches that understanding, what happens to his emotional state?

His fear disappears because he now sees wisdom, care, and purpose.

10-) What lesson is introduced in the closing lines of the passage?

The reader is invited to compare the two brothers and see that good leads to good results while evil leads to harmful results.

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How is the second traveler described in terms of character and outcome?

He is presented as intelligent and fortunate, showing that his inner qualities shape a better outcome.

2-) How does he view the world around him as he travels?

He sees it as familiar and not fundamentally hostile.

3-) What wiser choice does the second brother make there?

He benefits from the good and refuses to be trapped by the bad.

4-) What major danger meets him in the desert?

A lion rushes at him.

5-) Where does he end up while escaping?

He ends up hanging in a deep well after jumping into it.

6-) What does he decide about the connection among these strange events?

He decides they are coordinated and under command rather than random.

7-) What new desire grows out of his curiosity?

He wants to know the one behind the mystery.

8-) What feature of the tree persuades him that there is a hidden design?

The tree bears many kinds of fruit in a way that is clearly beyond ordinary nature.

9-) What attitudes are included in his prayer besides asking for help?

He shows dependence, loyalty, obedience, and the wish to please.

10-) What central moral does the speaker prepare the reader to notice by comparing the brothers?

A person's moral state and way of thinking lead either to blessing and peace or to harm and misery.

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What qualities make the second brother “fortunate” in this passage?

His intelligence, good morals, and hopeful way of thinking make him fortunate.

2-) How did the first brother react to a similar garden?

He focused on what was ugly and disgusting, became disturbed, and left without benefiting from the place.

3-) What does this difference teach about human choice?

It teaches that people choose where to place their attention, and that choice affects their state.

4-) What is the difference between fear and hopeless panic in his response to the lion?

He still feels fear, but he does not fall into despair because he believes the danger may have a meaningful place in a larger order.

5-) Is his situation outwardly different from his brother’s at that moment?

No, outwardly it is almost the same, but his inner response is very different.

6-) What does he conclude from the orderliness of the strange scene?

He concludes that a hidden ruler is arranging it.

7-) What does he think is the possible purpose behind his difficult journey?

He thinks he is being tested and guided somewhere for a reason.

8-) How does this realization affect his fear?

It removes his fear because he now sees wisdom and purpose behind what he is experiencing.

9-) How does he address the ruler in his supplication?

He speaks with humility, asks for refuge, offers service, and expresses a desire to win approval.

10-) How does the lion’s transformation deepen the meaning of the story?

Something once feared becomes a source of service and ease, showing that appearances can hide mercy.

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What inner trait keeps the second brother from suffering like the first one?

His sound character keeps his thoughts healthy and protects him from the same inward collapse.

2-) Why does he find obedience easier than the other brother did?

He accepts the order already present and goes along with it instead of resisting it.

3-) How does this contrast with the first brother's approach?

The first brother let the unpleasant side control his reaction and missed the good that was there.

4-) What belief helps him interpret the lion differently from his brother?

He believes there is a ruler over the desert and that the lion may be carrying out that ruler's command.

5-) What details in the well make the scene terrifying?

The roots are being chewed through, a lion waits above, and a dragon is below.

6-) What does he understand about the strange events around him?

He understands that they are linked and acting under command.

7-) What emotion grows from his wish to know the hidden ruler?

Love grows from that wish.

8-) What purpose does he see in the unusual tree?

He sees it as a display of samples pointing to many gifts prepared for guests.

9-) What does he do next to seek fuller understanding?

He makes a sincere prayer asking for help and refuge.

10-) What is the significance of the lion becoming a gentle riding animal?

What looked like a deadly enemy is turned into something useful and manageable.

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what makes the second brother “intelligent” rather than merely lucky?

He uses sound judgment, thinks well, and reads meaning into events instead of reacting blindly.

2-) What does the garden contain that makes it a test of perception? It contains both attractive things and decayed, dirty things.

3-) What result comes from this way of looking at things?

He gains benefit, finds rest, and continues his journey peacefully.

4-) What thought stops him from sinking into total panic?

He believes the lion may be under the authority of the desert’s ruler.

5-) Why does the passage emphasize that the scene is as strange for him as it was for his brother?

It shows that the main difference is not the scene itself but the way each brother understands it.

6-) What does he think that hidden ruler may be doing with him?

He thinks he is being watched, tested, led somewhere for a purpose, and invited toward something.

7-) What sequence of responses follows his curiosity?

Curiosity leads to love, love leads to seeking the mystery’s meaning, and that leads to wanting noble qualities.

8-) Why does seeing many fruits on one tree become a turning point?

It convinces him that the scene is arranged intentionally and cannot be explained as ordinary nature.

9-) What happens immediately after his supplication?

The well opens, a doorway appears, and it leads to a beautiful and peaceful garden.

10-) What does this transformation suggest about appearances?

It suggests that what seems harmful may hide mercy when seen rightly.

11sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How is the second brother's journey shaped by his inner life?

His good inner life shapes the journey into something more peaceful, meaningful, and hopeful.

2-) What does the garden teach about the world he is moving through?

It teaches that good and unpleasant things can exist together in the same place.

3-) Why was his brother unable to rest in a similar place?

He gave his attention to corruption and filth, which made him uncomfortable and drove him away.

4-) What belief lets him keep some inner balance even while fleeing?

He believes the lion may be acting under the authority of a ruler over the place.

5-) What threatening elements surround him in the well?

He is hanging by a tree whose roots are being chewed, with a lion above and a dragon below.

6-) What four ideas does he form about the hidden ruler's relationship to him?

He thinks the ruler sees him, tests him, directs him toward a goal, and calls him onward.

7-) What desire rises in him once he starts wondering about the hidden ruler?

He wants to know the ruler.

8-) How does he interpret the fruits on the tree?

He sees them as samples or signs pointing to other prepared gifts.

9-) What change happens in the setting after the prayer?

The threatening place opens into a peaceful and delightful garden.

10-) How are the dragon and lion redefined by the end of the scene?

They are no longer enemies but servants, and the lion even becomes useful for travel.