

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 1

1-) What happens in the sky when the time of 'Isha begins? (11 kelime)

The last

2-) What happens to the things people leave behind as time passes? (9 kelime)

They fade

3-) What does that fading away help a person remember? (10 kelime)

That living

4-) What does the passage say about this world compared with the hereafter? (13 kelime)

This world is

5-) Who is the only true One to love and worship? (2 kelime)

6-) Why is Allah the only true One to worship, according to the passage? (14 kelime)

Because He easily

7-) How does the passage describe Allah's power over these changes? (9 kelime)

It says

8-) What main idea does this passage teach about the time of 'Isha? (17 kelime)

It reminds us of

9-) If Allah can change winter to spring, what else can He change? (8 kelime)

He can

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 2

1-) At nightfall, what disappears from the horizon? (5 kelime)

The

2-) After that, what covers the universe? (4 kelime)

The

3-) What season is named as the cold white one? (1 kelime)

4-) What season is described as green and decorated? (1 kelime)

5-) When old signs of people's work disappear over time, what does that make us think about? (7 kelime)

Death

6-) What does the passage say will happen to this short world? (9 kelime)

It will

7-) What kind of world opens after this one? (5 kelime)

A

8-) Which is stronger in the passage: people and things in the world, or Allah? (7 kelime)

Allah

9-) What picture does the passage use to show how easily Allah changes things? (9 kelime)

It is

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 3

1-) What prayer time is this passage talking about? (4 kelime)

The

2-) What change happens first at that time? (5 kelime)

Day

3-) What does the change from day to night help us remember about the seasons? (8 kelime)

It helps

4-) What do disappearing traces from the past teach us? (8 kelime)

Things in

5-) Where do living things go after death, according to the passage? (3 kelime)

6-) How is this world described in the passage? (6 kelime)

It

7-) How is the hereafter described? (6 kelime)

It

8-) Why can only one Being be the real Owner and Ruler of the universe? (10 kelime)

Because only

9-) According to the passage, who is the true Beloved and the One worshipped? (1 kelime)

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 4

1-) What time of day is named in the target passage? (4 kelime)

Nightfall,

2-) What happens to the daylight still left in the sky? (2 kelime)

3-) When night spreads over everything, what does that show about Allah? (8 kelime)

It shows

4-) What change in the year is used as another example of Allah's control? (4 kelime)

Summer

5-) What happens to the works of those who have passed away? (7 kelime)

Their

6-) What does that wiping away remind us about life? (12 kelime)

Life in this

7-) Does the passage teach that this world lasts forever or ends? (6 kelime)

It

8-) Does the passage teach that the next world is small and short or wide and lasting? (5 kelime)

It

9-) What does that comparison teach about Allah's power? (5 kelime)

Nothing

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 5

1-) What is one sign that 'Isha time has started? (7 kelime)

The

2-) What fills the universe then? (1 kelime)

3-) The passage mentions changing day into night. What does this help a reader understand about Allah? (6 kelime)

Allah

4-) The passage also mentions changing summer into winter. What do both changes have in common? (11 kelime)

Both show

5-) What happens to signs left behind by people as years pass? (2 kelime)

6-) What can a person infer from that about the dunya, this world? (5 kelime)

It

7-) What future world is mentioned after the end of this one? (2 kelime)

8-) How does the passage compare Allah's changing of worlds to something simple? (6 kelime)

To

9-) What is one feeling this passage should give us about Allah? (7 kelime)

Awe

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 6

1-) Which two times of day are switched in the passage? (3 kelime)

2-) Which two seasons are switched in the passage? (3 kelime)

3-) Which two worlds are spoken about in the passage? (5 kelime)

This

4-) What do all these changes show together? (7 kelime)

They

5-) What happens to the marks left by people from the past? (5 kelime)

Over

6-) Who alone is described as the real Owner and Manager of the universe? (2 kelime)

7-) What can Allah do with the world and the hereafter, according to the passage? (10 kelime)

He can

8-) What should a Muslim remember at 'Isha time from this passage? (14 kelime)

Allah controls everything,

9-) What is the best summary of the whole passage? (18 kelime)

'Isha time reminds us

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What happens in the sky when the time of 'Isha begins?

The last light of day goes away, and night covers everything.

2-) What happens to the things people leave behind as time passes?

They fade away and are erased from this world.

