

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 1

1-) At what time of day does the passage focus on? (8 kelime)

It focuses

2-) According to the passage, what should a person do at that time? (11 kelime)

A person

3-) How is Allah described in this passage? (10 kelime)

Allah is

4-) What two things is a person told to seek from Allah? (7 kelime)

A

5-) Why is prayer at Fajr presented as necessary? (10 kelime)

It gives

6-) What kinds of challenges are expected during the day? (11 kelime)

A person

7-) How does the passage connect prayer with daily duties? (12 kelime)

It shows prayer

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer - Set 2

1-) Why does the passage point to Allah's power? (13 kelime)

Because only the

2-) Why does the passage also point to Allah's compassion? (15 kelime)

Because a needy

3-) What act of worship is emphasized in the passage? (7 kelime)

Prayer

4-) What part of the day makes this turning to Allah especially meaningful? (12 kelime)

The beginning of

5-) How does Fajr prayer prepare a person emotionally and spiritually? (15 kelime)

It gives inner

6-) In one sentence, summarize the central message of the passage. (20 kelime)

Since people are weak and

7-) What cause-and-effect relationship appears in the passage? (20 kelime)

Because a person is weak

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer - Set 3

1-) How does the passage show the link between human weakness and worship? (13 kelime)
It shows that

2-) Why is early morning a fitting time for this worship? (17 kelime)
Because it is the

3-) What is meant by asking for help? (11 kelime)
It means

4-) What does the passage imply about the duties of the day? (14 kelime)
It implies that

5-) What benefit does prayer give before those duties arrive? (8 kelime)
It gives

6-) Is prayer shown here as optional comfort or as a real need? Explain. (16 kelime)
It is shown as

7-) How can this passage help someone who feels overwhelmed in the morning? (19 kelime)
It teaches that beginning

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, what becomes obvious when we think about the human condition? (12 kelime)

It becomes obvious

2-) Which names or qualities of Allah are highlighted to answer that need? (9 kelime)

His complete

3-) What two forms of worship are mentioned together? (5 kelime)

Formal

4-) What does the passage say a person should ask Allah for before the day unfolds? (8 kelime)

A person

5-) What future realities of the day are mentioned? (15 kelime)

The things that

6-) How does the passage portray prayer in relation to daily struggle? (15 kelime)

It portrays prayer

7-) What tone does the passage have toward Fajr prayer: casual, symbolic, or urgent? Explain briefly. (16 kelime)

It is urgent because

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -
Set 5

1-) What response to that problem is presented? (7 kelime)

Turning

2-) Why is Allah's power important in this response? (12 kelime)

Because human beings

3-) Why is Allah's compassion important in this response? (12 kelime)

Because people need

4-) At what specific prayer time is this response especially needed? (6 kelime)

At

5-) How does the passage describe the role of prayer for the rest of the day? (10 kelime)

It describes

6-) What does the passage imply about the load of daily responsibilities? (16 kelime)

It implies that responsibilities

7-) What main lesson about Fajr can be drawn from the whole passage? (17 kelime)

Fajr prayer is a

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer - Set 6

1-) What does the passage reveal about the relationship between human beings and Allah? (14 kelime)

Human beings depend

2-) How is the early morning presented in spiritual terms? (15 kelime)

It is presented

3-) What action shows dependence on Allah in the passage? (6 kelime)

Making

4-) What does the passage say a person hopes to gain through this worship? (9 kelime)

A person

5-) Why does the passage mention both events and duties of the day? (18 kelime)

To show that a

6-) How does the passage combine belief and action? (13 kelime)

It connects knowing

7-) What is the main idea of the entire passage in simple words? (21 kelime)

Since people are weak and

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At what time of day does the passage focus on?

It focuses on Fajr, the early morning time.

2-) According to the passage, what should a person do at that time?

A person should turn to Allah in prayer and sincere dua.

3-) How is Allah described in this passage?

Allah is described as perfectly powerful, glorious, compassionate, and beautiful.

4-) What two things is a person told to seek from Allah?

A person should seek success and help.

5-) Why is prayer at Fajr presented as necessary?

It gives the believer support for facing the day ahead.

