

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 1

1-) What happens when a person makes this short worldly life his biggest goal? (15 kelime)

He lives in

2-) If someone truly turns toward the life that lasts forever, what does he receive? (11 kelime)

He gets

3-) Which life in the passage is short and does not last? (4 kelime)

Life

4-) Which life in the passage lasts forever? (4 kelime)

The

5-) How might this world feel for a person who cares about the next life? (6 kelime)

It

6-) Why can that person keep going even when life is hard? (11 kelime)

He sees

7-) What good actions does that person do while facing hardship? (6 kelime)

He

8-) Does the passage teach us to chase only this world or to care most about the next life? (10 kelime)

It teaches

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 2

1-) What is the main lesson of the passage? (17 kelime)

We should not make

2-) What kind of life is this world called in the passage? (5 kelime)

A

3-) Can someone look happy on the outside but still be in a very bad condition inside? (16 kelime)

Yes. A person may

4-) Who receives the happiness of both worlds? (8 kelime)

The person

5-) What does “both worlds” mean here? (6 kelime)

This

6-) What picture is used to describe this world for a believer? (5 kelime)

A

7-) How should a person act while waiting through the hard parts of life? (4 kelime)

With

8-) If life is tough, does that mean a person has no happiness at all? (14 kelime)

No. A person

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 3

1-) In the passage, what mistake does a person make if he lives only for this world? (7 kelime)

He

2-) What is wrong with making only this world your purpose? (10 kelime)

It leads

3-) What kind of turning toward eternal life is mentioned? (5 kelime)

A

4-) What reward comes from that sincere turning? (4 kelime)

Happiness

5-) According to the passage, can this world still be painful for a good person? (8 kelime)

Yes. It

6-) What thought helps that person bear the pain? (11 kelime)

Thinking of

7-) What two beautiful qualities are named at the end of the passage? (3 kelime)

8-) Which person is doing better in the passage: the one who loves only this world, or the one who prepares for the next life? (8 kelime)

The one

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say about a person whose heart is tied only to this world? (8 kelime)

That person

2-) Even if a person seems to be surrounded by nice things, can he still be unhappy inside? (9 kelime)

Yes. Outside

3-) What should a person face toward with real care and effort? (3 kelime)

4-) What kind of happiness comes from that choice? (6 kelime)

Happiness

5-) How is this world described for the person who believes and stays focused on the next life? (8 kelime)

Like a

6-) When troubles come, what does that person do instead of giving up? (5 kelime)

He

7-) What does this teach about hard times? (13 kelime)

Hard times can

8-) Is the passage more about outside looks or about a person's real goal? (7 kelime)

It

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 5

1-) What is one big contrast in the passage? (14 kelime)

One person lives

2-) Which person ends up with true happiness? (8 kelime)

The one

3-) What does the passage say about the person who only wants worldly life? (11 kelime)

He is

4-) What does “apparently in Paradise” mean in simple words? (7 kelime)

Life

5-) What does the person focused on the next life get besides future reward? (5 kelime)

Happiness

6-) Why does he not fall apart when life is difficult? (10 kelime)

He knows

7-) What are the two ways he responds to suffering? (5 kelime)

He

8-) What should a Muslim child learn from this passage? (17 kelime)

To love the next

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 6

1-) What should not be the biggest aim of our life, according to the passage? (4 kelime)

This

2-) Why is it not wise to make this world our highest goal? (7 kelime)

Because

3-) What should be our greater goal instead? (5 kelime)

The

4-) What does a person gain when he truly seeks that lasting life? (8 kelime)

Joy in

5-) Does the passage promise that this world will always be easy for such a person? (8 kelime)

No. It

6-) What understanding helps him stay strong? (11 kelime)

He sees

7-) What attitude does he show while he waits? (5 kelime)

He

8-) If two people both have hard lives, which one is better off in the passage? (12 kelime)

The one who

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What happens when a person makes this short worldly life his biggest goal?

He lives in a bad state inside, even if life looks nice on the outside.

2-) If someone truly turns toward the life that lasts forever, what does he receive?

He gets happiness in this life and in the next life.

