

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 1

1-) In the passage, who does the soldier stand for? (6 kelime)

He

2-) What does the lion mean in the comparison? (8 kelime)

It means

3-) What does the gallows mean? (11 kelime)

It means

4-) What do the two wounds stand for? (10 kelime)

They stand

5-) What are the two special helps, or talismans? (10 kelime)

They are

6-) How does belief in the Hereafter change the meaning of death for a believer? (11 kelime)

It makes

7-) Why did some wise people welcome death, based on this passage? (17 kelime)

Because they saw it

8-) How does belief in Allah change the way a person sees time passing and parting from things? (13 kelime)

It helps the

9-) What picture is used to show that new and better things can appear when old things change? (8 kelime)

The passage

10-) What is one clear message from the whole passage for a Muslim child? (13 kelime)

Trust Allah and

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 2

1-) Who is being spoken to at the start of the passage? (4 kelime)

The

2-) What lesson is given about the soldier in the story? (8 kelime)

The soldier

3-) In this comparison, what does the lion teach us to remember? (9 kelime)

It teaches

4-) What do the two hurts on the soldier show about people? (15 kelime)

They show that

5-) What does the passage say the journey includes? (16 kelime)

It includes life from

6-) What belief helps a person with the long journey? (10 kelime)

Belief in

7-) What happens to death when a person believes in the Last Day? (14 kelime)

It becomes like

8-) According to the passage, where does that ride take the believer? (16 kelime)

It takes the believer

9-) What does belief in Allah help a person notice in the world? (11 kelime)

It helps

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 3

1-) Is the soldier meant to be only one person from long ago, or all people? (7 kelime)

He

2-) What is one hard thing the two wounds tell us about human beings? (4 kelime)

Human

3-) What is the other hard thing the two wounds tell us about human beings? (5 kelime)

Human

4-) Why is the journey called long in the passage? (14 kelime)

Because it stretches

5-) Which two beliefs are called the special keys or talismans? (8 kelime)

Belief in

6-) Which one of those two beliefs is linked most directly to death becoming easier to face? (4 kelime)

Belief

7-) How is death described for a believer instead of as something only scary? (12 kelime)

It is described

8-) What feeling about death did wise people have after understanding its true meaning? (10 kelime)

They felt

9-) How does belief in Allah help with sadness about things changing and ending? (13 kelime)

It helps a

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 4

1-) In the story, what does the lion behind the soldier represent? (7 kelime)

It

2-) In the story, what does the gallows in front of the soldier represent? (11 kelime)

It represents

3-) Why are the two wounds a good picture for people's lives? (9 kelime)

Because people

4-) What are some parts of the long journey named in the passage? (12 kelime)

They include the

5-) What are the two great helps given for this hard journey? (10 kelime)

They are

6-) What change happens to death through faith in the Hereafter? (11 kelime)

It changes

7-) What change happens to passing time through faith in Allah? (14 kelime)

It changes from

8-) Why does the passage mention beautiful colors, patterns, and scenes? (10 kelime)

To show

9-) If old scenes pass and new scenes come, what lesson does the passage teach? (16 kelime)

It teaches that change

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 5

1-) What does the lion remind every person about? (10 kelime)

It reminds

2-) What do the gallows remind a person about life in this world? (12 kelime)

They remind a

3-) The wounds are not cuts to skin in the meaning of the story. What are they? (5 kelime)

They

4-) What does the road of exile teach about human life? (11 kelime)

It teaches

5-) Which beliefs are the answer to the soldier's trouble? (8 kelime)

Belief in

6-) How does the passage compare death to something helpful for a believer? (11 kelime)

It compares

7-) What good place is named as the destination for believers? (4 kelime)

The

8-) When time passes and things change, what can a believer notice because of faith in Allah? (10 kelime)

The believer

9-) What does belief in Allah help a person see when days and nights keep changing? (10 kelime)

It helps

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 6

1-) Who is the “you” in the meaning of the soldier story? (5 kelime)

It

2-) What does the passage say the lion really is? (8 kelime)

It is

3-) What does the passage say the gallows really is? (12 kelime)

It is death

4-) Name the two troubles shown by the wounds. (8 kelime)

They are

5-) What does the long journey include besides life in this world? (12 kelime)

It also includes

6-) What two beliefs are called talismans in this passage? (8 kelime)

Belief in

7-) What does belief in the Hereafter do to the fear of death? (9 kelime)

It turns

8-) Why might wise people not fear death in the same way? (13 kelime)

Because they understand

9-) What does the example of changing reflections and changing scenes help the reader understand? (11 kelime)

It helps

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, who does the soldier stand for?

He stands for each human being.

2-) What does the lion mean in the comparison?

It means a person's set time to die.

3-) What does the gallows mean?

It means death, losing things, and saying goodbye to loved ones.

4-) What do the two wounds stand for?

They stand for people being very weak and very needy.

5-) What are the two special helps, or talismans?