6-) What kinds of challenges are expected during the day?

A person will meet events and responsibilities that may feel heavy.

7-) How does the passage connect prayer with daily duties?

It shows prayer as strength that helps a person carry those duties.

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage point to Allah's power?

Because only the One with complete power can truly help a weak person.

2-) Why does the passage also point to Allah's compassion?

Because a needy person needs not only strength from Allah but also mercy and care.

3-) What act of worship is emphasized in the passage?

Prayer together with heartfelt supplication is emphasized.

4-) What part of the day makes this turning to Allah especially meaningful?

The beginning of the day, before its events and burdens fully arrive.

5-) How does Fajr prayer prepare a person emotionally and spiritually?

It gives inner support and helps the person become ready to face what is ahead.

6-) In one sentence, summarize the central message of the passage.

Since people are weak and needy, they should begin the day by seeking Allah's help through Fajr prayer and dua.

7-) What cause-and-effect relationship appears in the passage?

Because a person is weak and needy, he should seek Allah's help at Fajr so he can face the day.

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage show the link between human weakness and worship?

It shows that weakness should lead a person to seek Allah through prayer.

2-) Why is early morning a fitting time for this worship?

Because it is the start of the day, when a person needs strength for what is coming.

3-) What is meant by asking for help?

It means seeking Allah's support in handling both events and responsibilities.

4-) What does the passage imply about the duties of the day?

It implies that they can be difficult and may feel heavy on a person.

5-) What benefit does prayer give before those duties arrive?

It gives support and readiness to carry them.

6-) Is prayer shown here as optional comfort or as a real need? Explain.

It is shown as a real need because the passage presents it as essential and necessary.

7-) How can this passage help someone who feels overwhelmed in the morning?

It teaches that beginning with worship and dua brings support from Allah and helps the person face the day.

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what becomes obvious when we think about the human condition?

It becomes obvious that a person deeply needs to turn to Allah.

2-) Which names or qualities of Allah are highlighted to answer that need?

His complete power, glory, compassion, and beauty are highlighted.

3-) What two forms of worship are mentioned together?

Formal prayer and personal supplication.

4-) What does the passage say a person should ask Allah for before the day unfolds?

A person should ask for success and help.

5-) What future realities of the day are mentioned?

The things that will happen and the duties that will be placed on the person.

6-) How does the passage portray prayer in relation to daily struggle?

It portrays prayer as a source of support that strengthens a person for daily struggle.

7-) What tone does the passage have toward Fajr prayer: casual, symbolic, or urgent? Explain briefly.

It is urgent because the prayer is presented as essential and necessary for the day ahead.

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What response to that problem is presented?

Turning to Allah through prayer and dua.

2-) Why is Allah's power important in this response?

Because human beings cannot carry life's burdens by their own strength alone.

3-) Why is Allah's compassion important in this response?

Because people need mercy, care, and kindness as they face the day.

4-) At what specific prayer time is this response especially needed?

At Fajr, in the early morning.

5-) How does the passage describe the role of prayer for the rest of the day?

It describes prayer as support for meeting what lies ahead.

6-) What does the passage imply about the load of daily responsibilities?

It implies that responsibilities can be placed on a person like a burden to be carried.

7-) What main lesson about Fajr can be drawn from the whole passage?

Fajr prayer is a necessary turning to Allah for strength, help, and readiness before the day begins.

11sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage reveal about the relationship between human beings and Allah?

Human beings depend on Allah and should turn to Him for help and mercy.

2-) How is the early morning presented in spiritual terms?

It is presented as a key moment to seek Allah before entering the day's trials.

3-) What action shows dependence on Allah in the passage?

Making prayer and dua to Him.

4-) What does the passage say a person hopes to gain through this worship?

A person hopes to gain success, help, and support.

5-) Why does the passage mention both events and duties of the day?

To show that a person needs Allah's aid for both what happens unexpectedly and what must be done.

6-) How does the passage combine belief and action?

It connects knowing one's weakness with actually praying and asking Allah for help.

7-) What is the main idea of the entire passage in simple words?

Since people are weak and the day can be heavy, they need to start by asking Allah for strength and guidance.