

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1

1-) What central statement of faith is introduced at the beginning of the passage? (9 kelime)
Belief in

2-) According to the opening sentence, what effect do these beliefs have on the human spirit? (11 kelime)
They open

3-) How are patience, prayer, trust, and gratitude described in relation to a believer's struggles? (8 kelime)
They are

4-) In what setting does the soldier face his crisis? (9 kelime)
He is

5-) List the four major troubles facing the soldier. (18 kelime)
Two serious wounds, a

6-) In what way does the helper appear different from the surrounding scene? (15 kelime)
He appears bright,

7-) What promise is made about the two talismans if the soldier uses them correctly? (19 kelime)
The lion will become

8-) How are the soldier's wounds described after the medicines take effect? (7 kelime)
They

9-) Why does the helper invite the soldier to experiment instead of only demanding belief? (10 kelime)
He wants

10-) How does the mention of "this unfortunate Said" shape the tone of the ending? (17 kelime)
It makes the lesson

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2

1-) What practices are presented as especially valuable for the journey to eternity? (13 kelime)
Hearing the Qur'an,

2-) What two big human needs are those beliefs said to address? (8 kelime)
Understanding existence

3-) What response to hardship is recommended before the comparison begins? (9 kelime)
Turning to

4-) What does the gallows suggest about what may happen to both the soldier and those he loves? (9 kelime)
It suggests

5-) Which threats in the comparison come from behind and from in front of the soldier? (13 kelime)
The lion is

6-) What two external threats make his situation even more frightening? (11 kelime)
A lion

7-) What is the condition for the promised benefits to appear? (13 kelime)
The soldier must

8-) What is special about the way the helper presents his gifts? (12 kelime)
He explains both

9-) What are the first two items the helper gives, and what do they change? (17 kelime)
Two talismans that turn

10-) How does the speaker's own testimony affect the reliability of the comparison? (16 kelime)
It gives added weight

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3

1-) What two beliefs are placed at the center of this passage? (9 kelime)

Faith in

2-) What does the passage say these two beliefs do for the puzzle of existence? (10 kelime)

They act

3-) What kind of teaching method does the passage use after the opening lines? (6 kelime)

It

4-) What kind of person is used in the comparison to represent the human condition? (5 kelime)

A

5-) What shows that the soldier is trapped between immediate danger and future fear? (14 kelime)

He faces threats

6-) Who comes to help the soldier, and how is he described? (8 kelime)

A bright,

7-) What transformation is promised for the gallows? (13 kelime)

It will become

8-) What does the transformation of the wounds into flowers suggest? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

9-) How is the soldier encouraged to confirm that these gifts are real? (10 kelime)

He is

10-) What final item is given, and what problem does it solve? (10 kelime)

A ticket

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4

1-) What phrase in Arabic is the passage built around in meaning? (10 kelime)

The declaration

2-) What two major outcomes do those beliefs bring according to the opening description? (14 kelime)

They solve the

3-) What does the lion contribute to the soldier's fear? (12 kelime)

It represents a

4-) Why is the soldier a fitting example for the passage's lesson? (17 kelime)

He is in extreme

5-) What physical condition is the soldier in at the start of the story? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What three kinds of help does the shining figure offer? (7 kelime)

Two

7-) How does the helper first deal with the soldier's emotional state? (8 kelime)

He tells

8-) How is the helper described in a way that suggests guidance from Allah? (10 kelime)

He is

9-) Why is the command to test the claims important for comprehension of the passage? (14 kelime)

It shows that

10-) How does Said connect himself to the comparison at the end of the target passage? (12 kelime)

He says he

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5

1-) What are the “two parts” of the faith statement mentioned at the start? (9 kelime)

Belief in

2-) Which religious acts are described as supplies for the life to come and light for the grave? (15 kelime)

Listening to the

3-) What does it compare Qur’anic listening, obedience, prayer, and avoiding major sins to? (12 kelime)

