

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1

1-) What two beliefs are named at the start of this passage? (9 kelime)

Belief in

2-) What two big things does the passage say this faith can do? (9 kelime)

Solve deep

3-) In the comparison, what happened to the soldier's body? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What dangerous animal was behind him? (2 kelime)

5-) What was happening inside the soldier because of all this? (7 kelime)

He

6-) Name one thing the helper gave that could protect or help him. (6 kelime)

A

7-) What two special things did the helper first say he would give? (5 kelime)

Two

8-) What would the lion become after proper use of the help? (3 kelime)

9-) How does the passage make faith sound: weak or strong? (1 kelime)

10-) What did the soldier do to check if the helper was telling the truth? (5 kelime)

He

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2

1-) What sentence in Arabic is being explained in this passage? (10 kelime)

The sentence

2-) What does the passage say trust in Allah and asking Him for help are like? (2 kelime)

3-) What are prayer and leaving major sins compared to? (8 kelime)

Bright tickets

4-) What do the lion and the gallows show in the comparison? (4 kelime)

Big

5-) What kind of mood did the soldier have before help arrived? (3 kelime)

6-) Why was the soldier also worried about the gallows? (7 kelime)

Because

7-) What do the flowers show about the wounds? (6 kelime)

Harm

8-) What did the helper say about the journey? (8 kelime)

It could

9-) What idea is stronger in this passage: hopelessness or hope? (1 kelime)

10-) What is one reason this passage can comfort a Muslim child? (11 kelime)

It says

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3

1-) What is the main lesson of this passage in a simple way? (12 kelime)

Faith in Allah

2-) What good actions are called like shining travel tickets and supplies for the next life? (13 kelime)

Listening to the

3-) In the story, what kind of setting was the soldier in? (7 kelime)

A

4-) What was waiting in front of him? (4 kelime)

A

5-) Besides the lion and gallows, what else was waiting for him? (6 kelime)

A

6-) How many talismans did the helper offer? (1 kelime)

7-) What does this show about guidance? (9 kelime)

A person

8-) If the soldier used the talismans the right way, what would the lion become? (3 kelime)

9-) What would the ugly wounds become? (2 kelime)

10-) What happened after the soldier experimented a little? (6 kelime)

He

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4

1-) What two parts of belief are spoken about together in this passage? (7 kelime)

Belief

2-) Which act is linked with thanking Allah? (6 kelime)

Asking

3-) What person is used in the example story? (2 kelime)

4-) How many deep wounds did the soldier have? (1 kelime)

5-) Why did the helper tell the soldier not to lose hope? (12 kelime)

Because there was

6-) What did the helper promise would happen to the lion? (6 kelime)

It

7-) What does the soldier's thinking in sadness show about him? (3 kelime)

8-) Did the soldier just believe right away, or did he test the promise? (3 kelime)

9-) What does the soldier's test teach about the message? (5 kelime)

The

10-) What did he learn after trying it? (6 kelime)

He

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5

1-) What phrase is the passage teaching about? (10 kelime)

The phrase

2-) What kind of trip is mentioned before the story? (7 kelime)

A

3-) What problem did the soldier have on both sides of his body? (6 kelime)

He

4-) Which danger was in front of him? (2 kelime)

5-) What kind of person appeared to him? (5 kelime)

A

6-) Who came to help the soldier? (4 kelime)

A

7-) What other item did the helper offer for the journey? (2 kelime)

8-) Why is “do not despair” an important part of the message? (11 kelime)

It teaches

9-) What would happen to the soldier’s wounds if he used the medicines as told? (6 kelime)

They

10-) Why is the ending statement from the speaker important? (7 kelime)

It

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6

1-) What are the two beliefs at the heart of this passage? (8 kelime)

Belief in

2-) What are reliance on Allah, patience, and asking Him for help compared to? (2 kelime)

3-) Why was the soldier's condition so scary? (10 kelime)

He was

4-) What shows the soldier could not save himself easily? (5 kelime)

Dangers

5-) What was the lion doing behind him? (5 kelime)

It

6-) What change shows that something scary can become pleasant? (6 kelime)

The

7-) What did the helper promise would happen to the wounds? (5 kelime)

They

8-) What happened when the soldier checked the helper's words? (5 kelime)

He

9-) Why does the speaker mention himself at the end? (8 kelime)

To say

10-) What does the speaker say about this comparison? (10 kelime)

He says

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two beliefs are named at the start of this passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) What two big things does the passage say this faith can do?

