

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 1

1-) What main question is raised at the beginning of the passage about giving back the trust to Allah? (20 kelime)

Whether it is really hard

2-) What statement directly removes the idea that the matter is too hard? (12 kelime)

The passage clearly

3-) How does the passage use the idea of what is permissible to support its argument? (15 kelime)

It says halal

4-) How does the passage describe Allah's obligations on believers compared with what many people may assume? (11 kelime)

It describes

5-) What kind of honor comes from belonging to Allah as His servant and soldier? (8 kelime)

A special

6-) What does the passage say a person's duty "simply" is? (14 kelime)

To live, act,

7-) How should a believer view taking and giving? (11 kelime)

Both should

8-) What does the passage teach about personal freedom? (15 kelime)

Freedom is not

9-) What does the prayer ask Allah to preserve in the believer? (9 kelime)

Steadiness and

10-) What overall picture of Allah emerges from this ending? (18 kelime)

Allah is the One

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 2

1-) What false idea about obedience to Allah is challenged in this passage? (13 kelime)

The idea that

2-) What clear judgment does the passage give about that concern? (11 kelime)

It rejects

3-) Why does the passage mention the broadness of what is lawful? (17 kelime)

To show that Allah

4-) How are Allah's commands characterized in a way that encourages obedience? (7 kelime)

They

5-) What is one reason serving Allah is described as pleasurable? (12 kelime)

Because serving the

6-) According to the passage, what is a person's basic duty in daily life? (18 kelime)

To begin actions in

7-) What does acting in Allah's name mean in practice? (13 kelime)

It means doing

8-) What should happen when a person realizes he or she has not fully lived up to this duty? (11 kelime)

The person

9-) Besides forgiveness, what future help does the supplication request? (11 kelime)

Help in

10-) What final spiritual lesson does the prayer teach? (11 kelime)

A believer

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 3

1-) What concern about the “trade” is addressed in this passage? (14 kelime)

The concern that

2-) What answer is given to people who avoid this commitment out of fear of hardship? (12 kelime)

They are told

3-) What is the connection between the lawful and the forbidden in this passage? (12 kelime)

Since the lawful

4-) What view of religious duty is taught by saying Allah’s obligations are light and few? (10 kelime)

Religion is

5-) Why is serving Allah presented as something joyful instead of something depressing? (18 kelime)

Because it is an

6-) What comparison is made to explain how a believer should live? (12 kelime)

A believer should

7-) What does this passage teach about everyday actions, not just acts of worship? (12 kelime)

Ordinary actions also

8-) How should someone respond after failing to carry out this trust properly? (9 kelime)

By turning

9-) What does asking to be accepted as Allah’s servants show? (13 kelime)

It shows humility

10-) If you had to summarize the tone of the passage, what would it be? (5 kelime)

Encouraging,

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 4

1-) At the start of the passage, what attitude of some people is being criticized? (17 kelime)
Their hesitation or avoidance

2-) What phrase in meaning shows that hardship is being strongly denied? (13 kelime)
The passage stresses

3-) Why does the passage emphasize that permitted things are spacious? (14 kelime)
To teach that

4-) What two honorable roles are mentioned for a believer in relation to Allah? (9 kelime)
A believer

5-) In this passage, what kind of relationship should a person have with Allah? (8 kelime)
One of

6-) Name three parts of life that should be connected to Allah according to the passage. (14 kelime)
A person's actions,

7-) What does this teach about Islam as a way of life? (13 kelime)
Islam is meant

8-) What is the proper reaction when one falls short? (9 kelime)
To repent

9-) What trust-related request is made in the supplication? (17 kelime)
That Allah make us

10-) What overall attitude does the passage teach toward religious obedience? (19 kelime)
It teaches that obedience

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 5

1-) What issue does the passage settle about “selling the trust”? (16 kelime)

It settles whether this

2-) How does the passage respond to people who avoid that commitment? (14 kelime)

It says their

3-) How are Allah’s required duties described? (8 kelime)

They are

4-) How does the passage make Allah’s commands feel more approachable to a young believer? (10 kelime)

It presents

5-) What image helps explain the believer’s duty? (9 kelime)

