

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 1

1-) Who does the first man stand for in the passage? (13 kelime)

A person who

2-) What does he think living creatures are like? (9 kelime)

He thinks

3-) What does he wrongly think about giant created things? (8 kelime)

He thinks

4-) What are three things the believer sees this world as? (11 kelime)

A place

5-) What does the believer think this world is for? (7 kelime)

For

6-) What do the voices of creatures mean in the believer's view? (9 kelime)

They show

7-) What are the sounds of living things like in the believer's view? (7 kelime)

They

8-) What are living beings compared to in a happy way? (6 kelime)

To

9-) What does the example of the Paradise tree teach about belief? (7

kelime)

Belief

10-) What should a Muslim say often at the end of the passage? (8

kelime)

Praise to

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 2

1-) Which man in the passage is in a better state inside: the unbelieving man or the believing man? (3 kelime)

2-) How does he think about living things? (11 kelime)
He thinks

3-) What does he think about mountains and oceans? (8 kelime)
He thinks

4-) What two bad things bring him to that suffering? (4 kelime)
Unbelief

5-) Why is the next world described as better? (8 kelime)
Because it

6-) What does the believer call death after life's duties are done? (10 kelime)
A release

7-) What does belief bring out for a person? (5 kelime)
Beautiful,

8-) What grows from belief, according to the passage? (7 kelime)
Something

9-) What relationship does the believer feel with all beings? (11 kelime)
He feels

10-) According to the passage, where can people find true safety? (4
kelime)
In

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 3

1-) What kind of person is the first man meant to show? (10 kelime)

Someone without

2-) What are two sad things the first man thinks are happening to living creatures? (12 kelime)

He thinks they

3-) What causes these painful thoughts in him? (8 kelime)

His lack

4-) What makes those delusions grow? (3 kelime)

5-) What does the believer know about Allah that changes everything? (12 kelime)

He knows Allah

6-) What does the passage say every living being is like? (7 kelime)

A

7-) What does birth begin for a living thing? (4 kelime)

Its

8-) Which is linked to Hell in the passage: belief or unbelief? (1 kelime)

9-) Where are safety and rescue found? (4 kelime)

In

10-) What should Muslims say often because of this blessing? (9 kelime)

Praise be

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 4

1-) What is one big difference between the first man and the second man? (13 kelime)

The first has

2-) How does he imagine animals and people in that world? (11 kelime)

He imagines

3-) What is one important thing the believer knows about Allah? (5 kelime)

He

4-) What does the believer accept about Allah? (9 kelime)

He knows

5-) How does the believer understand the world as a place for creatures? (13 kelime)

He understands it

6-) For the believer, is death only loss? (16 kelime)

No. It is the

7-) In the believer's eyes, who owns all beings? (5 kelime)

His

8-) What do creature sounds show at the start and end of their work? (17 kelime)

At the start they

9-) What does belief grow into in the passage's example? (7 kelime)
A

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 5

1-) The first man is a picture of what kind of life inside a person? (12 kelime)

A life inside

2-) What does the first man think death and separation do? (9 kelime)
He thinks

3-) Are these thoughts calming or painful for him? (5 kelime)
They

4-) Why does the believer see death differently? (15 kelime)
Because he believes

5-) In the believer's view, what does death mean for people and animals? (14 kelime)
It means their

6-) What happens, in the believer's understanding, when a creature finishes its life duty? (10 kelime)
It leaves

7-) What good words describe living beings in the believer's view? (5 kelime)
Joyful,

8-) Which has a good seed in the passage, belief or unbelief? (1 kelime)

9-) How should this lesson affect our words? (9 kelime)
We should

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 6

1-) In the passage, what does the first man's unbelief do to his view of life? (10 kelime)

It fills

2-) How does he think of people and animals when they die? (10 kelime)

He thinks

3-) How does belief change the second man's way of seeing the world? (10 kelime)

It makes

4-) What kind of person is the second man meant to show? (2 kelime)

5-) What comparison is used for living beings in the believer's view? (7 kelime)

They

6-) How are living things described in the believer's view? (8 kelime)

They are

7-) What does birth show in this example? (6 kelime)

Being

8-) How does the believer see the creatures around him? (8 kelime)

As servants

9-) What does the example of the Hell tree teach about unbelief? (7

kelime)
Unbelief

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) Who does the first man stand for in the passage?
A person who does not believe, or someone who is sinful and careless.
- 2-) What does he think living creatures are like?
He thinks they are lonely and crying under loss.
- 3-) What does he wrongly think about giant created things?
He thinks they are only dead and frightening.
- 4-) What are three things the believer sees this world as?
A place of Allah's remembrance, a school, and a test place.
- 5-) What does the believer think this world is for?
For remembering Allah, learning, and being tested.
- 6-) What do the voices of creatures mean in the believer's view?
They show praise, thanks, and happiness in serving Allah.
- 7-) What are the sounds of living things like in the believer's view?
They are praises, thanks, and joyful sounds.
- 8-) What are living beings compared to in a happy way?
To regular soldiers and honest officials.
- 9-) What does the example of the Paradise tree teach about belief?
Belief leads to something beautiful and blessed.
- 10-) What should a Muslim say often at the end of the passage?
Praise to Allah for Islam and complete belief.

