

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 1

1-) What does a servant notice about himself in worship? (5 kelime)
His

2-) What does the servant feel when he thinks about Allah's perfect greatness? (3 kelime)

3-) What feelings are joined with that prostration? (3 kelime)

4-) Besides being free of flaws, what else is true about Allah compared with wrong ideas? (7 kelime)
He

5-) What does the servant notice about himself when thinking about Allah's power? (5 kelime)
He

6-) When the servant sees the greatness of Allah's power, what cry comes from admiration? (2 kelime)

7-) Should the servant think only about his own needs in du'a? (8 kelime)
No, he

8-) What part of Allah is described as an endless treasure? (2 kelime)

9-) Does he speak only for himself? (5 kelime)
No,

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 2

1-) What is one big meaning of worship in this passage? (8 kelime)
Knowing we

2-) In Allah's presence, what act shows the servant's humble love and awe? (1 kelime)

3-) What does Allah's being the Lord of all call people to do? (5 kelime)
Obey

4-) What does glorifying Allah teach about Him? (7 kelime)
That

5-) What kind of ideas about Allah are pushed away in this passage? (4 kelime)
Misguided

6-) What feeling goes with these words in the passage? (3 kelime)

7-) When the servant bows in humility, whom does he turn to for safety? (1 kelime)

8-) Because of that mercy, what does the servant bring before Allah? (8 kelime)
His needs

9-) How does the servant speak about Allah's gifts and favors? (5 kelime)
He

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 3

1-) In worship, does the servant begin by thinking he is perfect or by seeing his faults? (4 kelime)

By

2-) What does Allah's rule over everything ask from the servant? (3 kelime)

3-) What should the servant seek when he knows he has done wrong? (1 kelime)

4-) What should a servant do when he notices his sins? (5 kelime)
Ask

5-) Why does the servant say "Allahu Akbar" here? (8 kelime)
Because he

6-) Which phrase fits praising Allah's greatness in this part? (2 kelime)

7-) What does the servant realize about himself and all creatures before saying that? (7 kelime)
They

8-) What phrase is used to thank Allah for His blessings? (1 kelime)

9-) What words show thanks for blessings? (1 kelime)

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 4

1-) What kind of person is being described in this passage during worship? (4 kelime)

A

2-) What three beautiful things of Allah are mentioned for the servant to honor? (7 kelime)

His

3-) What does Allah's lordship require from His servant? (3 kelime)

4-) What does the servant reject when he glorifies Allah? (7 kelime)

Any

5-) What does the servant understand about other created things too? (5 kelime)

They

6-) What words does he say when he is struck by Allah's mighty works? (2 kelime)

7-) What does the servant place in Allah after that? (2 kelime)

8-) What kind of "treasury" of Allah is mentioned? (5 kelime)

An

9-) How does the servant answer Allah's favors and gifts? (4 kelime)

With

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 5

1-) According to the passage, what helps the servant be humble in worship? (6 kelime)

Seeing

2-) In front of Allah's greatness, what special act of worship is mentioned? (1 kelime)

3-) What does saying "SubhanAllah" show about Allah? (8 kelime)
Allah is

4-) Are people's false ideas able to lower Allah in any way? (6 kelime)
No,

5-) What does that dhikr tell us about Allah and the universe's faults? (7 kelime)
None

6-) What does Allah's endless mercy treasure ask from the servant? (9 kelime)
To show

7-) What two choices does the servant make instead of depending on himself? (8 kelime)
He seeks

8-) What does mercy make the servant talk about in du'a? (3 kelime)

9-) From where were these prayer meanings set down? (6 kelime)
From

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 6

1-) What is the servant supposed to see in himself during worship? (5 kelime)

His

2-) Before Allah's mercy and power, what does the servant do? (5 kelime)

He

3-) How does a servant respond to Allah's holiness? (9 kelime)

He asks

4-) What does glorifying Allah say about every defect? (5 kelime)

No

5-) Which words show respect for Allah's mighty power? (2 kelime)

6-) What body action matches deep humility in this part? (1 kelime)

7-) What endless gift of Allah is mentioned next? (2 kelime)

8-) Whose needs does he remember besides his own? (5 kelime)

The

9-) What do the prayers include altogether? (9 kelime)

Admitting need,

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does a servant notice about himself in worship?

His mistakes, weakness, and need.

2-) What does the servant feel when he thinks about Allah's perfect greatness?