The image

6-) According to the passage, what should guide a person’s decisions and actions? (7 kelime)

Allah’s

7-) What can we infer about intention from this passage? (15 kelime)

Intention matters greatly,

8-) What should someone do immediately after recognizing personal failure? (3 kelime)

9-) What does the sample supplication ask Allah to do besides forgive sins? (21 kelime)

It asks Him to accept

10-) What is the central message of the passage in one sentence? (16 kelime)

Living as Allah’s faithful

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 6

1-) What practical doubt about religious commitment is asked at the opening of the passage? (13 kelime)

Whether living faithfully

2-) What reason is given to show that lawful things are enough for people? (25 kelime)

The allowed area is wide and

3-) What does the passage suggest about human desire and divine law? (14 kelime)

Divine law does

4-) What emotional tone is used to describe being Allah's servant and soldier? (8 kelime)

It is

5-) What quality makes this position honorable rather than humiliating? (12 kelime)

It is service

6-) What areas of conduct are mentioned as needing to be for Allah's sake? (9 kelime)

Actions, receiving

7-) What does "move and be still" suggest about obedience? (13 kelime)

Obedience includes both

8-) What should someone do after falling short in fulfilling this trust? (11 kelime)

Ask Allah

9-) What does the prayer at the end show about the human condition? (14 kelime)

It shows that

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main question is raised at the beginning of the passage about giving back the trust to Allah? Whether it is really hard or heavy for people to live as Allah commands and return His trust to Him.

2-) What statement directly removes the idea that the matter is too hard?

The passage clearly says it is not burdensome in any real sense.

3-) How does the passage use the idea of what is permissible to support its argument?

It says halal choices are wide enough to meet people's needs, so disobedience is unnecessary.

4-) How does the passage describe Allah's obligations on believers compared with what many people may assume?

It describes them as lighter and fewer than people may imagine.

5-) What kind of honor comes from belonging to Allah as His servant and soldier?

A special honor that brings deep inner happiness.

6-) What does the passage say a person's duty "simply" is?

To live, act, and deal with life in Allah's name and under His guidance.

7-) How should a believer view taking and giving?

Both should be done for Allah's sake and within His guidance.

8-) What does the passage teach about personal freedom?

Freedom is not doing whatever one wants; it is living within Allah's permission and law.

9-) What does the prayer ask Allah to preserve in the believer?

Steadiness and trustworthiness in carrying what Allah has entrusted.

10-) What overall picture of Allah emerges from this ending?

Allah is the One who gives duties, but also the One who forgives, accepts, and helps His servants.

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What false idea about obedience to Allah is challenged in this passage?

The idea that following Allah's commands is too hard and not worth doing.

2-) What clear judgment does the passage give about that concern?

It rejects it and says the matter is not truly difficult.

3-) Why does the passage mention the broadness of what is lawful?

To show that Allah has not trapped people in harsh restriction and that lawful living is enough.

4-) How are Allah's commands characterized in a way that encourages obedience?

They are presented as few and manageable.

5-) What is one reason serving Allah is described as pleasurable?

Because serving the Lord is an honor that gives meaning and dignity.

6-) According to the passage, what is a person's basic duty in daily life?

To begin actions in Allah's name and live in a way that follows His permission and His law.

7-) What does acting in Allah's name mean in practice?

It means doing one's actions with the right intention and under Allah's guidance.

8-) What should happen when a person realizes he or she has not fully lived up to this duty?

The person should seek Allah's forgiveness rather than ignore the failure.

9-) Besides forgiveness, what future help does the supplication request?

Help in remaining trustworthy until the trust is finally taken back.

10-) What final spiritual lesson does the prayer teach?

A believer should combine duty, humility, repentance, and reliance on Allah.

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What concern about the “trade” is addressed in this passage?

The concern that surrendering oneself to Allah might be too difficult or too costly.

2-) What answer is given to people who avoid this commitment out of fear of hardship?

They are told that the commitment is not truly hard or unbearable.

3-) What is the connection between the lawful and the forbidden in this passage?

Since the lawful is broad and sufficient, entering the forbidden is unnecessary.

4-) What view of religious duty is taught by saying Allah’s obligations are light and few?

Religion is meant to be livable and merciful, not impossible.

