

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 1

1-) What does this part say Allah gives to believers when they give themselves and their things to Him? (1 kelime)

2-) In this passage, giving yourself and your things to Allah is compared to what kind of deal? (4 kelime)

A

3-) What two honorable roles are named for a person who gives himself to Allah? (5 kelime)

Allah's

4-) How does the passage describe this trade: bad, small, or profitable? (1 kelime)

5-) How does the passage describe the place of a person who does this trade: low or honorable? (1 kelime)

6-) What should someone do if they want to understand this good trade better? (4 kelime)

Listen

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 2

1-) Which people are spoken about in the verse at the start of this passage? (1 kelime)

2-) What do believers give to Allah in the verse? (5 kelime)
Their

3-) What reward is promised to them? (1 kelime)

4-) Besides being a good trade, what else is this choice called in the passage? (3 kelime)

5-) If a person belongs to Allah as His slave, what does that show about the person? (6 kelime)
The

6-) Why is this trade worth making, based on the passage? (7 kelime)
Because

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 3

1-) What two things are joined together in the verse as what believers give? (5 kelime)

Their

2-) What is one title for the person who belongs to Allah in this passage? (2 kelime)

3-) What is another title for that person? (2 kelime)

4-) What does the passage say a person should do to learn about this idea? (7 kelime)

Pay

5-) Does the passage present this trade as a loss or a gain? (2 kelime)

6-) How will the next teaching be given, according to this passage? (3 kelime)

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 4

1-) In this passage, who is making the “purchase”? (1 kelime)

2-) Who is being asked to give themselves and their property? (2 kelime)

3-) What do they receive in return? (1 kelime)

4-) What kind of lesson is about to come after these lines? (3 kelime)

5-) Why does the passage use a comparison? (8 kelime)

To help

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say about the reward for believers who give themselves and their things to Allah? (4 kelime)

They

2-) Is this action shown as something shameful or something noble? (2 kelime)

3-) What two words show that this choice is both useful and respected? (3 kelime)

4-) What is the first step the passage tells the reader to take to understand this message? (4 kelime)

Listen

5-) What is the passage trying to help the reader understand better? (11 kelime)

Why giving

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 6

1-) According to the verse here, what belongs to believers after this trade? (4 kelime)

Paradise

2-) What are the two things mentioned that believers offer to Allah? (6 kelime)

Their

3-) The passage says this trade brings what kind of rank? (3 kelime)

4-) The passage says a person becomes whose slave and whose soldier? (5 kelime)

Allah's

5-) What can we infer about this trade if it is called profitable? (7 kelime)

The

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does this part say Allah gives to believers when they give themselves and their things to Him?

Paradise.

2-) In this passage, giving yourself and your things to Allah is compared to what kind of deal?

A very good trade.

3-) What two honorable roles are named for a person who gives himself to Allah?

Allah's servant and Allah's soldier.

4-) How does the passage describe this trade: bad, small, or profitable? Profitable.

5-) How does the passage describe the place of a person who does this trade: low or honorable?

Honorable.

6-) What should someone do if they want to understand this good trade better?

Listen to the comparison.

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which people are spoken about in the verse at the start of this passage?

Believers.

2-) What do believers give to Allah in the verse?

Their selves and their property.

3-) What reward is promised to them?

Jannah.

4-) Besides being a good trade, what else is this choice called in the passage?

A noble rank.

5-) If a person belongs to Allah as His slave, what does that show about the person?

The person serves and obeys Allah.

6-) Why is this trade worth making, based on the passage?

Because it brings great gain and honor.

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two things are joined together in the verse as what believers give?

Their lives and their belongings.

2-) What is one title for the person who belongs to Allah in this passage?

His servant.

3-) What is another title for that person?

His soldier.

4-) What does the passage say a person should do to learn about this idea?

Pay attention to the example that follows.

5-) Does the passage present this trade as a loss or a gain?

A gain.

6-) How will the next teaching be given, according to this passage?

Through a comparison.

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, who is making the “purchase”?

Allah.

2-) Who is being asked to give themselves and their property?

The believers.

3-) What do they receive in return?

Paradise.

4-) What kind of lesson is about to come after these lines?

A comparison story.

5-) Why does the passage use a comparison?

To help people understand the idea more clearly.

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about the reward for believers who give themselves and their things to Allah?

They will have Paradise.

2-) Is this action shown as something shameful or something noble?

Something noble.

3-) What two words show that this choice is both useful and respected?

Profitable and honorable.

4-) What is the first step the passage tells the reader to take to understand this message?

Listen to the example.

5-) What is the passage trying to help the reader understand better?

Why giving yourself and your property to Allah is so good.

2sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the verse here, what belongs to believers after this trade?

Paradise belongs to them.

2-) What are the two things mentioned that believers offer to Allah?
Their own selves and their property.

3-) The passage says this trade brings what kind of rank?
An honorable rank.

4-) The passage says a person becomes whose slave and whose soldier?

Allah's slave and Allah's soldier.

5-) What can we infer about this trade if it is called profitable?
The person gains a lot from it.