

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 1

1-) In the story, what did the king give to each of the two men? (10 kelime)

A piece

2-) What did the two men do at first with the estates? (6 kelime)

They

3-) What might happen to things in that dangerous time? (6 kelime)

They

4-) What promise did the king make about the future of the estate? (9 kelime)

He would

5-) What does the king's offer show about his care for the men? (11 kelime)

He wanted

6-) Why did the king say he should handle the big costs? (11 kelime)

Because the

7-) How did the wiser man answer the king's message? (6 kelime)

He

8-) What new role would the accepting man receive? (9 kelime)

He would

9-) Which man accepted the offer with gratitude? (3 kelime)

10-) What was wrong with the second man's thinking? (10 kelime)

He acted

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 2

1-) How many men are in the comparison? (2 kelime)

2-) Why did the king send a trusted helper to the two men? (10 kelime)

To give

3-) Why is that condition important for understanding the king's message? (8 kelime)

It explains

4-) What was the king's offer about the entrusted property? (14 kelime)

If they gave

5-) Why did the king say the men needed his help? (12 kelime)

They did not

6-) What would they lose besides the property if they refused? (8 kelime)

They would

7-) What two losses did the king warn about if they did not accept? (10 kelime)

They would

8-) What false idea did the proud man act like he believed? (8 kelime)

He acted

9-) How is the second man described before he answers? (5 kelime)

As

10-) What happened to the wise man later? (10 kelime)

He gained

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 3

1-) At the beginning, what did each man receive from the king? (7 kelime)

An

2-) Were things in that time safe and lasting, or shaky and changing? (5 kelime)

They

3-) Why did the king want them to give it back to him? (11 kelime)

So he

4-) What was the main choice put before the two men? (11 kelime)

Whether to

5-) How did the king plan to reward the use of the tools? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What are two good results of accepting the king's offer? (8 kelime)

They would

7-) What punishment was connected to refusing the trust properly? (12 kelime)

They would be

8-) What burden would remain on the men if they refused? (9 kelime)

Worry and

9-) What happened to the second man in the end? (8 kelime)

He lost

10-) What result came to the second man because of his choice? (7 kelime)

He

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 4

1-) What did the king place in the care of each subject? (5 kelime)

Land

2-) Who brought the king's words to the two men? (3 kelime)

3-) How did the king show kindness to the two men? (9 kelime)

He sent

4-) What did the king say about the tools and machines? (15 kelime)

They would still

5-) What did the king promise to do with the trust later on? (6 kelime)

Return

6-) What help did the king promise besides money? (10 kelime)

He promised

7-) Which of the two men was wiser? (6 kelime)

The

8-) How did the first man respond to the message? (7 kelime)

He

9-) Which man made the wise choice? (4 kelime)

The

10-) What happened to the second man's wealth and joy? (6 kelime)

They

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 5

1-) What did both men have in common at the start? (10 kelime)

Both were

2-) Why would keeping the estate be hard in such a time? (10 kelime)

Because things

3-) What reason did the king give for this request? (8 kelime)

He wanted

4-) What good thing did the king promise if they gave the property back? (12 kelime)

He would keep

5-) What would happen if they refused the king's offer? (11 kelime)

They would

6-) What does the king's promise about expenses show? (7 kelime)

It

7-) What would happen to the offered payment if they refused? (4 kelime)

They

8-) What kind of heart did the second man show? (5 kelime)

A

9-) What wrong thought did the second man seem to have about life on the estate? (8 kelime)

He acted

10-) What was the end of the first man? (7 kelime)

Honor,

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 6

1-) In the parable, who owned the estates in the first place? (3 kelime)

2-) Was the time peaceful or full of danger? (5 kelime)

It

3-) What did the king ask them to do with what they were holding? (6 kelime)

To

4-) What did the king say about the workshop items? (12 kelime)

They would be

5-) How much better did the king say the pay for using the tools would become? (7 kelime)

Very

6-) What extra honor would come to the man who accepted the offer? (15 kelime)

He would serve

7-) What other harm would come from refusing, besides losing the estate? (7 kelime)

They

8-) How would accepting the offer change a man's place? (9 kelime)

He would

9-) What happened to the first man after a while? (10 kelime)

He was

10-) What happened to the foolish man later? (8 kelime)

He fell

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the story, what did the king give to each of the two men?

A piece of land with useful things to work with.

2-) What did the two men do at first with the estates?

They held them in their care.

3-) What might happen to things in that dangerous time?

They might be destroyed or changed.

4-) What promise did the king make about the future of the estate?