It compares them

4-) What image is used to begin the main comparison of the passage? (7 kelime)

A

5-) How does the soldier first feel when he thinks about his condition? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What transformation is promised for the lion? (11 kelime)

It will

7-) What do the promised changes in the lion and gallows teach about the power of true guidance? (15 kelime)

They teach that

8-) What benefit comes with the ticket given to the soldier? (14 kelime)

It allows him

9-) What does the soldier’s partial testing of the gifts lead him to conclude? (7 kelime)

He

10-) How do both the soldier and Said respond after testing what was given? (8 kelime)

Both confirm

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6

1-) According to the passage, what two beliefs are like powerful keys for human life? (9 kelime)
Faith in

2-) What do the two wounds suggest about the seriousness of his condition? (9 kelime)
They show

3-) What acts of worship are described as preparation for the hereafter? (13 kelime)
Listening to the

4-) What kind of event does the passage invite the reader to listen to after the introduction? (8 kelime)
A symbolic

5-) Why is the appearance of the shining helper important in the comparison? (10 kelime)
It introduces

6-) What does the long journey suggest about the future facing the soldier? (9 kelime)
It suggests

7-) What feeling dominates the soldier before help comes? (1 kelime)

8-) Why is the final statement by Said important? (13 kelime)
It strengthens the

9-) What is the result of the soldier's trial of the helper's words? (6 kelime)
He

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What central statement of faith is introduced at the beginning of the passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) According to the opening sentence, what effect do these beliefs have on the human spirit?

They open the path to happiness and help resolve deep confusion.

3-) How are patience, prayer, trust, and gratitude described in relation to a believer's struggles?

They are described as helpful cures and supports.

4-) In what setting does the soldier face his crisis?

He is in a place of battle and testing.

5-) List the four major troubles facing the soldier.

Two serious wounds, a lion behind him, a gallows in front of him, and a long journey ahead.

6-) In what way does the helper appear different from the surrounding scene?

He appears bright, kind, and full of hope in the middle of fear and darkness.

7-) What promise is made about the two talismans if the soldier uses them correctly?

The lion will become like a tame riding animal, and the gallows will become something enjoyable instead of terrifying.

8-) How are the soldier's wounds described after the medicines take effect?

They become beautiful and fragrant like flowers.

9-) Why does the helper invite the soldier to experiment instead of only demanding belief?

He wants the soldier to recognize the truth through experience.

10-) How does the mention of "this unfortunate Said" shape the tone of the ending?

It makes the lesson personal and sincere, as if the speaker has lived the truth of it.

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What practices are presented as especially valuable for the journey to eternity?

Hearing the Qur'an, obeying it, praying regularly, and staying away from grave sins.

2-) What two big human needs are those beliefs said to address?

Understanding existence and finding happiness for the soul.

3-) What response to hardship is recommended before the comparison begins?

Turning to Allah with trust, patience, supplication, and thankfulness.

4-) What does the gallows suggest about what may happen to both the soldier and those he loves?

It suggests destruction, loss, and the ending of life.

5-) Which threats in the comparison come from behind and from in front of the soldier?

The lion is behind him, and the gallows is in front of him.

6-) What two external threats make his situation even more frightening?

A lion behind him and a gallows in front of him.

7-) What is the condition for the promised benefits to appear?

The soldier must use what he is given properly and follow the instructions.

8-) What is special about the way the helper presents his gifts?

He explains both what they are and what changes they can bring.

9-) What are the first two items the helper gives, and what do they change?

Two talismans that turn the lion into a tame mount and the gallows into a pleasant swing.

10-) How does the speaker's own testimony affect the reliability of the comparison?

It gives added weight because he says he personally tested the matter and found it true.

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two beliefs are placed at the center of this passage?

Faith in Allah and faith in the Last Day.

2-) What does the passage say these two beliefs do for the puzzle of existence?

