

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, what do the two travelers stand for? (21 kelime)

One stands for people who

2-) Who is represented by the traveler who follows his own desires? (11 kelime)

He represents

3-) How does the passage explain the seeming heaviness of worship? (19 kelime)

It says worship may

4-) What sentence from prayer is central in this passage's explanation of worship? (17 kelime)

The central statement is

5-) How does seeing everything under Allah's command affect a believer? (16 kelime)

It leads the believer

6-) How does knowing that Allah acts with wisdom help the worshipper? (10 kelime)

It reassures

7-) What contrast is made between the person with a bright heart and the philosopher with only outward intellect? (19 kelime)

The believer stays calm

8-) What inner quality grows out of this trusting relationship? (7 kelime)

Strong

9-) How far do human hopes and fears reach compared with human power? (15 kelime)

Hopes, fears, and

10-) How does the final part of the passage support the need for worship? (22 kelime)

It explains that humans are

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 2

1-) What main lesson is taught through the image of the two travelers? (13 kelime)

Human beings must

2-) What stages are included in the road that symbolizes human existence? (15 kelime)

It includes the

3-) Why might worship look difficult at first? (11 kelime)

Because it

4-) What belief does the worshipper renew in prayer? (18 kelime)

He renews his belief

5-) How does this belief change the way a person looks at good and harm? (15 kelime)

He sees both

6-) In what way does this belief open a path to mercy? (15 kelime)

It leads the

7-) What emotional result comes from that trust? (8 kelime)

It gives

8-) What moral lesson is taught by linking courage with worship? (14 kelime)

Real bravery is

9-) What weakness of human nature is described near the end of the passage? (16 kelime)

Humans have very little

10-) What overall conclusion does the passage reach about worship and trust in Allah? (15 kelime)

They are among

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 3

1-) Which two ways of living are contrasted through the two symbolic travelers? (17 kelime)

A life of submission

2-) How is life presented through the image of a road? (19 kelime)

Life is shown as

3-) What seeming contradiction about worship is mentioned? (17 kelime)

It may seem like

4-) What does the worshipper affirm in salah that changes his whole outlook? (11 kelime)

He affirms

5-) How does it shape the worshipper's understanding of events in life? (11 kelime)

He understands

6-) Why does this understanding lead naturally to dua? (16 kelime)

Because the believer knows

7-) What does the believer realize about the created world around him? (12 kelime)

He realizes that

8-) According to the passage, what produces real bravery in a person? (8 kelime)

Faith in

9-) How does the believer react to a frightening event differently from the fearful philosopher? (17 kelime)

The believer responds with

10-) Why are affirmation of Allah's unity, reliance on Him, and submission to Him described as such great gains for the human spirit? (27 kelime)

Because human beings are extremely limited

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, who is represented by the obedient traveler? (9 kelime)

He represents

2-) What do the kit-bag and the rifle symbolize? (8 kelime)

They symbolize

3-) Why are worship and fear of Allah compared to travel gear? (17 kelime)

Because they prepare and

4-) Why does this belief make supplication meaningful? (21 kelime)

Because the person knows mercy

5-) What does the worshipper believe about who controls gain and loss? (6 kelime)

He

6-) What is presented as the source of cowardice? (7 kelime)

Going

7-) What three actions show the believer's response to Allah's rule over all things? (11 kelime)

He seeks

8-) Why is the human being described as weak and needy? (18 kelime)

Because people need countless

9-) What warning is suggested by the story of the frightened philosopher? (13 kelime)

A person may

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 5

1-) What is the basic contrast between the two symbolic travelers in the passage? (10 kelime)
One follows

2-) In this symbolic journey, what is the meaning of carrying equipment? (9 kelime)
It means

3-) Why does the passage say worship contains ease even if it seems heavy? (12 kelime)
Because its deeper

4-) What understanding comes from saying that there is no god but Allah? (17 kelime)
A person understands that

5-) What does the worshipper believe about harm and benefit? (15 kelime)
He believes they

6-) When a believer sees all things under Allah's rule, what practical response follows? (14 kelime)
He seeks refuge

