

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 1

1-) What problem is being talked about at the start of this passage? (11 kelime)

Being lazy

2-) What two excuses for weak prayer are brought up first? (15 kelime)

Being busy with

3-) What does that comparison suggest about the goal of human life?

(8 kelime)

It should

4-) What kind of life should a human try to gain? (6 kelime)

A

5-) Why are those details called “inessential”? (11 kelime)

Because they

6-) In that same example, what is the big thing that could be gained? (6 kelime)

Something

7-) What happens if a person leaves the required prayers while working? (8 kelime)

The work

8-) What does the orchard stand for in the next example? (9 kelime)

The place

9-) What happens to morale when someone leaves the required prayers? (3 kelime)

10-) What does the short summary teach about time? (10 kelime)
The past

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 2

1-) What is the main warning in this passage about worship? (10 kelime)

Do not

2-) According to the passage, were people made only to live for this world? (10 kelime)

No. People

3-) What little creature is used to teach a lesson about getting daily food? (2 kelime)

4-) According to the passage, what happens when people focus too much on side matters? (6 kelime)

They

5-) What is a person forgetting when he fills his time with trivia? (4 kelime)

The

6-) What makes his excuse silly? (13 kelime)

He refuses a

7-) In the orchard example, what does keeping up the required prayers protect? (9 kelime)

The deeper

8-) What two big benefits are found through praying during those rest times? (10 kelime)

Better blessing

9-) If prayer is kept, what happens to the value of a person's life and work? (11 kelime)

It gains

10-) So what time should a smart person use well? (3 kelime)

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 3

1-) What does the passage ask the soul to think about first? (13 kelime)

Whether being careless

2-) What question helps the reader think about life's purpose? (9 kelime)

Whether a

3-) What does that example teach about a human being's main job? (15 kelime)

A human being

4-) What is that higher purpose described as? (7 kelime)

Seeking

5-) What wrong idea about life is hidden in that wasting of time? (9 kelime)

Thinking there

6-) In the example of the worker, what is offered for only a short effort? (9 kelime)

A treasure

7-) What does the orchard picture teach about earning a living? (12 kelime)

Work for food

8-) What are the "two mines" meant to show? (12 kelime)

Two great sources

9-) What does prayer do for the heart here? (5 kelime)

It

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 4

1-) What kind of soul is being warned in this part? (8 kelime)

A soul

2-) What does the passage say a human is better at than animals? (5 kelime)

Human

3-) What should a person seek instead of living only for eating and earning? (6 kelime)

A

4-) What are two examples of useless things that waste time? (12 kelime)

Spending time on

5-) What are the examples about space and counting used to show? (12 kelime)

People can waste

6-) What feeling should that story create in the reader? (8 kelime)

That refusing

7-) What does the tiny cut in pay stand for? (12 kelime)

The little worldly

8-) If prayer is included, what happens to a person's work time and break time? (10 kelime)

The breaks

9-) If someone drops the required prayers, what remains from all that labor? (9 kelime)

Only a

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 5

1-) At the beginning, what is being blamed for weak worship? (6 kelime)

Being

2-) What question is used to challenge that way of thinking? (9 kelime)
Whether a

3-) What does that contrast help us understand? (13 kelime)
A human being's

4-) What is wrong with spending lots of time on trivia? (8 kelime)
It pulls

5-) In the story about wages, what is the worker offered for ten minutes of digging? (4 kelime)
A

6-) In the example of the worker and the treasure, what is the main lesson? (13 kelime)
Do not give

7-) What does abandoning prayer do to the fruits of that effort? (8 kelime)
It limits

8-) What would be the wise choice in that comparison? (12 kelime)
To take the

9-) What two parts of a person are especially helped by prayer during rest time? (5 kelime)

The

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 6

1-) What is the big topic of this passage? (12 kelime)

Why we should

2-) What comparison is made with animals to teach this lesson? (18 kelime)

Humans may be higher

3-) If that is true, what does it say about the human mission? (12 kelime)

It must be

4-) What is one sign that a person is too attached to worldly things? (12 kelime)

He spends precious

5-) In the digging example, what is the small thing lost? (6 kelime)

A

6-) In the comparison, what does the orchard stand for? (10 kelime)

A person's

7-) How is lost pay like worldly worry? (9 kelime)

It is

8-) Why is prayer during breaks not called wasted time? (11 kelime)

Because it

9-) If someone uses breaks for prayer, what two areas of life become richer? (9 kelime)
Life in

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What problem is being talked about at the start of this passage?
Being lazy about worship and not doing the required prayers well.

2-) What two excuses for weak prayer are brought up first?
Being busy with worldly work and saying there is no time because of earning money.

3-) What does that comparison suggest about the goal of human life?
It should be much higher than just surviving.