5-) Why is serving Allah presented as something joyful instead of something depressing?

Because it is an honor filled with deep spiritual pleasure, not a burden meant to crush a person.

6-) What comparison is made to explain how a believer should live?

A believer should live like a disciplined soldier acting under rightful command.

7-) What does this passage teach about everyday actions, not just acts of worship?

Ordinary actions also should be guided by Allah’s name, permission, and law.

8-) How should someone respond after failing to carry out this trust properly?

By turning to Allah, asking pardon, and making dua.

9-) What does asking to be accepted as Allah’s servants show?

It shows humility and a desire to belong to Allah through sincere obedience.

10-) If you had to summarize the tone of the passage, what would it be?

Encouraging, hopeful, and spiritually disciplined.

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the start of the passage, what attitude of some people is being criticized?

Their hesitation or avoidance of giving themselves fully to Allah because they think it is too hard.

2-) What phrase in meaning shows that hardship is being strongly denied?

The passage stresses that there is no real burden in it at all.

3-) Why does the passage emphasize that permitted things are spacious?

To teach that Allah has left enough room for healthy human living without disobedience.

4-) What two honorable roles are mentioned for a believer in relation to Allah?

A believer is described as Allah's servant and soldier.

5-) In this passage, what kind of relationship should a person have with Allah?

One of loyal worship, obedience, and honorable service.

6-) Name three parts of life that should be connected to Allah according to the passage.

A person's actions, exchanges such as taking and giving, and even movement and rest.

7-) What does this teach about Islam as a way of life?

Islam is meant to shape all of life, not only special religious moments.

8-) What is the proper reaction when one falls short?

To repent and ask Allah to forgive the failure.

9-) What trust-related request is made in the supplication?

That Allah make us reliable guardians of what He has entrusted to us until He reclaims it.

10-) What overall attitude does the passage teach toward religious obedience?

It teaches that obedience should be seen as a noble, manageable, and meaningful way of life centered on Allah.

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What issue does the passage settle about “selling the trust”?

It settles whether this commitment to Allah is too difficult, and answers that it is not.

2-) How does the passage respond to people who avoid that commitment?

It says their excuse is not valid because the matter is not truly burdensome.

3-) How are Allah’s required duties described?

They are described as light and not many.

4-) How does the passage make Allah’s commands feel more approachable to a young believer?

It presents them as limited, manageable, and far from overwhelming.

5-) What image helps explain the believer’s duty?

The image of a soldier carrying out orders faithfully.

6-) According to the passage, what should guide a person’s decisions and actions?

Allah’s name, His permission, and His law.

7-) What can we infer about intention from this passage?

Intention matters greatly, because actions should begin in Allah’s name and be done for Him.

8-) What should someone do immediately after recognizing personal failure?

Seek Allah’s forgiveness.

9-) What does the sample supplication ask Allah to do besides forgive sins?

It asks Him to accept us as His servants and help us guard the trust faithfully until He takes it back.

10-) What is the central message of the passage in one sentence?

Living as Allah’s faithful servant is not a crushing burden but an honorable and attainable path.

11sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What practical doubt about religious commitment is asked at the opening of the passage?

Whether living faithfully under Allah's trust is too difficult for people to bear.

2-) What reason is given to show that lawful things are enough for people?

The allowed area is wide and sufficient for human needs and desires, so there is no real need to cross into what Allah has forbidden.

3-) What does the passage suggest about human desire and divine law?

Divine law does not block all desire; it gives broad lawful room for it.

4-) What emotional tone is used to describe being Allah's servant and soldier?

It is described as a deeply joyful honor.

5-) What quality makes this position honorable rather than humiliating?

It is service to Allah, which gives dignity, purpose, and spiritual joy.

6-) What areas of conduct are mentioned as needing to be for Allah's sake?

Actions, receiving and giving, and both motion and stillness.

7-) What does "move and be still" suggest about obedience?

Obedience includes both what a person does and what a person avoids doing.

8-) What should someone do after falling short in fulfilling this trust?

Ask Allah for forgiveness and turn back to Him with humility.

9-) What does the prayer at the end show about the human condition?

It shows that people are weak, make mistakes, and need Allah's mercy and support.