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which man in the passage is in a better state inside: the unbelieving man or the believing man?

The believing man.

2-) How does he think about living things?

He thinks they are lonely and hurt by death and separation.

3-) What does he think about mountains and oceans?

He thinks they are huge, lifeless, and frightening.

4-) What two bad things bring him to that suffering?

Unbelief and going astray.

5-) Why is the next world described as better?

Because it is happy and free from trouble.

6-) What does the believer call death after life's duties are done?

A release from duty and a move to another world.

7-) What does belief bring out for a person?

Beautiful, sweet, and uplifting truths.

8-) What grows from belief, according to the passage?

Something like a beautiful tree of Paradise.

9-) What relationship does the believer feel with all beings?

He feels they are friendly and belong to his merciful Lord.

10-) According to the passage, where can people find true safety?

In Islam and belief.

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is the first man meant to show?

Someone without faith, or someone who is corrupt and heedless.

2-) What are two sad things the first man thinks are happening to living creatures?

He thinks they are alone, and he thinks death tears them away.

3-) What causes these painful thoughts in him?

His lack of belief and his wrong path.

4-) What makes those delusions grow?

Unbelief and misguidance.

5-) What does the believer know about Allah that changes everything?

He knows Allah and believes Allah is truly there and in control.

6-) What does the passage say every living being is like?

A cheerful soldier or a trustworthy worker.

7-) What does birth begin for a living thing?

Its service and responsibilities.

8-) Which is linked to Hell in the passage: belief or unbelief?

Unbelief.

9-) Where are safety and rescue found?

In Islam and belief.

10-) What should Muslims say often because of this blessing?

Praise be to Allah for Islam and perfect belief.

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one big difference between the first man and the second man?

The first has no true belief, and the second has belief in Allah.

2-) How does he imagine animals and people in that world?

He imagines them as helpless and cut off from one another.

3-) What is one important thing the believer knows about Allah?

He knows and confirms Allah.

4-) What does the believer accept about Allah?

He knows Allah is real and believes in Him.

5-) How does the believer understand the world as a place for creatures?

He understands it as a place where people and animals learn and serve.

6-) For the believer, is death only loss?

No. It is the end of duty and the start of going on to another world.

7-) In the believer's eyes, who owns all beings?

His generous and merciful Lord.

8-) What do creature sounds show at the start and end of their work?

At the start they show praise of Allah, and at the end they show thanks and joy.

9-) What does belief grow into in the passage's example?

A blessed tree like one from Paradise.

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) The first man is a picture of what kind of life inside a person?

A life inside a person who has no faith or lives carelessly.

2-) What does the first man think death and separation do?

He thinks they strike creatures and leave them helpless.

3-) Are these thoughts calming or painful for him?

They are painful and crushing.

4-) Why does the believer see death differently?

Because he believes it is not the end but a move after duties are done.

5-) In the believer's view, what does death mean for people and animals?

It means their work here is finished and they move to a better world.

6-) What happens, in the believer's understanding, when a creature finishes its life duty?

It leaves this world for another peaceful and happy one.

7-) What good words describe living beings in the believer's view?

Joyful, honest, content, and friendly.

8-) Which has a good seed in the passage, belief or unbelief?

Belief.

9-) How should this lesson affect our words?

We should keep thanking Allah for Islam and faith.

2sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what does the first man's unbelief do to his view of life?

It fills his view with sorrow, fear, and false ideas.

2-) How does he think of people and animals when they die?

He thinks they are torn away with no loving purpose.

3-) How does belief change the second man's way of seeing the world?

It makes him see meaning, mercy, and order in it.

4-) What kind of person is the second man meant to show?

A believer.

5-) What comparison is used for living beings in the believer's view?

They are compared to soldiers and workers.

6-) How are living things described in the believer's view?

They are like happy soldiers and honest workers.

7-) What does birth show in this example?

Being called to begin life's work.

8-) How does the believer see the creatures around him?

As servants of Allah and signs from Him.

9-) What does the example of the Hell tree teach about unbelief?

Unbelief leads to something harmful and terrible.