3-) Which life in the passage is short and does not last?

Life in this world.

4-) Which life in the passage lasts forever?

The life to come.

5-) How might this world feel for a person who cares about the next life?

It may feel hard and upsetting.

6-) Why can that person keep going even when life is hard?

He sees this world as a place to wait before Paradise.

7-) What good actions does that person do while facing hardship?

He stays patient and thanks Allah.

8-) Does the passage teach us to chase only this world or to care most about the next life?

It teaches us to care most about the next life.

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main lesson of the passage?

We should not make this world our main goal; we should aim for the life to come.

2-) What kind of life is this world called in the passage?

A life that passes quickly.

3-) Can someone look happy on the outside but still be in a very bad condition inside?

Yes. A person may seem to be in a good place but still be miserable inside.

4-) Who receives the happiness of both worlds?

The person who sincerely aims for eternal life.

5-) What does "both worlds" mean here?

This life and the next life.

6-) What picture is used to describe this world for a believer?

A waiting place before Paradise.

7-) How should a person act while waiting through the hard parts of life?

With patience and thankfulness.

8-) If life is tough, does that mean a person has no happiness at all?

No. A person who aims for the next life can still have real happiness.

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what mistake does a person make if he lives only for this world?

He makes the world his main purpose.

2-) What is wrong with making only this world your purpose?

It leads to inner misery, even if things seem pleasant.

3-) What kind of turning toward eternal life is mentioned?

A serious and sincere turning.

4-) What reward comes from that sincere turning?

Happiness in both lives.

5-) According to the passage, can this world still be painful for a good person?

Yes. It can still be difficult and sad.

6-) What thought helps that person bear the pain?

Thinking of this world as only a waiting room before Paradise.

7-) What two beautiful qualities are named at the end of the passage?

Patience and thankfulness.

8-) Which person is doing better in the passage: the one who loves only this world, or the one who prepares for the next life?

The one who prepares for the next life.

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about a person whose heart is tied only to this world?

That person is in a terrible inner state.

2-) Even if a person seems to be surrounded by nice things, can he still be unhappy inside?

Yes. Outside comfort does not always mean true happiness.

3-) What should a person face toward with real care and effort?

The everlasting life.

4-) What kind of happiness comes from that choice?

Happiness here and in the hereafter.

5-) How is this world described for the person who believes and stays focused on the next life?

Like a place to wait before entering Paradise.

6-) When troubles come, what does that person do instead of giving up?

He endures and thanks Allah.

7-) What does this teach about hard times?

Hard times can be borne with patience when we remember what comes after.

8-) Is the passage more about outside looks or about a person's real goal?

It is about a person's real goal.

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols- divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one big contrast in the passage?

One person lives only for this world, and another lives for the eternal life.

2-) Which person ends up with true happiness?

The one who aims for the eternal life.

3-) What does the passage say about the person who only wants worldly life?

He is in a painful condition, even if things look beautiful.

4-) What does “apparently in Paradise” mean in simple words?

Life may look wonderful on the outside.

5-) What does the person focused on the next life get besides future reward?

Happiness in this life too.

6-) Why does he not fall apart when life is difficult?

He knows this world is only a place before Paradise.

7-) What are the two ways he responds to suffering?

He is patient and thankful.

8-) What should a Muslim child learn from this passage?

To love the next life more than this world and to be patient and thankful to Allah.

2sinif short-words-p32-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-divine-unity-grave-and-death - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What should not be the biggest aim of our life, according to the passage?

This passing worldly life.

2-) Why is it not wise to make this world our highest goal?

Because it leads to real unhappiness inside.

3-) What should be our greater goal instead?

The life that never ends.

4-) What does a person gain when he truly seeks that lasting life?

Joy in both this world and the next.

5-) Does the passage promise that this world will always be easy for such a person?

No. It may still be hard and painful.

6-) What understanding helps him stay strong?

He sees this life as a short waiting place before Paradise.

7-) What attitude does he show while he waits?

He is patient and grateful.

8-) If two people both have hard lives, which one is better off in the passage?

The one who looks toward eternal life and thanks Allah with patience.