

1 In the comparison, who does the ruler stand for?	2 How is the ruler described in terms of belief?	3 In the passage, what does the royal estate represent?	4 What destination is placed before the reader as the true homeland?
11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
5 According to the passage, why do people move through that journey at different levels?	6 Why is the prayer compared to something that allows travel?	7 Why is it described as a serious loss to spend almost the whole day on worldly life and not give one hour to prayer?	8 What does the example of unequal chances of gain teach?
11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
9 How does the passage describe prayer in relation to the body?	10 What is the broader life lesson at the end of the passage?	11 What is the main religious practice being urged in this passage?	12 Who is represented by the servant who neglects his duty?
11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 4 The true homeland is Paradise.	Cevap 3 It represents Paradise.	Cevap 2 He represents the Lord who created and sustains all people.	Cevap 1 The ruler stands for Allah, the Sustainer and Creator.
Cevap 8 It teaches that refusing a highly beneficial and reliable investment is foolish.	Cevap 7 Because worldly life is short, but the hereafter is lasting, so neglecting prayer means wasting what helps a person prepare for what matters most.	Cevap 6 Because it helps carry a person toward eternal success, like travel access helps someone reach a destination.	Cevap 5 Their progress differs based on what they do and how strong their taqwa is.
Cevap 12 He represents those who are careless about prayer.	Cevap 11 The passage urges people to perform the five daily prayers.	Cevap 10 A believer can use daily life in a way that gives it enduring value instead of letting it pass away empty.	Cevap 9 It says prayer is not a heavy burden for the body.

13 What does the neglectful servant show?	14 According to the passage, what lies between worldly life and the hereafter?	15 What does the mention of the grave remind the reader of?	16 How much time does the passage say this “ticket” requires each day?
11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
17 What does the passage suggest about the amount of effort needed for prayer compared with its reward?	18 What three parts of a person are said to gain comfort from prayer?	19 Which human faculties are said to find relief in prayer?	20 How does this passage connect intention with ordinary life?
11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
21 In that same symbolism, what does the grave correspond to?	22 In the explained comparison, whom does the ruler point to?	23 Why is the grave described as a station rather than the final destination?	24 What does the royal property represent in spiritual terms?
11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	11sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 16 It requires about one hour for prayer and ablution.	Cevap 15 It reminds the reader that death is certain and that every person is moving toward meeting what comes after this life.	Cevap 14 The grave lies between them as a stage on the way.	Cevap 13 He shows heedlessness and failure to give prayer its proper place.
Cevap 20 It teaches that intention can lift normal daily actions into spiritually meaningful deeds.	Cevap 19 The soul, heart, and mind.	Cevap 18 The spirit, the heart, and the mind.	Cevap 17 It suggests the effort is small, but the reward is enormous.
Cevap 24 It represents the eternal reward of Paradise.	Cevap 23 Because the passage teaches that life continues beyond death into resurrection and the hereafter.	Cevap 22 He points to Allah, the Lord of all.	Cevap 21 It corresponds to the stopping place on the journey.