

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, who does the first man stand for? (15 kelime)

He stands for

2-) What does that person believe about the creatures in the world?

(10 kelime)

He believes

3-) What does this show about his understanding of life? (14 kelime)

It shows that

4-) Who does the second man stand for? (5 kelime)

He

5-) What is one purpose of the world for people and animals? (12 kelime)

One purpose is

6-) What kind of worker is every living being described as being? (11 kelime)

Every living

7-) How are living beings described from the believer's point of view?

(9 kelime)

They are

8-) How does the believer's faith change his relationship with creation?

(10 kelime)

It makes

9-) What final advice is given after these comparisons? (12 kelime)
We should thank

10-) What final conclusion does the passage give about salvation and safety? (10 kelime)
It says

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 2

1-) What is one big difference between the unbeliever and the believer in this passage? (19 kelime)

The unbeliever sees the

2-) How does the faithless person describe the condition of living beings? (13 kelime)

He thinks they

3-) What is the root cause of the unbeliever's suffering? (7 kelime)

The

4-) What are two roles of this world in the believer's view? (11 kelime)

It is

5-) What is special about the world in the believer's eyes? (12 kelime)

It is full

6-) What do these two explanations teach about Allah's creation? (10 kelime)

They teach

7-) How does faith change the way the believer looks at creation? (10 kelime)

It makes

8-) What do their voices mean according to the passage? (12 kelime)

Their voices mean

9-) What does the comparison to a Hell tree tell us about unbelief? (11 kelime)

It tells

10-) What should a Muslim keep saying because of that blessing? (11 kelime)

A Muslim

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 3

1-) What kind of person is described by the first man in the passage?
(13 kelime)

He is a

2-) How does he look at living things? (13 kelime)

He thinks of

3-) Does this view bring peace or pain? Explain. (12 kelime)

It brings pain,

4-) What does the believer think this world is meant for? (12 kelime)

He thinks it

5-) How does the believer view this world? (20 kelime)

He sees it as a

6-) Why does the believer not see death as total disaster? (11 kelime)

Because he

7-) How does the believer feel toward the beings around him? (13 kelime)

He feels that

8-) How does the believer see all beings around him? (12 kelime)

He sees them

9-) What future result is pictured for unbelief? (10 kelime)

A cursed

10-) What is the fitting way to end after understanding that truth? (12 kelime)

The fitting way

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say unbelief produces inside a person's mind? (7 kelime)

It

2-) What wrong idea does the unbeliever have about separation and death? (9 kelime)

He thinks

3-) Are those thoughts presented as healthy understanding or as harmful mistakes? (6 kelime)

They

4-) What three descriptions of the world are given from the believer's viewpoint? (19 kelime)

It is a place

5-) Why does the passage compare death to release from service? (14 kelime)

Because it shows

6-) What picture is used to explain birth? (9 kelime)

The picture

7-) What do the voices of creatures show at the beginning and end of duty? (17 kelime)

At the beginning they

8-) What main lesson is taught at the end of the passage? (14 kelime)

The main lesson

9-) What does belief contain like a seed? (10 kelime)

It contains

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 5

1-) If someone sees the world as only sadness and ruin, which kind of person does that match in the passage? (8 kelime)

It matches

2-) How does he think death affects living things? (12 kelime)

He thinks death

3-) What causes these painful ideas in him? (9 kelime)

His unbelief

4-) In the believer's view, what is happening in the world all the time? (8 kelime)

Allah's names

5-) Why does the passage say others come after those who die? (12 kelime)

Because life continues

6-) In the believer's view, what does birth mean? (10 kelime)

It means

7-) What does the passage teach about the sounds made by living things? (13 kelime)

It teaches that

8-) What does unbelief hide inside it? (8 kelime)

It hides

9-) What grows from unbelief, according to the passage? (10 kelime)
Unbelief grows

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 6

1-) What two kinds of people are being contrasted in this passage? (10 kelime)

A faithless

2-) Why are these ideas called delusions in the passage? (14 kelime)

Because they are

3-) What makes the believer's view different from the unbeliever's view? (9 kelime)

The believer

4-) What is the first thing the believer does differently? (8 kelime)

He recognizes

5-) How does the believer explain birth? (9 kelime)

He explains

6-) What does the believer understand about the activities of living things? (15 kelime)

He understands them

7-) How are all living beings described by the believer? (9 kelime)

They are

8-) What does the comparison to a Paradise tree tell us about faith? (12 kelime)

It tells us

9-) According to the last lines, where can a person find safety? (9
kelime)

A person

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, who does the first man stand for?

He stands for a person without faith, or a person who is corrupt and careless.

2-) What does that person believe about the creatures in the world?

He believes they are lonely, weak, and crushed by death.

3-) What does this show about his understanding of life?

It shows that he does not see Allah's wisdom, mercy, or purpose in life.

4-) Who does the second man stand for?

He stands for a believer.

5-) What is one purpose of the world for people and animals?

One purpose is that it is a place of instruction and learning.

6-) What kind of worker is every living being described as being?

Every living being is described as a willing and content worker.

7-) How are living beings described from the believer's point of view?

They are described like cheerful soldiers and honest workers.

8-) How does the believer's faith change his relationship with creation?