7-) How does the passage describe the result of relying on Allah during hardship? (11 kelime)
It describes

8-) What is the purpose of the example comparing a believer and a philosopher? (14 kelime)
It shows that

9-) What truth about human limits is stressed near the end? (14 kelime)
Human ability and

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 6

1-) In the passage, what kind of people are represented by the two travelers? (13 kelime)

They represent obedient

2-) What do worship and fear of Allah function like in the comparison? (11 kelime)

They function

3-) What important idea is taught about the burden of worship? (14 kelime)

Its outer effort

4-) How does that testimony shape the worshipper's understanding of provision? (8 kelime)

He knows

5-) How does it shape a person's view of life's dangers and benefits? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

6-) What image is used for making dua after this belief is recognized? (15 kelime)

It is pictured

7-) What is the spiritual effect of this dependence? (11 kelime)

It gives

8-) What relationship does the passage draw between sin and fear? (15 kelime)

It presents moral

9-) How does the passage use the example of a comet to compare two mindsets? (17 kelime)

It shows that the

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what do the two travelers stand for?

One stands for people who obey Allah's law, and the other stands for people who rebel and follow their own desires.

2-) Who is represented by the traveler who follows his own desires?

He represents rebellious people who do not submit to divine guidance.

3-) How does the passage explain the seeming heaviness of worship?

It says worship may look difficult on the outside, but in reality it brings deep inner ease and relief.

4-) What sentence from prayer is central in this passage's explanation of worship?

The central statement is the declaration that no one has the right to be worshipped except Allah.

5-) How does seeing everything under Allah's command affect a believer?

It leads the believer to seek protection from Allah, trust Him, and feel strengthened against hardship.

6-) How does knowing that Allah acts with wisdom help the worshipper?

It reassures him that events are not meaningless or random.

7-) What contrast is made between the person with a bright heart and the philosopher with only outward intellect?

The believer stays calm even before something terrifying, while the other person becomes panicked because he lacks inner faith.

8-) What inner quality grows out of this trusting relationship?

Strong confidence and steadiness grow from it.

9-) How far do human hopes and fears reach compared with human power?

Hopes, fears, and pain stretch very far, but human power reaches only a short distance.

10-) How does the final part of the passage support the need for worship?

It explains that humans are too weak and needy to rely on themselves, so they need Allah and must turn to Him.

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main lesson is taught through the image of the two travelers?

Human beings must choose between obedience to Allah and following their lower desires.

2-) What stages are included in the road that symbolizes human existence?

It includes the beginning from the unseen realm, earthly life, the grave, and the hereafter.

3-) Why might worship look difficult at first?

Because it includes duties and discipline that can seem heavy outwardly.

4-) What belief does the worshipper renew in prayer?

He renews his belief that Allah alone is the true Lord and the only one worthy of worship.

5-) How does this belief change the way a person looks at good and harm?

He sees both as being under Allah's control, not under random forces or created things.

6-) In what way does this belief open a path to mercy?

It leads the person to turn sincerely to Allah in dua, hoping in His generosity.

7-) What emotional result comes from that trust?

It gives strong reassurance and protection from fear.

8-) What moral lesson is taught by linking courage with worship?

Real bravery is not just personality; it comes from a heart rooted in faith.

9-) What weakness of human nature is described near the end of the passage?

Humans have very little power and wealth compared with how many needs and troubles they face.

10-) What overall conclusion does the passage reach about worship and trust in Allah?

They are among the greatest means of profit, peace, and blessing for weak human beings.

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which two ways of living are contrasted through the two symbolic travelers?

A life of submission to Allah is contrasted with a life driven by rebellion and personal desire.

2-) How is life presented through the image of a road?

Life is shown as a continuing journey that does not end with death but moves on to the hereafter.

3-) What seeming contradiction about worship is mentioned?

It may seem like a load, yet it actually brings lightness and comfort in its true meaning.

4-) What does the worshipper affirm in salah that changes his whole outlook?

He affirms Allah's absolute oneness and exclusive right to be worshipped.