They act like keys that make its hidden meaning understandable.

3-) What kind of teaching method does the passage use after the opening lines?

It uses a comparison or parable.

4-) What kind of person is used in the comparison to represent the human condition?

A soldier in severe danger.

5-) What shows that the soldier is trapped between immediate danger and future fear?

He faces threats around him at the moment and also a hard journey ahead.

6-) Who comes to help the soldier, and how is he described?

A bright, kind figure appears, shining like Khidr.

7-) What transformation is promised for the gallows?

It will become something like a swing that brings enjoyment rather than terror.

8-) What does the transformation of the wounds into flowers suggest?

It suggests that pain can be changed into something meaningful and beautiful.

9-) How is the soldier encouraged to confirm that these gifts are real?

He is told to test them and see for himself.

10-) What final item is given, and what problem does it solve?

A ticket that makes the long journey quick and easy.

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What phrase in Arabic is the passage built around in meaning?

The declaration of belief in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) What two major outcomes do those beliefs bring according to the opening description?

They solve the deep mystery of creation and bring happiness to the human spirit.

3-) What does the lion contribute to the soldier's fear?

It represents a threat that seems ready to attack at any moment.

4-) Why is the soldier a fitting example for the passage's lesson?

He is in extreme danger and needs rescue, just as people face deep spiritual and life struggles.

5-) What physical condition is the soldier in at the start of the story?

He is badly wounded on both sides.

6-) What three kinds of help does the shining figure offer?

Two talismans, two medicines, and a ticket.

7-) How does the helper first deal with the soldier's emotional state?

He tells him not to give up hope.

8-) How is the helper described in a way that suggests guidance from Allah?

He is presented as a compassionate, shining figure like Khidr.

9-) Why is the command to test the claims important for comprehension of the passage?

It shows that the truth being described is meant to be experienced and verified.

10-) How does Said connect himself to the comparison at the end of the target passage?

He says he also tested it personally and found it completely true.

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the “two parts” of the faith statement mentioned at the start?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) Which religious acts are described as supplies for the life to come and light for the grave?

Listening to the Qur’an, following its commands, performing the required prayers, and avoiding major sins.

3-) What does it compare Qur’anic listening, obedience, prayer, and avoiding major sins to?

It compares them to tickets, provisions, and light for the next life.

4-) What image is used to begin the main comparison of the passage?

A wounded soldier in a terrifying situation.

5-) How does the soldier first feel when he thinks about his condition?

He feels hopeless and full of fear.

6-) What transformation is promised for the lion?

It will become a gentle mount instead of a deadly threat.

7-) What do the promised changes in the lion and gallows teach about the power of true guidance?

They teach that what seems terrifying can become bearable or even beneficial through right belief.

8-) What benefit comes with the ticket given to the soldier?

It allows him to complete a very long journey with great ease and speed.

9-) What does the soldier’s partial testing of the gifts lead him to conclude?

He concludes that the promises are true.

10-) How do both the soldier and Said respond after testing what was given?

Both confirm from experience that it is true.

11sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what two beliefs are like powerful keys for human life?

Faith in Allah and faith in the Last Day.

2-) What do the two wounds suggest about the seriousness of his condition?

They show that his suffering is deep and urgent.

3-) What acts of worship are described as preparation for the hereafter?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying it, performing the prayers, and leaving major sins.

4-) What kind of event does the passage invite the reader to listen to after the introduction?

A symbolic story used to explain spiritual truth.

5-) Why is the appearance of the shining helper important in the comparison?

It introduces mercy, guidance, and a way out of despair.

6-) What does the long journey suggest about the future facing the soldier?

It suggests a difficult path that cannot be avoided.

7-) What feeling dominates the soldier before help comes?

Despair.

8-) Why is the final statement by Said important?

It strengthens the comparison by adding personal confirmation that the lesson is true.

9-) What is the result of the soldier's trial of the helper's words?

He confirms that they are true.