

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 1

1-) When night comes in the passage, how is the human spirit described? (9 kelime)

It is

2-) What does the person refuse to love in his heart? (5 kelime)

Things

3-) Who does the person turn to for safety and help? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What does the person ask Allah's mercy and guidance to do? (10 kelime)

To bring

5-) What time does the passage say this prayer is done before? (2 kelime)

6-) How is sleep described in a way that teaches a lesson? (7 kelime)

It

7-) Instead of loving weak and dying things too much, who does he stand before in prayer? (6 kelime)

He

8-) What takes the place of the things he fears? (2 kelime)

9-) What happens to a person when he says that he worships Allah alone? (8 kelime)

He gains

10-) What does saying “we ask for help” show about all creation? (5
kelime)

All

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 2

1-) What part of the day is the passage talking about? (1 kelime)

2-) What is the person's condition at that time according to the passage? (7 kelime)

He

3-) Who is the lasting Beloved the person seeks in prayer? (1 kelime)

4-) What does he ask Allah to send into his life and future? (1 kelime)

5-) What causes wounds in the person's heart in this passage? (8 kelime)

The leaving

6-) Why is this prayer especially meaningful before bed? (13 kelime)

Because bedtime reminds

7-) Why is the prayer called the last duty of worship in the day? (12 kelime)

Because it is

8-) Why is praising Allah better than praising needy creatures? (8 kelime)

Because Allah

9-) Who replaces the weak creatures from whom he asks things? (5 kelime)

The

10-) What change happens to the worshipper when he remembers the Day of Judgment belongs to Allah? (9 kelime)

He rises

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatihah - Set 3

1-) Why does the passage connect the 'Isha prayer with weakness and need? (8 kelime)

Because people

2-) What sentence from Prophet Ibrahim's story teaches the person not to cling to passing things? (8 kelime)

It teaches

3-) How can Allah's mercy help someone whose friends and loved ones are gone? (9 kelime)

It can

4-) How will guidance help with the future? (9 kelime)

It will

5-) What does "closing the daily record well" mean here? (7 kelime)

Ending

6-) What important act does he do before sleep? (8 kelime)

He offers

7-) How can a small and lonely person become honored? (10 kelime)

By being

8-) Who is better than all the beings that frighten people? (4 kelime)

Allah,

9-) What is one main idea of the whole passage? (16 kelime)
The 'Isha prayer helps

10-) What does he ask for when he says, "Guide us to the Straight Path"? (14 kelime)
He asks Allah

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 4

1-) At nightfall, what kinds of problems surround the human spirit in the passage? (9 kelime)

Weakness, need,

2-) What does a person say about things that go away and do not last? (8 kelime)

He does

3-) Why does the person turn to Allah in a life that goes by quickly? (9 kelime)

Because this

4-) What does the person do with his sadness and pain? (9 kelime)

He tells

5-) What does the person do before sleeping, no matter what happened that day? (4 kelime)

He

6-) Why does the person pray before sleeping? (13 kelime)

To finish the

7-) In prayer, what takes the place of weak beings he used to ask from? (6 kelime)

Allah,

8-) Why are needy and imperfect creatures not the right ones to praise like this? (12 kelime)

Because they are

9-) What do we learn about Allah from that beginning? (13 kelime)
Allah is the

10-) What kind of path does he ask Allah to show him at the end of the passage? (7 kelime)
The

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha -
Set 5

1-) Which prayer in the passage is linked with the coming of night? (3 kelime)

2-) What kind of world does the passage describe this life as? (7 kelime)

A

3-) What kind of shelter does prayer give him? (6 kelime)
Shelter

4-) What will Allah's guidance do for the person? (7 kelime)
It

5-) Where does he bring his complaints and crying? (3 kelime)

6-) Where does he pour out his grief? (5 kelime)
At

7-) Whom does he stand before instead of all the loved ones who die? (5 kelime)
The

8-) In prayer, who replaces all the mortal ones he loves? (6 kelime)
The

9-) How can a tiny human become important in the universe? (9 kelime)
By his

10-) What final request is made in this passage? (10 kelime)

To be

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatihah - Set 6

1-) What makes the time of night hard for a person in this passage? (9 kelime)

There is

2-) In this passage, why does a person seek shelter in Allah? (7 kelime)
Because

3-) What does the person hope a short prayer will bring him? (8 kelime)

A lasting

4-) Why is sleep an important time for worship in the passage? (9 kelime)

Because it

5-) What does the person do with his worries when he prays? (9 kelime)

He tells

6-) What is special about Allah in the passage when al-Fatiha is mentioned? (7 kelime)

Allah

7-) In the prayer, who is better than all the powerless beings people ask from? (6 kelime)

Allah,

8-) Is the Straight Path only any path a person likes? (11 kelime)
No, it

9-) What four beautiful qualities of Allah are mentioned there in meaning? (15 kelime)
He is Lord

10-) Where does the Straight Path lead? (3 kelime)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) When night comes in the passage, how is the human spirit described?

It is weak, needy, and surrounded by many troubles.

2-) What does the person refuse to love in his heart?

Things that fade and disappear.

3-) Who does the person turn to for safety and help?

He turns to Allah, the Everlasting One.

4-) What does the person ask Allah's mercy and guidance to do?

