

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 1

1-) In the parable, who does the king stand for? (8 kelime)

He stands

2-) What do the estates and tools in the parable stand for in a person's life? (15 kelime)

They stand for

3-) Who is represented by the noble lieutenant? (10 kelime)

The Messenger

4-) What does the wise decree stand for? (5 kelime)

It

5-) What does the battlefield picture show about this world? (11 kelime)

It shows

6-) What question do people begin to ask when they see things passing away? (16 kelime)

They wonder if there

7-) What answer does the Qur'an give to that worry? (9 kelime)

It says

8-) What is that way? (19 kelime)

It is to give

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 2

1-) What is the main lesson of the parable explained in this passage?
(17 kelime)

A person should offer

2-) Which parts of a person are included among the trusts from Allah?
(14 kelime)

The body, spirit,

3-) Why is the world compared to a battlefield? (9 kelime)
Because it

4-) What feeling does the changing world create in people? (12 kelime)
It makes them

5-) According to the passage, where does the true solution come from?
(5 kelime)
It

6-) What does it mean to sell the trust back to its true Owner? (11 kelime)
It means

7-) Is this trade shown as harmful or beneficial? (6 kelime)
It

8-) How many benefits are mentioned for making this trade? (2 kelime)

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 3

1-) How does the passage help the reader understand the parable? (12 kelime)

It explains what

2-) In the explanation, who is being addressed by the words to the nafs? (7 kelime)

A

3-) What are some examples of outward and inward senses named in the passage? (9 kelime)

The eye,

4-) What role does the Messenger of Allah have in the explained parable? (11 kelime)

He is

5-) What is the verse about in simple words? (14 kelime)

It teaches that

6-) What does the world's constant changing show about earthly things? (8 kelime)

It shows

7-) According to the passage, who is the real owner of the trust? (5 kelime)

Allah

8-) What does the phrase true Owner teach about human ownership?

(9 kelime)
It teaches

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 4

1-) What does the king's title teach us about Allah? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

2-) What does it mean that our possessions are in life's care only for a time? (13 kelime)

It means we

3-) Why are the body and senses included among possessions? (12 kelime)

Because they are

4-) Why is the Qur'an connected with the decree in the story? (10 kelime)

Because it

5-) What causes people to think deeply in the changing world? (8 kelime)

Seeing everything

6-) What hope is offered after that worry? (11 kelime)

There is

7-) What action begins that transformation? (9 kelime)

Returning the

8-) What number of profits is clearly promised in the passage? (1 kelime)

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 5

1-) What is the verse's promise to believers in this passage? (12 kelime)
If they give

2-) How is the Qur'an described in relation to this trade? (9 kelime)
It is

3-) What human problem is described by the image of things slipping from our hands? (8 kelime)
People cannot

4-) What does the passage say a person hears during that moment of worry? (12 kelime)
The message of

5-) What is being traded in this passage? (10 kelime)
A person's

6-) Why is giving them to Allah not a real loss? (12 kelime)
Because Allah is

7-) What does the passage suggest about the value of worldly things by themselves? (11 kelime)
By themselves,

8-) Why is this called a trust? (17 kelime)
Because what people have

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 6

1-) What does the phrase telescope of this parable suggest? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

2-) Which two special roles of Allah are named when the king is explained? (9 kelime)

Allah is

3-) Name two inner or outer abilities listed among Allah's trusts. (8 kelime)

Two examples

4-) What does the changing battlefield teach about life in this world? (10 kelime)

It teaches

5-) Why might a person feel worried after noticing this change? (9 kelime)

Because he

6-) What better path is announced by the Qur'an? (9 kelime)

The path

7-) What makes this path different from simply holding onto worldly things? (9 kelime)

It turns

8-) What kind of result comes from this trade? (6 kelime)
It

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the parable, who does the king stand for?

He stands for Allah, our Creator and Sustainer.

2-) What do the estates and tools in the parable stand for in a person's life?

They stand for a person's body, soul, heart, senses, and other things Allah has given.

3-) Who is represented by the noble lieutenant?

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.

4-) What does the wise decree stand for?

It stands for the Qur'an.

5-) What does the battlefield picture show about this world?

It shows that this world keeps changing and nothing stays forever.