Love and amazement.

3-) What feelings are joined with that prostration?

Love and wonder.

4-) Besides being free of flaws, what else is true about Allah compared with wrong ideas?

He is far above all false ideas.

5-) What does the servant notice about himself when thinking about Allah's power?

He is weak and helpless.

6-) When the servant sees the greatness of Allah's power, what cry comes from admiration?

"Allahu Akbar."

7-) Should the servant think only about his own needs in du'a?

No, he should remember all creatures' needs too.

8-) What part of Allah is described as an endless treasure?

His mercy.

9-) Does he speak only for himself?

No, also for all creatures.

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one big meaning of worship in this passage?

Knowing we are weak and needy before Allah.

2-) In Allah's presence, what act shows the servant's humble love and awe?

Prostration.

3-) What does Allah's being the Lord of all call people to do?

Obey Him and worship Him.

4-) What does glorifying Allah teach about Him?

That He has no defects at all.

5-) What kind of ideas about Allah are pushed away in this passage?

Misguided and false ideas.

6-) What feeling goes with these words in the passage?

Wonder and admiration.

7-) When the servant bows in humility, whom does he turn to for safety?

Allah.

8-) Because of that mercy, what does the servant bring before Allah?

His needs and the needs of all creatures.

9-) How does the servant speak about Allah's gifts and favors?

He thanks and praises Allah.

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In worship, does the servant begin by thinking he is perfect or by seeing his faults?

By seeing his faults.

2-) What does Allah's rule over everything ask from the servant?

Worship and obedience.

3-) What should the servant seek when he knows he has done wrong?

Forgiveness.

4-) What should a servant do when he notices his sins?

Ask Allah to forgive him.

5-) Why does the servant say "Allahu Akbar" here?

Because he is amazed by Allah's great power.

6-) Which phrase fits praising Allah's greatness in this part?

"Allahu Akbar."

7-) What does the servant realize about himself and all creatures before saying that?

They are weak and unable by themselves.

8-) What phrase is used to thank Allah for His blessings?

"Alhamdulillah."

9-) What words show thanks for blessings?

"Alhamdulillah."

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is being described in this passage during worship?

A servant of Allah.

2-) What three beautiful things of Allah are mentioned for the servant to honor?

His perfection, His mercy, and His power.

3-) What does Allah's lordship require from His servant?

Worship and obedience.

4-) What does the servant reject when he glorifies Allah?

Any wrong or low idea about Allah.

5-) What does the servant understand about other created things too?

They are weak and powerless.

6-) What words does he say when he is struck by Allah's mighty works?

"Allahu Akbar."

7-) What does the servant place in Allah after that?

His trust.

8-) What kind of "treasury" of Allah is mentioned?

An endless treasure of mercy.

9-) How does the servant answer Allah's favors and gifts?

With gratitude and praise.

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what helps the servant be humble in worship?

Seeing his own weakness and faults.

2-) In front of Allah's greatness, what special act of worship is mentioned?

Prostration.

3-) What does saying "SubhanAllah" show about Allah?

Allah is perfect and free from every flaw.

4-) Are people's false ideas able to lower Allah in any way?

No, He is far above them.

5-) What does that dhikr tell us about Allah and the universe's faults?

None of those faults belong to Allah.

6-) What does Allah's endless mercy treasure ask from the servant?

To show his needs and ask Allah for help.

7-) What two choices does the servant make instead of depending on himself?

He seeks refuge in Allah and trusts Allah.

8-) What does mercy make the servant talk about in du'a?

Needs and poverty.

9-) From where were these prayer meanings set down?

From the Divine side, from Allah.

2sinif short-words-p36-ninth-word-second-point-the-meaning-of-worship - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the servant supposed to see in himself during worship?

His mistakes, weakness, and neediness.

2-) Before Allah's mercy and power, what does the servant do?

He bows down and worships.

3-) How does a servant respond to Allah's holiness?

He asks forgiveness and says words of glorifying Allah.

4-) What does glorifying Allah say about every defect?

No defect belongs to Allah.

5-) Which words show respect for Allah's mighty power?

"Allahu Akbar."

6-) What body action matches deep humility in this part?

Bowing.

7-) What endless gift of Allah is mentioned next?

His mercy.

8-) Whose needs does he remember besides his own?

The needs of all creatures.

9-) What do the prayers include altogether?

Admitting need, glorifying Allah, trusting Him, and thanking Him.