

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 1

1-) What is presented as the beginning of every good action? (6 kelime)

Saying

2-) What does the passage say this phrase is for Islam? (7 kelime)

It

3-) What was the main difference between the two men who entered the desert? (14 kelime)

One was humble

4-) Why would a person be in great danger there without protection?

(9 kelime)

He would

5-) What happened to the proud man during the journey? (14 kelime)

He faced many

6-) What was the result for the first traveler? (7 kelime)

He

7-) Why should a person take the name of Allah according to the passage? (14 kelime)

So he will

8-) What does taking Allah's name save a person from? (10 kelime)

From fear

9-) What example is given to explain a person who acts in Allah's name? (14 kelime)
A person enrolled

10-) What big message ties the story and the final example together? (14 kelime)
Relying on Allah

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 2

1-) What special phrase is the passage explaining? (8 kelime)

The phrase

2-) What does the passage say all creatures do in their own way? (12 kelime)

They point to

3-) Why is the desert journey dangerous for someone traveling alone? (13 kelime)

Because there are

4-) What personal quality helped the first man make a good choice? (1 kelime)

5-) What mistake did the proud man make? (6 kelime)

He

6-) How did it help him with ordinary people in the tents? (8 kelime)

It caused

7-) What feeling can a person leave behind by beginning in Allah's name? (2 kelime)

8-) What does the passage teach about human ability on its own? (11 kelime)

It is

9-) In the army example, whose name gives the soldier confidence? (3 kelime)

10-) Why is joining the army a good example here? (12 kelime)
Because the soldier

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 3

1-) What should Muslims begin with according to the passage? (6 kelime)

They

2-) How does the passage describe this phrase at the beginning? (8 kelime)

As the

3-) What does a traveler gain by entering under a chief's protection? (7 kelime)

Safety

4-) What did travelers in that setting need from a tribal leader? (4 kelime)

His

5-) What happened to the humble traveler when he used the chief's name? (9 kelime)

People did

6-) What did the humble man do that the proud man refused to do? (6 kelime)

He

7-) What should a person do since human weakness and need are so great? (9 kelime)

He should

8-) In the lesson after the story, what do "endless enemies and needs" help us understand? (12 kelime)

They show how

9-) What can a person endure when he acts in Allah's name? (7 kelime)

He

10-) How can weakness and poverty become something good in this teaching? (13 kelime)

They can lead

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 4

1-) What is the first teaching given in this passage? (9 kelime)

That every

2-) In the comparison, why does a traveler in the desert need to go under a tribal leader's protection? (12 kelime)

So he can

3-) In the story, what kind of land were the two men crossing? (3 kelime)

4-) How was the humble man treated when he reached tents? (11 kelime)

People treated

5-) What did the proud traveler's attitude lead him to do? (9 kelime)

It led

6-) What two human weaknesses are described as having no limit? (3 kelime)

7-) When the passage speaks to the nafs, what truth about a person is being taught? (10 kelime)

That a

8-) How are weakness and need changed when a person says Allah's name? (11 kelime)

They become

9-) In what way is a believer like a soldier in the final example? (14 kelime)

He acts with

10-) What is one main idea of the whole passage? (9 kelime)

Starting with

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 5

1-) According to the passage, what should come first in all good things? (4 kelime)

Beginning

2-) What kind of story is used to teach this lesson? (7 kelime)

A

3-) What two problems does a lone traveler face in the desert? (3 kelime)

4-) What wise step did the humble man take before traveling? (10 kelime)

He traveled

5-) How did using the chief's name help the first traveler with dangerous people? (6 kelime)

It

6-) What does the passage teach the speaker's nafs about life in this world? (13 kelime)

That it is

7-) When the lesson is explained, what does the passage call the human self? (2 kelime)

8-) What treasure is found in this phrase? (8 kelime)

It gives

9-) What makes this phrase like a treasure chest? (9 kelime)

It opens

10-) What is one strong warning the passage gives through the proud traveler? (11 kelime)

Depending on

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 6

1-) What phrase stands at the center of this passage? (9 kelime)

The phrase

2-) Where does the comparison in the passage take place? (5 kelime)

In

3-) What teaching method is used after the introduction? (9 kelime)

A story

4-) Which man had a bad attitude, and what was it? (10 kelime)

The other

5-) How were the two men different in character? (8 kelime)

One was

6-) What does the passage say about the number of our enemies and needs? (6 kelime)

They

7-) How did the proud man's choice affect his journey? (9 kelime)

It filled

8-) What comparison is made between saying Allah's name and joining the army? (9 kelime)

Both mean

9-) What does the passage say this phrase gives to someone who feels powerless? (8 kelime)

A connection

10-) What final picture explains how a believer can act bravely? (12 kelime)

The picture of

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is presented as the beginning of every good action?

Saying Allah's name at the start.

2-) What does the passage say this phrase is for Islam?

It is one of its clear signs.

3-) What was the main difference between the two men who entered the desert?

One was humble and accepted protection, while the other was proud and refused it.

4-) Why would a person be in great danger there without protection?

He would face attacks and many needs by himself.

5-) What happened to the proud man during the journey?