3-) What does that fading away help a person remember?

That living things die and move on to another world.

4-) What does the passage say about this world compared with the hereafter?

This world is short and small, but the hereafter is lasting and great.

5-) Who is the only true One to love and worship?

Allah alone.

6-) Why is Allah the only true One to worship, according to the passage?

Because He easily changes night and day, seasons, and this world into the next.

7-) How does the passage describe Allah's power over these changes?

It says He changes them easily, like turning pages.

8-) What main idea does this passage teach about the time of 'Isha?

It reminds us of Allah's power, the passing of this world, and the coming of the hereafter.

9-) If Allah can change winter to spring, what else can He change?

He can change this world into the hereafter.

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At nightfall, what disappears from the horizon?

The last bits of daylight.

2-) After that, what covers the universe?

The world of night.

3-) What season is named as the cold white one?

Winter.

4-) What season is described as green and decorated?

Summer.

5-) When old signs of people's work disappear over time, what does that make us think about?

Death and going to a different world.

6-) What does the passage say will happen to this short world?

It will be destroyed and come to an end.

7-) What kind of world opens after this one?

A wide, everlasting, majestic world.

8-) Which is stronger in the passage: people and things in the world, or Allah?

Allah is stronger than all of them.

9-) What picture does the passage use to show how easily Allah changes things?

It is like turning the pages of a book.

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What prayer time is this passage talking about?

The time of 'Isha.

2-) What change happens first at that time?

Day ends and night begins.

3-) What does the change from day to night help us remember about the seasons?

It helps us remember summer changing into winter.

4-) What do disappearing traces from the past teach us?

Things in this world do not stay forever.

5-) Where do living things go after death, according to the passage?

To another world.

6-) How is this world described in the passage?

It is narrow, passing, and lowly.

7-) How is the hereafter described?

It is broad, eternal, and majestic.

8-) Why can only one Being be the real Owner and Ruler of the universe?

Because only Allah can make all these huge changes happen.

9-) According to the passage, who is the true Beloved and the One worshipped?

Allah.

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What time of day is named in the target passage?

Nightfall, at 'Isha time.

2-) What happens to the daylight still left in the sky?

It disappears.

3-) When night spreads over everything, what does that show about Allah?

It shows His power to control the world.

4-) What change in the year is used as another example of Allah's control?

Summer changing into winter.

5-) What happens to the works of those who have passed away?

Their traces are wiped away with time.

6-) What does that wiping away remind us about life?

Life in this world ends, and there is another world after it.

7-) Does the passage teach that this world lasts forever or ends?

It teaches that this world ends.

8-) Does the passage teach that the next world is small and short or wide and lasting?

It is wide and lasting.

9-) What does that comparison teach about Allah's power?

Nothing is hard for Him.

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one sign that 'Isha time has started?

The final light of daytime is gone.

2-) What fills the universe then?

Night.

3-) The passage mentions changing day into night. What does this help a reader understand about Allah?

Allah has complete power over creation.

4-) The passage also mentions changing summer into winter. What do both changes have in common?

Both show that Allah changes big things in an ordered way.

5-) What happens to signs left behind by people as years pass?

They disappear.

6-) What can a person infer from that about the dunya, this world?

It does not last forever.

7-) What future world is mentioned after the end of this one?

The hereafter.

8-) How does the passage compare Allah's changing of worlds to something simple?

To turning pages in a book.

9-) What is one feeling this passage should give us about Allah?

Awe at His great power and beauty.

2sinif short-words-p49-ninth-word-fifth-point-night-prayer-and-the-transformations-of-the-universe - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which two times of day are switched in the passage?

Day and night.

2-) Which two seasons are switched in the passage?

Summer and winter.

3-) Which two worlds are spoken about in the passage?

This world and the hereafter.

4-) What do all these changes show together?

They show Allah's great power and rule.

5-) What happens to the marks left by people from the past?

Over time, they are removed.

6-) Who alone is described as the real Owner and Manager of the universe?

Allah alone.

7-) What can Allah do with the world and the hereafter, according to the passage?

He can change from one to the other with ease.

8-) What should a Muslim remember at 'Isha time from this passage?

Allah controls everything, this life is not forever, and we will return to Him.

9-) What is the best summary of the whole passage?

'Isha time reminds us that Allah changes all things, this world passes away, and the hereafter will come.