5-) How does it shape the worshipper's understanding of events in life?

He understands that benefit and harm happen only by Allah's permission.

6-) Why does this understanding lead naturally to dua?

Because the believer knows mercy comes from Allah, so he turns directly to Him for help.

7-) What does the believer realize about the created world around him?

He realizes that all things are under the authority of his Lord.

8-) According to the passage, what produces real bravery in a person?

Faith in Allah together with worship produces it.

9-) How does the believer react to a frightening event differently from the fearful philosopher?

The believer responds with calm amazement at Allah's power, while the philosopher reacts with anxiety and panic.

10-) Why are affirmation of Allah's unity, reliance on Him, and submission to Him described as such great gains for the human spirit?

Because human beings are extremely limited in strength and resources, yet their needs and worries are vast, so only turning to Allah gives true support and peace.

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, who is represented by the obedient traveler?

He represents those who live according to Allah's law.

2-) What do the kit-bag and the rifle symbolize?

They symbolize worship and being mindful of Allah.

3-) Why are worship and fear of Allah compared to travel gear?

Because they prepare and protect a person for the journey of life and what comes after it.

4-) Why does this belief make supplication meaningful?

Because the person knows mercy comes from Allah alone, so he turns to Him with hope and asks Him for help.

5-) What does the worshipper believe about who controls gain and loss?

He believes Allah alone controls them.

6-) What is presented as the source of cowardice?

Going astray and living without right guidance.

7-) What three actions show the believer's response to Allah's rule over all things?

He seeks protection in Allah, trusts Him, and depends on Him.

8-) Why is the human being described as weak and needy?

Because people need countless things and face many dangers, yet their own strength and resources are very limited.

9-) What warning is suggested by the story of the frightened philosopher?

A person may seem intellectually advanced but still be inwardly unstable without faith.

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the basic contrast between the two symbolic travelers in the passage?

One follows Allah's guidance, while the other follows selfish desires.

2-) In this symbolic journey, what is the meaning of carrying equipment?

It means living with worship and reverence for Allah.

3-) Why does the passage say worship contains ease even if it seems heavy?

Because its deeper meaning gives peace, clarity, and support to the heart.

4-) What understanding comes from saying that there is no god but Allah?

A person understands that everything depends on Allah alone and that no one else has independent power.

5-) What does the worshipper believe about harm and benefit?

He believes they come only by Allah's will and are not controlled independently by creation.

6-) When a believer sees all things under Allah's rule, what practical response follows?

He seeks refuge in Allah, depends on Him, and places his trust in Him.

7-) How does the passage describe the result of relying on Allah during hardship?

It describes the believer as protected and inwardly strengthened against disasters.

8-) What is the purpose of the example comparing a believer and a philosopher?

It shows that outward intelligence alone does not give peace, but faith-filled understanding does.

9-) What truth about human limits is stressed near the end?

Human ability and resources are very small compared with human needs, hopes, and troubles.

11sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) In the passage, what kind of people are represented by the two travelers?
They represent obedient believers on one side and rebellious desire-followers on the other.
- 2-) What do worship and fear of Allah function like in the comparison?
They function like protective gear and supplies for a difficult journey.
- 3-) What important idea is taught about the burden of worship?
Its outer effort is small compared with the inner freedom and relief it gives.
- 4-) How does that testimony shape the worshipper's understanding of provision?
He knows that sustenance comes from Allah alone.
- 5-) How does it shape a person's view of life's dangers and benefits?
It teaches that both are in Allah's hand, so created things have no independent control.
- 6-) What image is used for making dua after this belief is recognized?
It is pictured like approaching and asking at the entrance to a storehouse of mercy.
- 7-) What is the spiritual effect of this dependence?
It gives firm assurance and shields the heart from overwhelming fear.
- 8-) What relationship does the passage draw between sin and fear?
It presents moral corruption and straying from guidance as causes of inner weakness and fear.
- 9-) How does the passage use the example of a comet to compare two mindsets?
It shows that the believer sees Allah's power with calm wonder, while the faithless thinker becomes terrified.