4-) What kind of life should a human try to gain?
A true life that lasts forever.

5-) Why are those details called “inessential”?
Because they are not the main things a person truly needs.

6-) In that same example, what is the big thing that could be gained?
Something far more precious and valuable.

7-) What happens if a person leaves the required prayers while working?
The work only brings a small worldly gain.

8-) What does the orchard stand for in the next example?
The place where a person works for daily provision.

9-) What happens to morale when someone leaves the required prayers?
It becomes weak.

10-) What does the short summary teach about time?
The past is gone and the future is not promised.

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main warning in this passage about worship?

Do not let worldly busyness make you careless about prayer.

2-) According to the passage, were people made only to live for this world?

No. People were made for more than just this world.

3-) What little creature is used to teach a lesson about getting daily food?

A sparrow.

4-) According to the passage, what happens when people focus too much on side matters?

They neglect what is truly important.

5-) What is a person forgetting when he fills his time with trivia?

The truly important duties.

6-) What makes his excuse silly?

He refuses a much greater treasure for the sake of a tiny amount.

7-) In the orchard example, what does keeping up the required prayers protect?

The deeper value and reward of a person's work.

8-) What two big benefits are found through praying during those rest times?

Better blessing in worldly living and provision for the Hereafter.

9-) If prayer is kept, what happens to the value of a person's life and work?

It gains much more benefit for this life and the next.

10-) So what time should a smart person use well?

The present day.

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) What does the passage ask the soul to think about first?
Whether being careless in prayer comes from being too busy with worldly life.
- 2-) What question helps the reader think about life's purpose?
Whether a person was made only for this world.
- 3-) What does that example teach about a human being's main job?
A human being should work for an everlasting life, not only chase food and money.
- 4-) What is that higher purpose described as?
Seeking a real life that lasts forever.
- 5-) What wrong idea about life is hidden in that wasting of time?
Thinking there will always be plenty of time later.
- 6-) In the example of the worker, what is offered for only a short effort?
A treasure worth much more than the lost pay.
- 7-) What does the orchard picture teach about earning a living?
Work for food is fine, but it should not push prayer away.
- 8-) What are the "two mines" meant to show?
Two great sources of benefit that come with work joined to prayer.
- 9-) What does prayer do for the heart here?
It lets the heart rest.

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of soul is being warned in this part?

A soul that loves the world too much.

2-) What does the passage say a human is better at than animals?

Human abilities and higher qualities.

3-) What should a person seek instead of living only for eating and earning?

A real life that lasts forever.

4-) What are two examples of useless things that waste time?

Spending time on faraway space facts and counting things in another country.

5-) What are the examples about space and counting used to show?

People can waste precious time on things that are not truly important.

6-) What feeling should that story create in the reader?

That refusing prayer for work is not sensible.

7-) What does the tiny cut in pay stand for?

The little worldly loss a person fears when making time for prayer.

8-) If prayer is included, what happens to a person's work time and break time?

The breaks become worship, and the work gains bigger value.

9-) If someone drops the required prayers, what remains from all that labor?

Only a narrow worldly living with little deeper benefit.

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning, what is being blamed for weak worship?
Being overly busy with worldly concerns.

2-) What question is used to challenge that way of thinking?
Whether a person was created only for worldly life.

3-) What does that contrast help us understand?
A human being's purpose is higher than only searching for food and money.

4-) What is wrong with spending lots of time on trivia?
It pulls you away from what matters most.

5-) In the story about wages, what is the worker offered for ten minutes of digging?
A very valuable reward.

6-) In the example of the worker and the treasure, what is the main lesson?
Do not give up a huge gain to protect a tiny worldly amount.

7-) What does abandoning prayer do to the fruits of that effort?
It limits them to only small worldly results.

8-) What would be the wise choice in that comparison?
To take the great treasure and not worry about the small loss.

9-) What two parts of a person are especially helped by prayer during rest time?
The spirit and the heart.

2sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the big topic of this passage?

Why we should not let worldly life pull us away from prayer.

2-) What comparison is made with animals to teach this lesson?

Humans may be higher in ability, but not better at getting simple food than even a small bird.

3-) If that is true, what does it say about the human mission?

It must be something higher than just getting food and worldly things.

4-) What is one sign that a person is too attached to worldly things?

He spends precious time learning details that do not really help him.

5-) In the digging example, what is the small thing lost?

A little bit of daily pay.

6-) In the comparison, what does the orchard stand for?

A person's work in this world to earn a living.

7-) How is lost pay like worldly worry?

It is a small thing people fear too much.

8-) Why is prayer during breaks not called wasted time?

Because it refreshes the spirit and heart and brings more reward.

9-) If someone uses breaks for prayer, what two areas of life become richer?

Life in this world and life in the Hereafter.