They are belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

6-) How does belief in the Hereafter change the meaning of death for a believer?

It makes death like a ride taking the believer to Paradise.

7-) Why did some wise people welcome death, based on this passage?

Because they saw it was a way to go to mercy and happiness, not only an end.

8-) How does belief in Allah change the way a person sees time passing and parting from things?

It helps the person see Allah's beautiful works instead of only feeling loss.

9-) What picture is used to show that new and better things can appear when old things change?

The passage uses mirrors and changing movie scenes.

10-) What is one clear message from the whole passage for a Muslim child?

Trust Allah and remember the Hereafter, because faith helps us face hard things.

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is being spoken to at the start of the passage?

The self, or nafs.

2-) What lesson is given about the soldier in the story?

The soldier is a picture of every person.

3-) In this comparison, what does the lion teach us to remember?

It teaches us to remember the time of death.

4-) What do the two hurts on the soldier show about people?

They show that people are not strong by themselves and that they need many things.

5-) What does the passage say the journey includes?

It includes life from before birth, growing up, old age, the grave, and the rising again.

6-) What belief helps a person with the long journey?

Belief in Allah and the Last Day helps with it.

7-) What happens to death when a person believes in the Last Day?

It becomes like a gentle mount that carries the believer to a beautiful place.

8-) According to the passage, where does that ride take the believer?

It takes the believer from this world to the gardens of Paradise and to Allah's mercy.

9-) What does belief in Allah help a person notice in the world?

It helps the person notice Allah's power, mercy, and beautiful creation.

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Is the soldier meant to be only one person from long ago, or all people?

He is meant to represent all people.

2-) What is one hard thing the two wounds tell us about human beings?

Human beings are weak.

3-) What is the other hard thing the two wounds tell us about human beings?

Human beings have many needs.

4-) Why is the journey called long in the passage?

Because it stretches through many stages, from early life to what comes after death.

5-) Which two beliefs are called the special keys or talismans?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

6-) Which one of those two beliefs is linked most directly to death becoming easier to face?

Belief in the Hereafter.

7-) How is death described for a believer instead of as something only scary?

It is described like a trained ride that carries the believer onward.

8-) What feeling about death did wise people have after understanding its true meaning?

They felt love for it and were ready for it.

9-) How does belief in Allah help with sadness about things changing and ending?

It helps a person see that Allah keeps showing new beauty and wisdom.

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the story, what does the lion behind the soldier represent?

It represents the coming time of death.

2-) In the story, what does the gallows in front of the soldier represent?

It represents death, fading away, and being separated from loved ones.

3-) Why are the two wounds a good picture for people's lives?

Because people are both weak and full of needs.

4-) What are some parts of the long journey named in the passage?

They include the womb, childhood, old age, the grave, and the resurrection.

5-) What are the two great helps given for this hard journey?

They are faith in Allah and faith in the Hereafter.

6-) What change happens to death through faith in the Hereafter?

It changes from something frightening into a way to reach Paradise.

7-) What change happens to passing time through faith in Allah?

It changes from only loss into a chance to see Allah's signs and wonders.

8-) Why does the passage mention beautiful colors, patterns, and scenes?

To show that Allah keeps making fresh and lovely things.

9-) If old scenes pass and new scenes come, what lesson does the passage teach?

It teaches that change is not only loss; it can also show new beauty from Allah.

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the lion remind every person about?

It reminds every person that death has an appointed time.

2-) What do the gallows remind a person about life in this world?

They remind a person that people and things do not stay forever.

3-) The wounds are not cuts to skin in the meaning of the story. What are they?

They are weakness and neediness.

4-) What does the road of exile teach about human life?

It teaches that life is a long trip through many stages.

5-) Which beliefs are the answer to the soldier's trouble?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

6-) How does the passage compare death to something helpful for a believer?

It compares death to a ride that carries the believer onward.

7-) What good place is named as the destination for believers?

The gardens of Paradise.

8-) When time passes and things change, what can a believer notice because of faith in Allah?

The believer can notice Allah's mercy, power, and beautiful acts.

9-) What does belief in Allah help a person see when days and nights keep changing?

It helps the person see Allah's ongoing creation and beauty.

2sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is the "you" in the meaning of the soldier story?

It is the human being.

2-) What does the passage say the lion really is?

It is the fixed time when death comes.

3-) What does the passage say the gallows really is?

It is death and the loss and parting that happen in life.

4-) Name the two troubles shown by the wounds.

They are weakness and poverty, meaning great need.

5-) What does the long journey include besides life in this world?

It also includes before birth, the grave, and the life to come.

6-) What two beliefs are called talismans in this passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

7-) What does belief in the Hereafter do to the fear of death?

It turns death into a hopeful path to Paradise.

8-) Why might wise people not fear death in the same way?

Because they understand it leads the believer to mercy and a better home.

9-) What does the example of changing reflections and changing scenes help the reader understand?

It helps the reader understand that change can bring new beauty.