6-) What question do people begin to ask when they see things passing away?

They wonder if there is a way to keep what they have from being lost forever.

7-) What answer does the Qur'an give to that worry?

It says there is a good and easy way.

8-) What is that way?

It is to give back the trust to its real Owner by dedicating oneself and one's belongings to Allah.

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main lesson of the parable explained in this passage?

A person should offer himself and what he has to Allah, because Allah is the true Owner.

2-) Which parts of a person are included among the trusts from Allah?

The body, spirit, heart, eyes, tongue, mind, imagination, and other inner and outer abilities.

3-) Why is the world compared to a battlefield?

Because it is full of change, loss, and uncertainty.

4-) What feeling does the changing world create in people?

It makes them realize that things slip away and do not last.

5-) According to the passage, where does the true solution come from?

It comes from the Qur'an.

6-) What does it mean to sell the trust back to its true Owner?

It means using your life and gifts the way Allah wants.

7-) Is this trade shown as harmful or beneficial?

It is shown as very beneficial.

8-) How many benefits are mentioned for making this trade?

Five benefits.

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage help the reader understand the parable?

It explains what each part of the story means in real life.

2-) In the explanation, who is being addressed by the words to the nafs?

A person's selfish side that follows desires.

3-) What are some examples of outward and inward senses named in the passage?

The eye, the tongue, the mind, and the imagination.

4-) What role does the Messenger of Allah have in the explained parable?

He is the honored messenger who brings the message from Allah.

5-) What is the verse about in simple words?

It teaches that believers give themselves and their wealth to Allah and receive Paradise.

6-) What does the world's constant changing show about earthly things?

It shows that worldly things are not permanent.

7-) According to the passage, who is the real owner of the trust?

Allah is the real Owner.

8-) What does the phrase true Owner teach about human ownership?

It teaches that human ownership is limited and temporary.

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the king's title teach us about Allah?

It teaches that Allah rules forever, with no beginning and no end.

2-) What does it mean that our possessions are in life's care only for a time?

It means we do not own them forever and cannot keep them permanently.

3-) Why are the body and senses included among possessions?

Because they are gifts given to us to use during our lives.

4-) Why is the Qur'an connected with the decree in the story?

Because it gives Allah's guidance and shows the right path.

5-) What causes people to think deeply in the changing world?

Seeing everything fade, break apart, or pass away.

6-) What hope is offered after that worry?

There is a way to turn temporary things into lasting reward.

7-) What action begins that transformation?

Returning the trust to Allah by living for Him.

8-) What number of profits is clearly promised in the passage?

Five.

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the verse's promise to believers in this passage?

If they give themselves and their wealth to Allah, they gain Paradise.

2-) How is the Qur'an described in relation to this trade?

It is described as the guide that explains it.

3-) What human problem is described by the image of things slipping from our hands?

People cannot stop worldly things from passing away.

4-) What does the passage say a person hears during that moment of worry?

The message of the Qur'an calling to an easy and beautiful way.

5-) What is being traded in this passage?

A person's self and possessions are being offered to Allah.

6-) Why is giving them to Allah not a real loss?

Because Allah is their real Owner and gives great reward in return.

7-) What does the passage suggest about the value of worldly things by themselves?

By themselves, they do not last and cannot be fully kept.

8-) Why is this called a trust?

Because what people have really belongs to Allah and is only placed with them for a time.

5sinif short-words-p17-sixth-word-applying-the-comparison-selling-the-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the phrase telescope of this parable suggest?

It suggests that the story helps us see the truth more clearly.

2-) Which two special roles of Allah are named when the king is explained?

Allah is described as the Sustainer and the Creator.

3-) Name two inner or outer abilities listed among Allah's trusts.

Two examples are the eye and the intelligence.

4-) What does the changing battlefield teach about life in this world?

It teaches that life here is unstable and always changing.

5-) Why might a person feel worried after noticing this change?

Because he sees that things he loves may disappear.

6-) What better path is announced by the Qur'an?

The path of giving the trust back to Allah.

7-) What makes this path different from simply holding onto worldly things?

It turns something temporary into something lasting and rewarding.

8-) What kind of result comes from this trade?

It brings five kinds of benefit.