

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 1

1-) What three main things are included in the meaning of the prayers in this passage? (9 kelime)

They include

2-) How is glorifying Allah described in relation to prayer? (14 kelime)

It is shown

3-) What does saying that Allah is the Greatest express? (9 kelime)

It expresses

4-) How is praise connected to gratitude in the passage? (20 kelime)

Praise is presented as giving

5-) What does the passage mean by calling glorification, exaltation, and praise the seeds of prayer? (17 kelime)

It means these three

6-) Why are these three meanings found throughout all parts of the prayer? (19 kelime)

Because they are the

7-) Why are the blessed phrases repeated thirty-three times after the prayer? (16 kelime)

They are repeated to

8-) What does the passage teach about worship with the body, not only the tongue? (17 kelime)

It teaches that prayer

9-) What is the main idea of the whole passage? (26 kelime)

The whole passage explains that prayer

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 2

1-) According to the passage, what is the overall purpose of the prayers? (11 kelime)

Their purpose

2-) In the passage, how should glorification be offered? (12 kelime)

It should be

3-) What quality of Allah is especially connected with the phrase that declares Him the Greatest? (7 kelime)

It

4-) Which parts of a human being are mentioned in giving praise and thanks? (10 kelime)

The heart,

5-) What relationship does the passage show between beauty and praise? (11 kelime)

It shows

6-) Why does the passage compare the three meanings to seeds? (18 kelime)

Because seeds are the

7-) What does the presence of these meanings in every action and word of prayer suggest? (17 kelime)

It suggests that prayer

8-) What is the purpose of repeating short phrases after the formal prayer ends? (14 kelime)

The purpose is

9-) How does the ending of the passage sum up the role of those repeated phrases? (14 kelime)

It shows that

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 3

1-) What three responses to Allah are named as the meaning of prayer? (8 kelime)

They are

2-) How does the passage explain worshipping Allah through glorification? (15 kelime)

It explains it

3-) In this passage, what does exalting Allah involve? (13 kelime)

It involves recognizing

4-) How is gratitude shown in a complete way according to the passage? (12 kelime)

It is shown

5-) Why is it important that these meanings appear in every part of the prayer? (18 kelime)

Because prayer is meant

6-) What practical reason is given for repeating these phrases after prayer? (15 kelime)

The repetition helps

7-) What does the word “concise summaries” suggest about the repeated phrases? (18 kelime)

It suggests that a

8-) What is one strong central lesson of the passage for a Muslim student? (20 kelime)
Salah is not just a

9-) What is the most important message a reader should take from this passage? (23 kelime)
The most important message is

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say prayer offers to Allah? (6 kelime)
It

2-) How are speech and action linked in the passage's description of prayer? (20 kelime)
Both are shown as ways

3-) Which divine quality is connected most directly with glorification in the passage? (10 kelime)
Allah's greatness

4-) Which divine quality is connected with declaring Allah the Greatest? (10 kelime)
His complete

5-) Which divine quality is connected with saying all praise belongs to Allah? (10 kelime)
His perfect

6-) Why does the passage call these three qualities the seeds of prayer rather than its final results? (17 kelime)
Because they are the

7-) What does the passage teach about the structure of salah? (17 kelime)
It teaches that the

8-) What can we infer from the passage about the balance between inner and outer worship? (14 kelime)

True prayer includes

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 5

1-) According to the passage, what basic meanings form the heart of prayer? (17 kelime)

The heart of prayer

2-) How is glorification different from praise in this passage? (14 kelime)

Glorification focuses on

3-) How is exalting Allah different from the other two meanings? (10 kelime)

It especially

4-) What does the passage include along with the tongue in offering thanks? (11 kelime)

It includes

5-) Why is it significant that prayer includes action as well as words? (13 kelime)

It shows that

6-) What does the image of seeds help the reader understand? (19 kelime)

It helps the reader

7-) How do we know these meanings are not limited to one section of prayer? (13 kelime)

The passage says

8-) What reason is given for repeating the blessed words thirty-three times? (12 kelime)

The reason is

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 6

1-) What does the passage identify as the meaning of the prayers? (11 kelime)

It identifies

2-) How does the passage describe honoring Allah's loftiness? (15 kelime)

It describes it

3-) What is being recognized when a worshipper says that Allah is the Greatest? (10 kelime)

The worshipper

4-) In the passage, what makes praise more than just words? (14 kelime)

Praise becomes more

5-) What does it mean that these three are in every part of prayer? (15 kelime)

It means the

6-) Why are short repeated phrases used after prayer instead of only long explanations? (18 kelime)

Because brief phrases can

7-) What is the effect of repetition according to the passage? (7 kelime)

Repetition

8-) What broad understanding of salah does this passage build? (17 kelime)

It builds the understanding

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What three main things are included in the meaning of the prayers in this passage?

They include glorifying Allah, praising Him, and thanking Him.

2-) How is glorifying Allah described in relation to prayer?

It is shown as honoring Allah's greatness and holiness through both speech and actions.

3-) What does saying that Allah is the Greatest express?

It expresses recognizing His complete perfection and magnifying Him.

4-) How is praise connected to gratitude in the passage?

Praise is presented as giving thanks to Allah with one's heart, words, and bodily actions because of His perfect beauty.

5-) What does the passage mean by calling glorification, exaltation, and praise the seeds of prayer?

It means these three are the basic core from which the whole prayer grows and takes meaning.

6-) Why are these three meanings found throughout all parts of the prayer?

Because they are the foundation of prayer, so they appear in its words and movements from beginning to end.

7-) Why are the blessed phrases repeated thirty-three times after the prayer?

They are repeated to deepen, strengthen, and remind a person of the main meanings of prayer.

