

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 1

1-) What does the verse say Allah gives to believers in return for themselves and their wealth? (4 kelime)

He

2-) In this passage, what is being compared to a good trade? (7 kelime)

Giving

3-) Besides being profitable, what two good things does the passage say this choice brings? (12 kelime)

It brings honor

4-) What does the passage tell the reader to do in order to understand this idea better? (6 kelime)

Listen

5-) Who are the people spoken about in the verse? (2 kelime)

6-) What belongs to Allah in this trade? (9 kelime)

A person's

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 2

1-) What is the main lesson introduced in this passage? (13 kelime)

That giving your

2-) How is the relationship with Allah described after this trade? (7 kelime)

A

3-) What feeling about this rank does the passage teach? (9 kelime)

It teaches

4-) Why is the word trade a helpful way to explain the idea? (14 kelime)

It shows that

5-) What reward is named in the verse itself? (1 kelime)

6-) Is this message for all people in general or especially for believers?

(5 kelime)

It

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 3

1-) According to the verse, what has Allah taken from the believers in exchange for Paradise? (5 kelime)

Their

2-) What does the passage say someone should do if he wants to understand this matter? (12 kelime)

He should listen

3-) What two words in the passage show that this exchange is very good for a person? (7 kelime)

It

4-) What role does the passage say a person has when he gives himself to Allah? (6 kelime)

He

5-) What can we infer about Allah's reward from the way the trade is described? (12 kelime)

The reward is

6-) In simple words, what is the believer promised? (1 kelime)

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 4

1-) What does this passage teach about giving your person and property to Allah? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

2-) What title does the passage give to the person who belongs to Allah in this way? (7 kelime)

He

3-) What reward is mentioned for the believers in the Qur'an verse here? (4 kelime)

They

4-) What method does the passage use to explain this truth to the reader? (4 kelime)

It

5-) What kind of people are included in this promise? (5 kelime)

People

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say is gained by selling oneself and one's property to Allah? (8 kelime)

Great benefit,

2-) How does the passage describe serving Allah after making this choice? (10 kelime)

It describes

3-) What should a reader do to understand how good this choice is? (8 kelime)

Pay attention

4-) What does the verse mention along with a person's self? (3 kelime)

5-) In this passage, is giving to Allah shown as something shameful or honorable? (5 kelime)

It

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 6

1-) What exchange is described in the verse at the beginning of this passage? (10 kelime)

Believers give

2-) What picture does the passage use to help explain worship and obedience to Allah? (7 kelime)

It

3-) What rank does the passage say comes with giving yourself to Allah? (6 kelime)

It

4-) What two roles are joined together in the phrase about serving Allah? (7 kelime)

Being

5-) Why might this trade be called profitable? (13 kelime)

Because what Allah

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the verse say Allah gives to believers in return for themselves and their wealth?

He gives them Paradise.

2-) In this passage, what is being compared to a good trade?

Giving oneself and one's property to Allah.

3-) Besides being profitable, what two good things does the passage say this choice brings?

It brings honor and the chance to be Allah's servant and soldier.

4-) What does the passage tell the reader to do in order to understand this idea better?

Listen to the comparison that follows.

5-) Who are the people spoken about in the verse?

The believers.

6-) What belongs to Allah in this trade?

A person's self and property are given to Allah.

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main lesson introduced in this passage?

That giving your life and belongings to Allah is a very rewarding choice.

2-) How is the relationship with Allah described after this trade?

A person becomes Allah's servant and soldier.

3-) What feeling about this rank does the passage teach?

It teaches that this rank is noble and honorable.

4-) Why is the word trade a helpful way to explain the idea?

It shows that a person gives something and receives something much better from Allah.

5-) What reward is named in the verse itself?

Paradise.

6-) Is this message for all people in general or especially for believers?

It is especially for believers.

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the verse, what has Allah taken from the believers in exchange for Paradise?

Their lives and their wealth.

2-) What does the passage say someone should do if he wants to understand this matter?

He should listen to the example that is about to be given.

3-) What two words in the passage show that this exchange is very good for a person?

It is described as profitable and honorable.

4-) What role does the passage say a person has when he gives himself to Allah?

He becomes Allah's servant and soldier.

5-) What can we infer about Allah's reward from the way the trade is described?

The reward is far greater and better than what a person gives.

6-) In simple words, what is the believer promised?

Jannah.

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does this passage teach about giving your person and property to Allah?

It teaches that doing so is a great gain, not a loss.

2-) What title does the passage give to the person who belongs to Allah in this way?

He is called Allah's servant and soldier.

3-) What reward is mentioned for the believers in the Qur'an verse here?

They will have Paradise.

4-) What method does the passage use to explain this truth to the reader?

It uses a comparison.

5-) What kind of people are included in this promise?

People who believe in Allah.

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say is gained by selling oneself and one's property to Allah?

Great benefit, honor, and the reward of Paradise.

2-) How does the passage describe serving Allah after making this choice?

It describes it as being His slave and His soldier.

3-) What should a reader do to understand how good this choice is?

Pay attention to the comparison that comes next.

4-) What does the verse mention along with a person's self?

A person's property.

5-) In this passage, is giving to Allah shown as something shameful or honorable?

It is shown as honorable.

5sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What exchange is described in the verse at the beginning of this passage?

Believers give themselves and their wealth, and Allah gives Paradise.

2-) What picture does the passage use to help explain worship and obedience to Allah?

It uses the picture of a trade.

3-) What rank does the passage say comes with giving yourself to Allah?

It is a rank of honor.

4-) What two roles are joined together in the phrase about serving Allah?

Being a servant and being a soldier.

5-) Why might this trade be called profitable?

Because what Allah gives back is much better than what a person offers.