He faced many troubles, became afraid, begged from others, and was looked down on.

6-) What was the result for the first traveler?

He traveled safely and was treated well.

7-) Why should a person take the name of Allah according to the passage?

So he will not fear everything or lower himself by begging from all creation.

8-) What does taking Allah's name save a person from?

From fear of events and from depending on everything else.

9-) What example is given to explain a person who acts in Allah's name?

A person enrolled in the army who acts with the authority of the government.

10-) What big message ties the story and the final example together?

Relying on Allah brings protection and honor, while trusting only yourself leads to trouble.

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What special phrase is the passage explaining?

The phrase that means beginning in Allah's name.

2-) What does the passage say all creatures do in their own way?

They point to and declare Allah's name through how they were made.

3-) Why is the desert journey dangerous for someone traveling alone?

Because there are many threats and many needs he cannot handle by himself.

4-) What personal quality helped the first man make a good choice?

Humility.

5-) What mistake did the proud man make?

He trusted himself and refused protection.

6-) How did it help him with ordinary people in the tents?

It caused them to welcome and honor him.

7-) What feeling can a person leave behind by beginning in Allah's name?

Constant fear.

8-) What does the passage teach about human ability on its own?

It is not enough because people are very weak and needy.

9-) In the army example, whose name gives the soldier confidence?

The government's name.

10-) Why is joining the army a good example here?

Because the soldier has backing, authority, and courage beyond his own strength.

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What should Muslims begin with according to the passage?

They should begin with Allah's name.

2-) How does the passage describe this phrase at the beginning?

As the proper start of every good matter.

3-) What does a traveler gain by entering under a chief's protection?

Safety and help in meeting his needs.

4-) What did travelers in that setting need from a tribal leader?

His name and protection.

5-) What happened to the humble traveler when he used the chief's name?

People did not harm him, and he received respect.

6-) What did the humble man do that the proud man refused to do?

He traveled under a leader's name.

7-) What should a person do since human weakness and need are so great?

He should rely on Allah by taking His name.

8-) In the lesson after the story, what do "endless enemies and needs" help us understand?

They show how much a person needs Allah's help in this world.

9-) What can a person endure when he acts in Allah's name?

He can face difficult matters with courage.

10-) How can weakness and poverty become something good in this teaching?

They can lead a person to seek Allah sincerely and receive His mercy.

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first teaching given in this passage?

That every good beginning should be with Allah's name.

2-) In the comparison, why does a traveler in the desert need to go under a tribal leader's protection?

So he can be safe from danger and get what he needs.

3-) In the story, what kind of land were the two men crossing?

A desert land.

4-) How was the humble man treated when he reached tents?

People treated him with honor because of the name he carried.

5-) What did the proud traveler's attitude lead him to do?

It led him to reject protection and go alone.

6-) What two human weaknesses are described as having no limit?

Weakness and need.

7-) When the passage speaks to the nafs, what truth about a person is being taught?

That a person is weak and needy in this world.

8-) How are weakness and need changed when a person says Allah's name?

They become a means for receiving help and mercy from Allah.

9-) In what way is a believer like a soldier in the final example?

He acts with the support of a higher authority and is not left alone.

10-) What is one main idea of the whole passage?

Starting with Allah's name gives protection, strength, and honor.

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what should come first in all good things?
Beginning with Allah's name.

2-) What kind of story is used to teach this lesson?

A comparison about traveling through a desert.

3-) What two problems does a lone traveler face in the desert?
Enemies and needs.

4-) What wise step did the humble man take before traveling?
He traveled under the name and protection of a chief.

5-) How did using the chief's name help the first traveler with dangerous people?

It protected him from being attacked.

6-) What does the passage teach the speaker's nafs about life in this world?

That it is like a hard journey where a person cannot succeed alone.

7-) When the lesson is explained, what does the passage call the human self?

A traveler.

8-) What treasure is found in this phrase?

It gives access to Allah's strength and mercy.

9-) What makes this phrase like a treasure chest?

It opens the way to endless help and mercy.

10-) What is one strong warning the passage gives through the proud traveler?

Depending on yourself with arrogance leads to fear, hardship, and disgrace.

5sinif short-words-p02-first-word-bismillahs-blessing-through-a-comparison-and-a-warning-to-the-nafs - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What phrase stands at the center of this passage?

The phrase that means "In the Name of Allah."

2-) Where does the comparison in the passage take place?

In the deserts of Arabia.

3-) What teaching method is used after the introduction?

A story that compares life to a desert journey.

4-) Which man had a bad attitude, and what was it?

The other man, who was proud and full of himself.

5-) How were the two men different in character?

One was humble, and the other was arrogant.

6-) What does the passage say about the number of our enemies and needs?

They are too many to count.

7-) How did the proud man's choice affect his journey?

It filled his trip with trouble, fear, and humiliation.

8-) What comparison is made between saying Allah's name and joining the army?

Both mean acting with support from a higher authority.

9-) What does the passage say this phrase gives to someone who feels powerless?

A connection to Allah's unlimited power and mercy.

10-) What final picture explains how a believer can act bravely?

The picture of a soldier acting with the authority of the state.