

1 What main idea is introduced by the Qur'anic verse in this passage?	2 According to the passage, what does a person become by giving his person and property to Allah?	3 How is this exchange described in terms of benefit and status?	4 What does the reader need to do in order to understand this exchange more clearly?
11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust
5 Which two things are said to be given to Allah in this passage?	6 What reward is promised for this exchange?	7 In this passage, who is making the purchase?	8 From whom is this purchase made?
11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust
9 What is being "sold" in this passage?	10 What does the passage suggest about the value of this spiritual "sale"?	11 Besides being profitable, what kind of position does this act give a person?	12 What two roles are connected to the one who gives himself to Allah?
11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust

Cevap 4 The reader needs to listen to the comparison that follows.	Cevap 3 It is described as very rewarding and as giving a person a noble position.	Cevap 2 He becomes Allah's servant and soldier.	Cevap 1 It presents the idea that believers give themselves and what they own to Allah, and in return they receive Paradise.
Cevap 8 It is made from the believers.	Cevap 7 Allah is the One making the purchase.	Cevap 6 Paradise.	Cevap 5 A person's self and possessions.
Cevap 12 He is described as Allah's servant and His soldier.	Cevap 11 It gives a person an honorable rank.	Cevap 10 It suggests that it brings great benefit.	Cevap 9 A believer's self and wealth are being offered to Allah.

13 What does the verse say believers receive in return for giving themselves and their property to Allah?	14 How does the passage describe the act of belonging to Allah?	15 What feeling about this act is the reader encouraged to have?	16 Why is the word “trade” a meaningful way to describe this relationship?
11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust
17 What kind of explanation is about to come after this introduction?	18 What kind of appeal is being made to the reader at the end of the passage?	19 What promise is attached to the believers’ giving of themselves and their property?	20 What image of commitment is created by calling a person Allah’s soldier?
11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust
21 What image of humility is created by calling a person Allah’s slave or servant?	22 What does the passage imply about the worth of serving Allah?	23 Why might a comparison be helpful for understanding this idea?	24 What method of explanation is promised after the introduction?
11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust	11sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust

Cevap 16 Because it shows an exchange in which what is given is rewarded with something much greater.	Cevap 15 The reader is encouraged to see it as something valuable and honorable.	Cevap 14 It describes it as being His servant and soldier.	Cevap 13 They receive Paradise.
Cevap 20 It suggests loyalty, discipline, and readiness to serve Allah's cause.	Cevap 19 The promise is that Paradise will be theirs.	Cevap 18 The reader is being invited to pay attention and reflect on the coming example.	Cevap 17 A parable or comparison is about to come.
Cevap 24 A comparison is promised.	Cevap 23 It can make an abstract spiritual truth easier to picture and understand.	Cevap 22 It implies that serving Allah is both deeply honorable and highly rewarding.	Cevap 21 It suggests complete belonging to Allah and obedient worship.