Solve deep life questions and bring happiness to people.

3-) In the comparison, what happened to the soldier's body?

He was badly hurt on two sides.

4-) What dangerous animal was behind him?

A lion.

5-) What was happening inside the soldier because of all this?

He was full of fear and sadness.

6-) Name one thing the helper gave that could protect or help him.

A talisman, medicine, or a ticket.

7-) What two special things did the helper first say he would give?

Two talismans and two medicines.

8-) What would the lion become after proper use of the help?

A calm horse.

9-) How does the passage make faith sound: weak or strong?

Strong.

10-) What did the soldier do to check if the helper was telling the truth?

He tried it a little.

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What sentence in Arabic is being explained in this passage?

The sentence about believing in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) What does the passage say trust in Allah and asking Him for help are like?

Healing medicine.

3-) What are prayer and leaving major sins compared to?

Bright tickets and supplies for the next life.

4-) What do the lion and the gallows show in the comparison?

Big danger and death.

5-) What kind of mood did the soldier have before help arrived?

He felt despair.

6-) Why was the soldier also worried about the gallows?

Because it was waiting for him too.

7-) What do the flowers show about the wounds?

Harm can change into something beautiful.

8-) What did the helper say about the journey?

It could become very quick with the ticket.

9-) What idea is stronger in this passage: hopelessness or hope?

Hope.

10-) What is one reason this passage can comfort a Muslim child?

It says Allah gives help, healing, and a way through fear.

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main lesson of this passage in a simple way?

Faith in Allah and the Last Day helps people in hard times.

2-) What good actions are called like shining travel tickets and supplies for the next life?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying it, praying, and staying away from big sins.

3-) In the story, what kind of setting was the soldier in?

A dangerous time of battle and testing.

4-) What was waiting in front of him?

A place of execution.

5-) Besides the lion and gallows, what else was waiting for him?

A long journey away from home.

6-) How many talismans did the helper offer?

Two.

7-) What does this show about guidance?

A person must follow it, not just hold it.

8-) If the soldier used the talismans the right way, what would the lion become?

A gentle horse.

9-) What would the ugly wounds become?

Nice-smelling flowers.

10-) What happened after the soldier experimented a little?

He saw the promise was real.

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two parts of belief are spoken about together in this passage?

Belief in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) Which act is linked with thanking Allah?

Asking from and thanking the Provider.

3-) What person is used in the example story?

A soldier.

4-) How many deep wounds did the soldier have?

Two.

5-) Why did the helper tell the soldier not to lose hope?

Because there was a way for his fear to change into ease.

6-) What did the helper promise would happen to the lion?

It would become useful for riding.

7-) What does the soldier's thinking in sadness show about him?

He felt overwhelmed.

8-) Did the soldier just believe right away, or did he test the promise?

He tested it.

9-) What does the soldier's test teach about the message?

The message can be trusted.

10-) What did he learn after trying it?

He learned that it was true.

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What phrase is the passage teaching about?

The phrase about faith in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) What kind of trip is mentioned before the story?

A trip to eternity and the hereafter.

3-) What problem did the soldier have on both sides of his body?

He had two very bad wounds.

4-) Which danger was in front of him?

A gallows.

5-) What kind of person appeared to him?

A kind and shining helper.

6-) Who came to help the soldier?

A bright, kind person.

7-) What other item did the helper offer for the journey?

A ticket.

8-) Why is "do not despair" an important part of the message?

It teaches that help can come even in very hard times.

9-) What would happen to the soldier's wounds if he used the medicines as told?

They would turn into sweet-smelling flowers.

10-) Why is the ending statement from the speaker important?

It says the lesson was personally confirmed.

2sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the two beliefs at the heart of this passage?

Belief in Allah and in the Last Day.

2-) What are reliance on Allah, patience, and asking Him for help compared to?

Helpful medicine.

3-) Why was the soldier's condition so scary?

He was hurt, in danger, and facing a hard journey.

4-) What shows the soldier could not save himself easily?

Dangers were all around him.

5-) What was the lion doing behind him?

It seemed ready to attack.

6-) What change shows that something scary can become pleasant?

The gallows turning into a swing.

7-) What did the helper promise would happen to the wounds?

They would change into flowers.

8-) What happened when the soldier checked the helper's words?

He confirmed they were true.

9-) Why does the speaker mention himself at the end?

To say he also found the lesson true.

10-) What does the speaker say about this comparison?

He says he also tested it and found it true.