It makes creation feel friendly and connected to Allah's mercy.

9-) What final advice is given after these comparisons?

We should thank Allah again and again for Islam and strong faith.

10-) What final conclusion does the passage give about salvation and safety?

It says they are found only in Islam and belief.

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one big difference between the unbeliever and the believer in this passage?

The unbeliever sees the world with fear and sorrow, but the believer sees it with meaning, mercy, and hope.

2-) How does the faithless person describe the condition of living beings?

He thinks they are helpless, cut off, and harmed by death and separation.

3-) What is the root cause of the unbeliever's suffering?

The root cause is unbelief and misguidance.

4-) What are two roles of this world in the believer's view?

It is a place of learning and a place of testing.

5-) What is special about the world in the believer's eyes?

It is full of the remembrance of Allah and full of purpose.

6-) What do these two explanations teach about Allah's creation?

They teach that creation is organized with wisdom and purpose.

7-) How does faith change the way the believer looks at creation?

It makes creation seem friendly, meaningful, and connected to Allah.

8-) What do their voices mean according to the passage?

Their voices mean praise of Allah, remembrance of Him, thanks, or joy.

9-) What does the comparison to a Hell tree tell us about unbelief?

It tells us that unbelief leads to evil and painful results.

10-) What should a Muslim keep saying because of that blessing?

A Muslim should keep praising Allah for Islam and complete faith.

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is described by the first man in the passage?

He is a person who lacks faith or lives in sin and heedlessness.

2-) How does he look at living things?

He thinks of them as lonely and helpless, suffering under death and separation.

3-) Does this view bring peace or pain? Explain.

It brings pain, because it fills him with scary and crushing thoughts.

4-) What does the believer think this world is meant for?

He thinks it is meant for remembering Allah, learning, and being tested.

5-) How does the believer view this world?

He sees it as a place where Allah is remembered, where creatures learn, and where people and jinn are tested.

6-) Why does the believer not see death as total disaster?

Because he sees it as moving on after finishing one's duty.

7-) How does the believer feel toward the beings around him?

He feels that they are close, pleasant, and part of Allah's caring rule.

8-) How does the believer see all beings around him?

He sees them as friendly servants of his kind and merciful Lord.

9-) What future result is pictured for unbelief?

A cursed result like a tree of Hell is pictured.

10-) What is the fitting way to end after understanding that truth?

The fitting way is to praise Allah for Islam and complete faith.

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say unbelief produces inside a person's mind?

It produces painful and frightening false ideas.

2-) What wrong idea does the unbeliever have about separation and death?

He thinks they only destroy and tear everything apart.

3-) Are those thoughts presented as healthy understanding or as harmful mistakes?

They are presented as harmful mistakes.

4-) What three descriptions of the world are given from the believer's viewpoint?

It is a place of Allah's remembrance, a school for creatures, and a testing ground for people and jinn.

5-) Why does the passage compare death to release from service?

Because it shows that life's task is finished and the person moves on peacefully.

6-) What picture is used to explain birth?

The picture of being enrolled for service is used.

7-) What do the voices of creatures show at the beginning and end of duty?

At the beginning they show praise of Allah, and at the end they show thanks and joy.

8-) What main lesson is taught at the end of the passage?

The main lesson is that salvation and peace are found in Islam and faith.

9-) What does belief contain like a seed?

It contains the beginning of a beautiful tree of Paradise.

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) If someone sees the world as only sadness and ruin, which kind of person does that match in the passage?

It matches the unbeliever or the heedless sinner.

2-) How does he think death affects living things?

He thinks death leaves them helpless, broken apart, and full of pain.

3-) What causes these painful ideas in him?

His unbelief and going the wrong way cause them.

4-) In the believer's view, what is happening in the world all the time?

Allah's names are being remembered all the time.

5-) Why does the passage say others come after those who die?

Because life continues with new creatures coming to do their own duties.

6-) In the believer's view, what does birth mean?

It means starting life's duties, like being called to serve.

7-) What does the passage teach about the sounds made by living things?

It teaches that their sounds can be understood as praise, thanks, and joy.

8-) What does unbelief hide inside it?

It hides the beginning of a Hell-like tree.

9-) What grows from unbelief, according to the passage?

Unbelief grows into something like a terrible tree of Hell.

5sinif short-words-p06-second-word-interpretation-of-the-comparison-unbelief-and-belief-view-the-world - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two kinds of people are being contrasted in this passage?

A faithless or heedless person is contrasted with a believer.

2-) Why are these ideas called delusions in the passage?

Because they are not the truth; they come from a faithless way of seeing.

3-) What makes the believer's view different from the unbeliever's view?

The believer knows Allah and sees life through faith.

4-) What is the first thing the believer does differently?

He recognizes Allah and confirms belief in Him.

5-) How does the believer explain birth?

He explains it as entering service and beginning duties.

6-) What does the believer understand about the activities of living things?

He understands them as forms of praising Allah, thanking Him, and rejoicing in their work.

7-) How are all living beings described by the believer?

They are described as cheerful soldiers and content workers.

8-) What does the comparison to a Paradise tree tell us about faith?

It tells us that faith leads to goodness, beauty, and everlasting reward.

9-) According to the last lines, where can a person find safety?

A person can find safety in Islam and belief.