

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1

1-) What happens to things that do not stay forever when they are used for Allah? (5 kelime)

They

2-) Are the moments of life truly lost when they are used for Allah? (5 kelime)

No,

3-) What is said about the value of the senses in the third benefit? (6 kelime)

Their

4-) What does that harmful use make a person remember and fear too much? (5 kelime)

Past

5-) What body part is called a window? (2 kelime)

6-) What does the eye become when it is used as Allah wants? (7 kelime)

A

7-) After the examples of mind, eye, and tongue, what are readers told to do with the other body gifts? (6 kelime)

Compare

8-) What does the passage say to compare with these examples? (6 kelime)

All

9-) What must a person do to avoid a troubled inner life? (3 kelime)

10-) What will be rewarded from a person's members and instruments?

(6 kelime)
Their

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2

1-) How many gains are explained in the passage? (1 kelime)

2-) What is given as the great payment in the second gain? (1 kelime)

3-) What is the third profit about in a few words? (8 kelime)

Our senses

4-) What does this harmful intelligence fill a person with about yesterday and tomorrow? (3 kelime)

5-) What good future does rightly used intelligence guide a person toward? (2 kelime)

6-) What sense works together with the tongue in the next example? (1 kelime)

7-) What do the mind, eye, and tongue examples teach about the other senses too? (10 kelime)

They can

8-) Why does the believer receive a higher value? (11 kelime)

Because he

9-) In the fourth profit, what is one truth about human beings? (3 kelime)

10-) What things done by our limbs are rewarded? (6 kelime)

Acts

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3

1-) What is the big idea of the first gain? (5 kelime)

What

2-) What picture is used for short life moments before they grow into reward? (1 kelime)

3-) If a person uses the mind only for selfish desires, what kind of burden can it bring? (3 kelime)

4-) What two troubles can such a mind keep bringing back? (5 kelime)
Past

5-) What does that good intelligence help lead to? (2 kelime)

6-) What high work does the eye do when it is used within Allah's limits? (6 kelime)
It

7-) What are readers asked to do after hearing these examples? (11 kelime)
Think of

8-) In the fourth gain, what three words describe people? (4 kelime)
Helpless,

9-) What can happen inside a person if he does not trust Allah? (6 kelime)
His

10-) What can happen if he does not do that? (9 kelime)
He can

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4

1-) What change happens to temporary belongings in the first gain? (5 kelime)

They

2-) Besides the everlasting world, what other place is mentioned as receiving a bright side from those moments? (8 kelime)

The world

3-) In the third gain, what happens to each body part and sense? (5 kelime)

It

4-) If the mind is used for Allah, what does it become like? (6 kelime)

A

5-) What does that key open? (5 kelime)

Treasures

6-) If the eye is used rightly, what does it become able to notice? (4 kelime)

Wonderful

7-) If they are used for Allah, what quality do they show? (1 kelime)

8-) In the fourth gain, what is one reason people need Allah? (4 kelime)

They

9-) What bad results come if a person does not lean on Allah? (6 kelime)

Torment,

10-) In what form will that reward come? (4 kelime)

As

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5

1-) How does the passage describe the first benefit of giving oneself to Allah? (8 kelime)

Short life

2-) What do those moments produce in the lasting world? (2 kelime)

3-) Which ability is compared to a useful tool? (1 kelime)

4-) Why might a sinful person run to foolish fun or drink, according to the passage? (5 kelime)

To

5-) If the eye is used only to chase passing beauty, what does it become low and dirty for? (2 kelime)

6-) What happens to the eye if it is used only for selfish looking? (6 kelime)

It

7-) If taste is used for Allah, what kind of person is it like? (3 kelime)

8-) What kind of person becomes fit for Hell? (6 kelime)

An

9-) What can unchecked pain and regret do to a person in the fourth gain? (5 kelime)

Overwhelm

10-) When are the rewards especially given? (6 kelime)

When

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6

1-) What does the first profit say happens to things that do not last? (4 kelime)

They

2-) Where do those blessings bloom? (4 kelime)

In

3-) Which example comes first: the ear, the mind, or the hand? (2 kelime)

4-) What kind of person is said to look for unhealthy escape because of that pain? (3 kelime)

5-) Which sense is described as helping the spirit look at the world? (2 kelime)

6-) If the tongue is used only for the stomach and selfish wants, what low job is it compared to? (5 kelime)

A

7-) If they are used only for the stomach, what do they become like? (4 kelime)

Workers

8-) What causes an unbeliever to have a Hell-like character? (7 kelime)

Using

9-) What can happen to a person who refuses this help from Allah? (8 kelime)

He can

10-) What will those actions become for the person later? (3 kelime)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What happens to things that do not stay forever when they are used for Allah?