He would return it better after the troubles ended.

5-) What does the king's offer show about his care for the men?

He wanted to help them, provide for them, and reward them.

6-) Why did the king say he should handle the big costs?

Because the men were too poor and weak to manage them.

7-) How did the wiser man answer the king's message?

He gladly accepted and gave thanks.

8-) What new role would the accepting man receive?

He would become a respected soldier of the king.

9-) Which man accepted the offer with gratitude?

The smart man.

10-) What was wrong with the second man's thinking?

He acted like this world would never end for him.

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How many men are in the comparison?

Two men.

2-) Why did the king send a trusted helper to the two men?

To give them the king's message with mercy and care.

3-) Why is that condition important for understanding the king's message?

It explains why the property was in danger.

4-) What was the king's offer about the entrusted property?

If they gave it back to him, he would keep it safe for them.

5-) Why did the king say the men needed his help?

They did not have enough power or wealth for such big work.

6-) What would they lose besides the property if they refused?

They would lose the special payment and profit.

7-) What two losses did the king warn about if they did not accept?

They would lose the property and lose the offered reward.

8-) What false idea did the proud man act like he believed?

He acted like he would stay there forever.

9-) How is the second man described before he answers?

As proud, selfish, and wasteful.

10-) What happened to the wise man later?

He gained honor and a happy life with the king.

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) At the beginning, what did each man receive from the king?
An estate with equipment, animals, and weapons.
- 2-) Were things in that time safe and lasting, or shaky and changing?
They were shaky and changing.
- 3-) Why did the king want them to give it back to him?
So he could protect it and keep it from being lost.
- 4-) What was the main choice put before the two men?
Whether to give the property back to the king or not.
- 5-) How did the king plan to reward the use of the tools?
He would give a much bigger payment.
- 6-) What are two good results of accepting the king's offer?
They would keep the profits and gain honor.
- 7-) What punishment was connected to refusing the trust properly?
They would be punished for failing in what was entrusted to them.
- 8-) What burden would remain on the men if they refused?
Worry and hard work in trying to manage everything.
- 9-) What happened to the second man in the end?
He lost his happiness and belongings and suffered.
- 10-) What result came to the second man because of his choice?
He lost his blessings and faced suffering.

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the king place in the care of each subject?

Land and many useful supplies.

2-) Who brought the king's words to the two men?

A noble lieutenant.

3-) How did the king show kindness to the two men?

He sent a caring message through a noble helper.

4-) What did the king say about the tools and machines?

They would still be used, and the men would get much more pay for them.

5-) What did the king promise to do with the trust later on?

Return it in a better form.

6-) What help did the king promise besides money?

He promised to provide what was needed for the work.

7-) Which of the two men was wiser?

The one who accepted the offer.

8-) How did the first man respond to the message?

He accepted it happily and with thanks.

9-) Which man made the wise choice?

The thoughtful one did.

10-) What happened to the second man's wealth and joy?

They were taken away from him.

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did both men have in common at the start?

Both were given property to care for by the king.

2-) Why would keeping the estate be hard in such a time?

Because things were likely to be damaged, changed, or lost.

3-) What reason did the king give for this request?

He wanted to preserve it from pointless destruction.

4-) What good thing did the king promise if they gave the property back?

He would keep it safe and later return it better than before.

5-) What would happen if they refused the king's offer?

They would lose what they had and miss the big reward.

6-) What does the king's promise about expenses show?

It shows he would support them generously.

7-) What would happen to the offered payment if they refused?

They would miss it.

8-) What kind of heart did the second man show?

A proud and selfish heart.

9-) What wrong thought did the second man seem to have about life on the estate?

He acted as if it would last forever.

10-) What was the end of the first man?

Honor, happiness, and closeness to the king.

2sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes -

Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the parable, who owned the estates in the first place?

The king did.

2-) Was the time peaceful or full of danger?

It was full of danger.

3-) What did the king ask them to do with what they were holding?

To give it over to him.

4-) What did the king say about the workshop items?

They would be used for the king's work and bring greater payment.

5-) How much better did the king say the pay for using the tools would become?

Very much greater, a thousand times more.

6-) What extra honor would come to the man who accepted the offer?

He would serve the king in a noble way instead of being low in rank.

7-) What other harm would come from refusing, besides losing the estate?

They would lose reward and receive punishment.

8-) How would accepting the offer change a man's place?

He would become an honored servant of the king.

9-) What happened to the first man after a while?

He was raised to a high rank and lived happily.

10-) What happened to the foolish man later?

He fell into misery, and people pitied him.