

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 1

1-) What time of day is this passage about? (5 kelime)

Sunset,

2-) What happens to the beautiful living things from summer and fall when this time comes? (8 kelime)

They pass

3-) What sad human event does sunset make a person remember? (8 kelime)

A person's

4-) Where does the passage say a person goes after death? (3 kelime)

5-) What big event for the world does this time also bring to mind? (16 kelime)

The world will come

6-) What image shows that this world's test time will end? (6 kelime)

Its

7-) What kind of things are warned against in this passage? (13 kelime)

Loving temporary things

8-) Why is the warning strong at sunset? (12 kelime)

Because sunset shows

9-) What is one main idea of the passage? (21 kelime)

This time reminds people that

10-) If someone only loves things that do not last, what lesson should he learn from this passage? (16 kelime)
He should remember that

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 2

1-) Which prayer time is described in the target passage? (3 kelime)

2-) What season starts when the lovely things mentioned in the passage disappear? (1 kelime)

3-) How are those good-byes described? (7 kelime)

They

4-) What does sunset help us think about in a person's life? (7 kelime)

That

5-) How are the people a dying person loves affected? (5 kelime)

They

6-) What happens to the people of the world when the world ends, according to the passage? (5 kelime)

They

7-) What does the passage say will happen to the light of this world's testing place? (5 kelime)

It

8-) Who especially needs the warning in this passage? (15 kelime)

People who give

9-) What does the word "transient" mean here? (8 kelime)

Not lasting;

10-) What feeling does the passage give about sunset: only joy, only silliness, or a serious reminder? (3 kelime)

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 3

1-) What natural change at day's end begins this passage? (4 kelime)

The

2-) What does this time remind people about summer and fall? (8 kelime)

Their beauty

3-) What lesson about this world can children learn from that picture? (9 kelime)

Pretty things

4-) What personal change does the passage connect with this time of day? (7 kelime)

A

5-) What is left behind when a person dies? (4 kelime)

The

6-) What place is mentioned after death? (2 kelime)

7-) Besides one person's death, what much bigger ending is mentioned? (6 kelime)

The

8-) What happens to the world's people at that time? (6 kelime)

They

9-) What warning does this give about loving worldly things too much? (13 kelime)

We should not

10-) What is the best short summary of the passage? (19 kelime)
Sunset teaches that life

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 4

1-) What prayer time is linked with the ideas in this passage? (4 kelime)
The

2-) What happens to the gentle and beautiful beings from warm seasons when winter begins? (5 kelime)
They

3-) Are these changes shown as happy parties or sad partings? (2 kelime)

4-) What does this teach about changes in nature? (11 kelime)
Nature changes,

5-) What does the passage say a human being will do at death? (7 kelime)
Leave

6-) Why might this make a reader feel serious? (10 kelime)
Because it

7-) What future event for the whole world is described? (10 kelime)
The world

8-) What object in the passage stands for this world as a place of testing? (2 kelime)

9-) What happens to that lamp? (3 kelime)

10-) According to the passage, what kind of love is a mistake? (13 kelime)

Loving passing things

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 5

1-) At what part of the day does the target passage begin? (2 kelime)

2-) What happens to the lovely things from summer and autumn at that time? (7 kelime)

They

3-) What mood does the passage give with this picture? (5 kelime)

A

4-) What does sunset remind us about every person's life? (6 kelime)

Every

5-) When that happens, what separation takes place? (6 kelime)

The

6-) What new place is entered after that separation? (2 kelime)

7-) What does the passage say will happen when the world itself dies? (7 kelime)

Its

8-) What does the ending of the world's lamp show? (10 kelime)

This world's

9-) What kind of beloved things are called unsafe to depend on? (8 kelime)

Things that

10-) What wise choice does the passage push a reader toward? (8 kelime)

Not giving

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 6

1-) Which moment is being described: sunrise, noon, or sunset? (1 kelime)

2-) What happens to the nice creations of summer and fall when winter starts? (5 kelime)

They

3-) What word best fits the good-byes in the passage: cheerful or sorrowful? (1 kelime)

4-) What event in a person's life does this scene help us remember? (1 kelime)

5-) After death, what place does the passage mention first? (2 kelime)

6-) What does the passage say about the end of the whole world? (10 kelime)

The world

7-) Where do they move to? (3 kelime)

8-) What happens to the light of this testing place? (3 kelime)

9-) What kind of people receive a strong warning here? (10 kelime)

Those who

10-) What is the passage teaching about things in this world? (14 kelime)

They are temporary,

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What time of day is this passage about?

Sunset, the time of Maghrib.

2-) What happens to the beautiful living things from summer and fall when this time comes?

They pass away and disappear as winter begins.

3-) What sad human event does sunset make a person remember?

A person's death and leaving loved ones behind.

