What question is asked at the start of this passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 1

It asks whether all created things say “In the Name of Allah” in the way they are made and the way they act.

2

What everyday-style example is used to help explain that statement?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 2

An example is given of one man making a whole town's people gather and work.

3

After this example, what big truth does the passage teach about all things?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 3

It teaches that all things work under Allah's authority.

4

How are gardens described in a way that helps us understand their blessings?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 4

They are described like cooking places where many kinds of foods are prepared for people.

5

How are gardens like places where food is prepared?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 5

They bring forth many different foods as if meals are being made for us.

What surprising thing do soft roots do?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 6

They go through hard soil and even rock.

What unusual ability do roots and rootlets have?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 7

They can enter and pass through very hard ground and stone.

8

Who is criticized in the passage for trusting only in nature and physical causes?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 8

People who explain things as if nature works by itself are criticized.

9

How do the examples of roots and leaves answer people who only trust natural causes?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 9

They show that the real control belongs to Allah, not to blind natural forces.

10

What claim from earlier is being checked again at the start of this passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 10

The claim is that all beings say “In the Name of Allah” through how they are created and how they behave.

11

What would you conclude if one person controlled a whole town by force?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 11

I would conclude that he has authority and support from a ruler.

12

If that person is really able to do it, whose support must he have?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 12

He must have support from a ruler or government.

13

Why are seeds and grains
mentioned before trees?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 13

They show how something very small can be the beginning of something much bigger.

14

What does the passage say trees do for us?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 14

They bring out blessings and offer useful things like fruits and produce.

15

Why are cows, camels, sheep, and goats called blessed in this passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 15

Because Allah gives people great benefit through them, especially milk.

16

Why is the milk compared to something life-giving?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 16

Because it is pure, beneficial, and a precious nourishment.

17

What does that surprise help us understand?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 17

It helps us understand that physical weakness does not stop what Allah commands.

18

What two examples from prophets are used near the end of the passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 18

One example is Musa striking the rock, and the other is Ibrahim being safe from fire.

19

What wrong idea is being pushed back against by these examples?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 19

The idea that nature or material causes are in charge by themselves is being pushed back against.

20

What is the main question raised in the first line of the target passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 20

It asks whether all things really declare Allah's name by the way they function.

21

Is the answer doubtful or certain in the passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 21

It is presented as certain.

22

Why would a single person ordering around a whole town seem impossible by his own strength?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 22

Because one person alone would not have enough power or authority to do that.

23

What is surprising about the roots of plants and trees?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 23

Even though they are very soft, they can move through hard ground and rock.

24

What teaching is asked about in the first sentence of the target passage?

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 24

It asks whether all beings really proclaim Allah's name by their very state.