8-) What does the passage teach about worship with the body, not only the tongue?

It teaches that prayer is not only spoken; its physical acts also show glorification, greatness, and thankfulness.

9-) What is the main idea of the whole passage?

The whole passage explains that prayer is built on glorifying Allah, exalting Him, and thanking Him, and that these meanings appear in all of its parts.

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what is the overall purpose of the prayers?

Their purpose is to present glorification, praise, and thanks to Allah.

2-) In the passage, how should glorification be offered?

It should be offered through both words and actions before Allah's majesty.

3-) What quality of Allah is especially connected with the phrase that declares Him the Greatest?

It is connected with His absolute perfection.

4-) Which parts of a human being are mentioned in giving praise and thanks?

The heart, the tongue, and the body are all mentioned.

5-) What relationship does the passage show between beauty and praise?

It shows that Allah's complete beauty calls for praise and gratitude.

6-) Why does the passage compare the three meanings to seeds?

Because seeds are the beginning of growth, and these meanings are the starting point of the whole prayer.

7-) What does the presence of these meanings in every action and word of prayer suggest?

It suggests that prayer is fully shaped by these meanings, not just one small part of it.

8-) What is the purpose of repeating short phrases after the formal prayer ends?

The purpose is to confirm and reinforce the meanings already contained in the prayer.

9-) How does the ending of the passage sum up the role of those repeated phrases?

It shows that they act like brief summaries that confirm the meaning of prayer.

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What three responses to Allah are named as the meaning of prayer?

They are glorification, exaltation, and praise with thanks.

2-) How does the passage explain worshipping Allah through glorification?

It explains it as declaring His holiness and honoring His greatness through speech and deeds.

3-) In this passage, what does exalting Allah involve?

It involves recognizing His unmatched perfection and magnifying Him in words and actions.

4-) How is gratitude shown in a complete way according to the passage?

It is shown inwardly and outwardly, with feelings, speech, and physical behavior.

5-) Why is it important that these meanings appear in every part of the prayer?

Because prayer is meant to be filled with these meanings at every stage, not treated as separate ideas.

6-) What practical reason is given for repeating these phrases after prayer?

The repetition helps make the meanings firmer and keeps them alive in the worshipper's mind.

7-) What does the word "concise summaries" suggest about the repeated phrases?

It suggests that a few short expressions can gather and restate the larger meaning of the entire prayer.

8-) What is one strong central lesson of the passage for a Muslim student?

Salah is not just a set of movements and recitations; it is a full expression of honoring and thanking Allah.

9-) What is the most important message a reader should take from this passage?

The most important message is that prayer is deeply meaningful because every part of it points back to honoring, magnifying, and thanking Allah.

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say prayer offers to Allah?

It offers glorification, praise, and thanks.

2-) How are speech and action linked in the passage's description of prayer?

Both are shown as ways of expressing worship, so prayer involves what a person says and what a person does.

3-) Which divine quality is connected most directly with glorification in the passage?

Allah's greatness and highness are connected most directly with glorification.

4-) Which divine quality is connected with declaring Allah the Greatest? His complete and flawless perfection is connected with that declaration.

5-) Which divine quality is connected with saying all praise belongs to Allah?

His perfect beauty is connected with that praise and thankfulness.

6-) Why does the passage call these three qualities the seeds of prayer rather than its final results?

Because they are the starting elements that give life and meaning to the whole act of prayer.

7-) What does the passage teach about the structure of salah?

It teaches that the structure of salah is built around glorifying Allah, magnifying Him, and thanking Him.

8-) What can we infer from the passage about the balance between inner and outer worship?

True prayer includes both inner feelings and outward expressions, not one without the other.

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what basic meanings form the heart of prayer?

The heart of prayer is made up of glorifying Allah, exalting Him, and praising Him with gratitude.

2-) How is glorification different from praise in this passage?

Glorification focuses on Allah's majesty and holiness, while praise emphasizes thankfulness before His beauty.

3-) How is exalting Allah different from the other two meanings?

It especially centers on recognizing His absolute perfection and greatness.

4-) What does the passage include along with the tongue in offering thanks?

It includes the heart and the body along with the tongue.

5-) Why is it significant that prayer includes action as well as words?

It shows that worship should involve the whole person, not only spoken recitation.

6-) What does the image of seeds help the reader understand?

It helps the reader understand that these three meanings are the source from which all parts of prayer develop.

7-) How do we know these meanings are not limited to one section of prayer?

The passage says they are present in all of its words and movements.

8-) What reason is given for repeating the blessed words thirty-three times?

The reason is to reinforce and restate the meanings of the prayer.

11sinif short-words-p35-ninth-word-first-point-the-meaning-of-prayer - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage identify as the meaning of the prayers?

It identifies them as offering glorification, praise, and thanks to Allah.

2-) How does the passage describe honoring Allah's loftiness?

It describes it as glorifying Him through speech and actions in a spirit of worship.

3-) What is being recognized when a worshipper says that Allah is the Greatest?

The worshipper is recognizing Allah's perfect greatness and exalting Him.

4-) In the passage, what makes praise more than just words?

Praise becomes more than words because it also includes inner feeling and bodily action.

5-) What does it mean that these three are in every part of prayer?

It means the whole prayer consistently carries those meanings in all its recitations and movements.

6-) Why are short repeated phrases used after prayer instead of only long explanations?

Because brief phrases can gather the main meanings clearly and help fix them in the mind and heart.

7-) What is the effect of repetition according to the passage?

Repetition strengthens the meaning and confirms it.

8-) What broad understanding of salah does this passage build?

It builds the understanding that salah is a meaningful act of whole-person worship centered on Allah alone.