4-) Where does the passage say a person goes after death?

To the grave.

5-) What big event for the world does this time also bring to mind?

The world will come to an end, and its people will move on to other worlds.

6-) What image shows that this world's test time will end?

Its lamp will be put out.

7-) What kind of things are warned against in this passage?

Loving temporary things too much and treating them like they should be worshipped.

8-) Why is the warning strong at sunset?

Because sunset shows that beautiful things in this world do not last.

9-) What is one main idea of the passage?

This time reminds people that life in this world is short and they should not cling to things that fade away.

10-) If someone only loves things that do not last, what lesson should he learn from this passage?

He should remember that those things will go away and turn his heart toward what lasts.

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which prayer time is described in the target passage?

Maghrib, at sunset.

2-) What season starts when the lovely things mentioned in the passage disappear?

Winter.

3-) How are those good-byes described?

They are sad and full of parting.

4-) What does sunset help us think about in a person's life?

That one day each person will die.

5-) How are the people a dying person loves affected?

They are left in sadness.

6-) What happens to the people of the world when the world ends, according to the passage?

They move to other worlds.

7-) What does the passage say will happen to the light of this world's testing place?

It will be turned off.

8-) Who especially needs the warning in this passage?

People who give their hearts to things that are only here for a short time.

9-) What does the word "transient" mean here?

Not lasting; going away after a short time.

10-) What feeling does the passage give about sunset: only joy, only silliness, or a serious reminder?

A serious reminder.

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets- warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What natural change at day's end begins this passage?

The sun is setting.

2-) What does this time remind people about summer and fall?

Their beauty fades and comes to an end.

3-) What lesson about this world can children learn from that picture?

Pretty things in this world do not stay forever.

4-) What personal change does the passage connect with this time of day?

A person leaving this life through death.

5-) What is left behind when a person dies?

The people he loves.

6-) What place is mentioned after death?

The grave.

7-) Besides one person's death, what much bigger ending is mentioned?

The death of the whole world.

8-) What happens to the world's people at that time?

They go on to other worlds.

9-) What warning does this give about loving worldly things too much?

We should not treat short-lived things like they are our real forever beloveds.

10-) What is the best short summary of the passage?

Sunset teaches that life and worldly beauty pass away, so people should not attach themselves to what cannot last.

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What prayer time is linked with the ideas in this passage?

The sunset prayer, Maghrib.

2-) What happens to the gentle and beautiful beings from warm seasons when winter begins?

They vanish and are gone.

3-) Are these changes shown as happy parties or sad partings?

Sad partings.

4-) What does this teach about changes in nature?

Nature changes, and its beauty does not remain the same forever.

5-) What does the passage say a human being will do at death?

Leave loved ones and enter the grave.

6-) Why might this make a reader feel serious?

Because it reminds us that life in this world ends.

7-) What future event for the whole world is described?

The world will die and its inhabitants will leave it.

8-) What object in the passage stands for this world as a place of testing?

A lamp.

9-) What happens to that lamp?

It is extinguished.

10-) According to the passage, what kind of love is a mistake?

Loving passing things as if they were the true ones to hold onto.

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets- warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At what part of the day does the target passage begin?

At sunset.

2-) What happens to the lovely things from summer and autumn at that time?

They disappear as the cold season starts.

3-) What mood does the passage give with this picture?

A sad and thoughtful mood.

4-) What does sunset remind us about every person's life?

Every person will die one day.

5-) When that happens, what separation takes place?

The person parts from loved ones.

6-) What new place is entered after that separation?

The grave.

7-) What does the passage say will happen when the world itself dies?

Its people will leave for other worlds.

8-) What does the ending of the world's lamp show?

This world's time of testing will not go on forever.

9-) What kind of beloved things are called unsafe to depend on?

Things that fade, change, and do not last.

10-) What wise choice does the passage push a reader toward?

Not giving the heart fully to temporary things.

2sinif short-words-p46-ninth-word-fifth-point-sunsets-
warning-praise-and-servanthood-while-standing - Set 6 -
CEVAPLAR

1-) Which moment is being described: sunrise, noon, or sunset?
Sunset.

2-) What happens to the nice creations of summer and fall when winter starts?

They pass away from sight.

3-) What word best fits the good-byes in the passage: cheerful or sorrowful?

Sorrowful.

4-) What event in a person's life does this scene help us remember?
Death.

5-) After death, what place does the passage mention first?
The grave.

6-) What does the passage say about the end of the whole world?
The world will die, and its people will move on.

7-) Where do they move to?

To other worlds.

8-) What happens to the light of this testing place?
It goes out.

9-) What kind of people receive a strong warning here?
Those who attach themselves to things that do not last.

10-) What is the passage teaching about things in this world?
They are temporary, so we should not treat them like they will stay forever.