They turn into lasting reward.

2-) Are the moments of life truly lost when they are used for Allah?

No, they bring eternal good.

3-) What is said about the value of the senses in the third benefit?

Their value grows many times over.

4-) What does that harmful use make a person remember and fear too much?

Past sadness and future worries.

5-) What body part is called a window?

The eye.

6-) What does the eye become when it is used as Allah wants?

A viewer of Allah's signs in creation.

7-) After the examples of mind, eye, and tongue, what are readers told to do with the other body gifts?

Compare them in the same way.

8-) What does the passage say to compare with these examples?

All the other limbs and tools.

9-) What must a person do to avoid a troubled inner life?

Depend on Allah.

10-) What will be rewarded from a person's members and instruments?

Their worship and praise of Allah.

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How many gains are explained in the passage?

Five.

2-) What is given as the great payment in the second gain?

Paradise.

3-) What is the third profit about in a few words?

Our senses and limbs become far more valuable.

4-) What does this harmful intelligence fill a person with about yesterday and tomorrow?

Sorrows and fears.

5-) What good future does rightly used intelligence guide a person toward?

Eternal happiness.

6-) What sense works together with the tongue in the next example?

Taste.

7-) What do the mind, eye, and tongue examples teach about the other senses too?

They can rise or fall by how we use them.

8-) Why does the believer receive a higher value?

Because he uses Allah's gifts for Allah and within His limits.

9-) In the fourth profit, what is one truth about human beings?

They are needy.

10-) What things done by our limbs are rewarded?

Acts of worship and glorifying Allah.

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the big idea of the first gain?

What fades can become everlasting.

2-) What picture is used for short life moments before they grow into reward?

Seeds.

3-) If a person uses the mind only for selfish desires, what kind of burden can it bring?

Sadness and fear.

4-) What two troubles can such a mind keep bringing back?

Past sorrow and future fear.

5-) What does that good intelligence help lead to?

Lasting joy.

6-) What high work does the eye do when it is used within Allah's limits?

It reads the signs in creation.

7-) What are readers asked to do after hearing these examples?

Think of the rest of the limbs in the same way.

8-) In the fourth gain, what three words describe people?

Helpless, needy, and weak.

9-) What can happen inside a person if he does not trust Allah?

His heart and conscience stay upset.

10-) What can happen if he does not do that?

He can be filled with useless pain and regret.

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What change happens to temporary belongings in the first gain?
They become everlasting in reward.

2-) Besides the everlasting world, what other place is mentioned as receiving a bright side from those moments?

The world between this life and the next.

3-) In the third gain, what happens to each body part and sense?
It becomes far more valuable.

4-) If the mind is used for Allah, what does it become like?

A key that opens great treasures.

5-) What does that key open?

Treasures of mercy and wisdom.

6-) If the eye is used rightly, what does it become able to notice?

Wonderful signs from Allah.

7-) If they are used for Allah, what quality do they show?

Thankfulness.

8-) In the fourth gain, what is one reason people need Allah?

They face many troubles.

9-) What bad results come if a person does not lean on Allah?

Torment, regret, and being dragged down.

10-) In what form will that reward come?

As fruits of Paradise.

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe the first benefit of giving oneself to Allah?

Short life becomes a source of lasting reward.

2-) What do those moments produce in the lasting world?

Blessed results.

3-) Which ability is compared to a useful tool?

Intelligence.

4-) Why might a sinful person run to foolish fun or drink, according to the passage?

To hide from inner pain.

5-) If the eye is used only to chase passing beauty, what does it become low and dirty for?

Wrong desires.

6-) What happens to the eye if it is used only for selfish looking?

It falls to a low use.

7-) If taste is used for Allah, what kind of person is it like?

A thankful inspector.

8-) What kind of person becomes fit for Hell?

An unbeliever who betrays the trust.

9-) What can unchecked pain and regret do to a person in the fourth gain?

Overwhelm him and lower him.

10-) When are the rewards especially given?

When a person needs them most.

2sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the first profit say happens to things that do not last?
They become everlasting rewards.

2-) Where do those blessings bloom?
In the everlasting world.

3-) Which example comes first: the ear, the mind, or the hand?
The mind.

4-) What kind of person is said to look for unhealthy escape because of that pain?
A sinful person.

5-) Which sense is described as helping the spirit look at the world?
The eye.

6-) If the tongue is used only for the stomach and selfish wants, what low job is it compared to?
A guard for the stomach.

7-) If they are used only for the stomach, what do they become like?
Workers for the belly.

8-) What causes an unbeliever to have a Hell-like character?
Using the trust for the lower self.

9-) What can happen to a person who refuses this help from Allah?
He can be choked by pain and regret.

10-) What will those actions become for the person later?
Rewards from Paradise.