To bring light and mend the hurt in his heart.

5-) What time does the passage say this prayer is done before?

Before sleep.

6-) How is sleep described in a way that teaches a lesson?

It is shown as something like death.

7-) Instead of loving weak and dying things too much, who does he stand before in prayer?

He stands before the Eternal One.

8-) What takes the place of the things he fears?

Allah's protection.

9-) What happens to a person when he says that he worships Allah alone?

He gains honor through being connected to Allah.

10-) What does saying "we ask for help" show about all creation?

All creation needs Allah's help.

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What part of the day is the passage talking about?

Nightfall.

2-) What is the person's condition at that time according to the passage?

He is weak, poor, needy, and troubled.

3-) Who is the lasting Beloved the person seeks in prayer?

Allah.

4-) What does he ask Allah to send into his life and future?

Light.

5-) What causes wounds in the person's heart in this passage?

The leaving and loss of creatures and friends.

6-) Why is this prayer especially meaningful before bed?

Because bedtime reminds a person of death and the end of the day.

7-) Why is the prayer called the last duty of worship in the day?

Because it is done before sleep at the end of the day.

8-) Why is praising Allah better than praising needy creatures?

Because Allah is perfect and creatures are not.

9-) Who replaces the weak creatures from whom he asks things?

The Powerful and Generous One.

10-) What change happens to the worshipper when he remembers the Day of Judgment belongs to Allah?

He rises from smallness to honor through serving Allah.

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage connect the 'Isha prayer with weakness and need?

Because people feel helpless and needy at night.

2-) What sentence from Prophet Ibrahim's story teaches the person not to cling to passing things?

It teaches him not to love what disappears.

3-) How can Allah's mercy help someone whose friends and loved ones are gone?

It can comfort the heart and heal the pain.

4-) How will guidance help with the future?

It will make the future bright instead of dark.

5-) What does "closing the daily record well" mean here?

Ending the day with obedience and prayer.

6-) What important act does he do before sleep?

He offers his final worship of the day.

7-) How can a small and lonely person become honored?

By being connected to Allah, the Lord of all times.

8-) Who is better than all the beings that frighten people?

Allah, the Compassionate Protector.

9-) What is one main idea of the whole passage?

The 'Isha prayer helps a person turn from fear and loss to Allah's mercy and guidance.

10-) What does he ask for when he says, "Guide us to the Straight Path"?

He asks Allah to lead him to the way that ends in eternal happiness.

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At nightfall, what kinds of problems surround the human spirit in the passage?

Weakness, need, darkness about the future, and many events.

2-) What does a person say about things that go away and do not last? He does not give his heart to them.

3-) Why does the person turn to Allah in a life that goes by quickly? Because this life is short, but Allah is everlasting.

4-) What does the person do with his sadness and pain? He tells them to Allah and asks for mercy.

5-) What does the person do before sleeping, no matter what happened that day?

He performs his prayer.

6-) Why does the person pray before sleeping?

To finish the day well and do his last worship of the day.

7-) In prayer, what takes the place of weak beings he used to ask from? Allah, who is powerful and generous.

8-) Why are needy and imperfect creatures not the right ones to praise like this?

Because they are not perfect and cannot do what only Allah does.

9-) What do we learn about Allah from that beginning?

Allah is the Lord of all, perfect, and full of mercy and generosity.

10-) What kind of path does he ask Allah to show him at the end of the passage?

The straight, shining path to everlasting happiness.

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih -
Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which prayer in the passage is linked with the coming of night?
The 'Isha prayer.

2-) What kind of world does the passage describe this life as?
A passing world that does not stay.

3-) What kind of shelter does prayer give him?
Shelter with Allah, who never ends.

4-) What will Allah's guidance do for the person?
It will brighten his life and future.

5-) Where does he bring his complaints and crying?
To Allah's mercy.

6-) Where does he pour out his grief?
At Allah's place of mercy.

7-) Whom does he stand before instead of all the loved ones who die?
The One who lives forever.

8-) In prayer, who replaces all the mortal ones he loves?
The Eternal Beloved and Worshipped One.

9-) How can a tiny human become important in the universe?
By his bond with Allah, who rules all time.

10-) What final request is made in this passage?
To be guided on the straight way to everlasting happiness.

2sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What makes the time of night hard for a person in this passage?

There is weakness, need, darkness, and many unsettling events.

2-) In this passage, why does a person seek shelter in Allah?

Because Allah never dies and never leaves.

3-) What does the person hope a short prayer will bring him?

A lasting nearness, mercy, and guidance from Allah.

4-) Why is sleep an important time for worship in the passage?

Because it is like a small reminder of death.

5-) What does the person do with his worries when he prays?

He tells them to Allah with humility and tears.

6-) What is special about Allah in the passage when al-Fatiha is mentioned?

Allah is perfect, self-sufficient, merciful, and generous.

7-) In the prayer, who is better than all the powerless beings people ask from?

Allah, the Powerful and Generous One.

8-) Is the Straight Path only any path a person likes?

No, it is the right path that leads to eternal happiness.

9-) What four beautiful qualities of Allah are mentioned there in meaning?

He is Lord of all, perfect, free of need, and full of mercy and generosity.

10-) Where does the Straight Path lead?

To eternal happiness.